Alexander I. ROARKE

"Originally worked for the New York Office of the FBI as a clerk. Since then he has been known to impersonate Federal agents, although he has not been apprehended for it. He is the ~~brother~~ son of Sherman Billingsley. ROARKE was jailed in Habana 1st year and feels that the State Department did not spring him quick enough--evidently he spent a couple of days in jail. Ever since he has been viciously attacking the State Department. His father is a U.S. federal referee and this guy is now unemployed and considered a pest. The local Bureau here avoids him like the plague--and possibly you might want to get a rundown from the Bureau. He might use us as a springboard if we get too involved, but we will be glad to talk with him if you want us to.

"This information is from an unofficial contact in the Bureau who is on the Cuba desk. He, in turn, has been very helpful to us unofficially. Please protect the source."
