SOURCE: A former Cuban IS officer who served with the Cuban Intelligence Service until April 1964.

Headquarters Comment:

The following report is one of a series containing personality information provided by the source and includes supplemental information from the records of this Agency.

It is requested that the addressees take no action on any of the personnel mentioned in the personality reports without first consulting with this Agency.

1. Source identified a photograph of Rafael Francisco TAVERAS Rosario as being a Dominican and a member of the pro-Castro Agrupacion Politica Catorce de Julio (APCJ).
2. As a member of the APCJ, TAVERAS was originally sent to Cuba to secure a scholarship in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR). (However, source judges that while this scholarship did not materialize, TAVERAS was part of the guerrilla warfare training program instead.) Source believes that TAVERAS was still in Cuba at the time he left.

Headquarters Comment

1. Rafael Francisco ("Fafa") TAVERAS Rosario, who was born about 1938, was elected secretary of publicity and propaganda on the APCJ Central Executive Committee in December 1962. He held that title when he left the Dominican Republic on 13 September 1964 for Mexico on a Spanish ship, en route to the Soviet Union.

Union to study on a scholarship, traveling with Jaime DURAN Hernandez, Hugo TOYOS Vargas, and Norge Williams BOTELLO Fernandez, APCI leaders. (See TSCS-3/558, 654). In early November 1963, a leader of the APCI reported that TAVERAS, DURAN, TOYOS, and BOTELLO were then in Moscow studying economics (see CS-3/565, 960); however, in early December 1963 another source reported that TAVERAS, DURAN, TOYOS, and BOTELLO were then in Cuba and did not plan to go to the Soviet Union as they were unable to obtain the scholarships either before they left for Cuba or since they had been in Cuba. (See CS-3/568, 846). In late October 1964, BOTELLO said that TAVERAS had been in Cuba as a member of his training group which had seven months of military training, and that he expected TAVERAS to return to the Dominican Republic soon, using a false passport to enter the country (See TDCS-314/04551-64). On 12 December 1964, DURAN said that TAVERAS returned to the Dominican Republic from Cuba on or about 12 December 1964, probably using a false passport. (See CS-311/66014-65).
