1. Subject phoned me at about 1500 9 July. He said he was in New York at the Hotel Berkshire and would be there until tonight. From there he plans to go to his home in Georgia where he will remain a few days, and then proceed to Miami.

2. He said he had looked into the story that Loos, fnu is the representative of a Col. Frei fnu of the Swiss army, who has 1,000 men available for duty as soldiers. He said that Loos actually exists, that he had contacted him and had some details on the matter. He inquired whether he should stop by Washington. I suggested that he not stop at this time, but that he send me a full report on the matter by registered mail, along with the bills for his travel.
