OPLA 2555

Personally, S/1 appeared to understand and to follow good security practices by and large, but he was concerned that his wife now suspected him of being "up to something" of which she did not approve. In short, his overall long-term security appeared weak at best. Nevertheless, he appeared highly confident that previous denunciations to which he had been subjected would not "stick" and that he could rapidly reestablish himself among [redacted]

His relationship to KUBARK over the longer period has apparently been of considerable interest to him, to the extent that he stated he would be interested in some sort of career status with KUBARK (with retirement benefits) and perhaps one day a "less covert" position. At this time in our relationship with S/1, however, [redacted] is concerned primarily with what to do with him on 1 September 1965. In fact, in view of the 19-20 June developments in [redacted] and the possible postponement of most of the activities S/1 was to cover in efforts to reestablish himself as a legitimate [redacted]

[redacted] KUBARK may find it not only feasible, but necessary, to revise S/1's initial KUBARK mission.

In the days and weeks to come we will be reporting S/1's progress as he relates his accomplishments and problems through [redacted] and in meetings with RODIGAST. We shall be submitting recommendations on S/1's longer term utility to KUBARK as we have more information upon which to make some judgments. We know that addresses will be subjecting the [redacted] operation to constant evaluation and analysis throughout the summer, and we will appreciate continued and coordinated guidance on how best to exploit the unique potential represented by this asset.

I. [redacted] SUPPORT FOR THE [redacted] OPERATION

1. On 3 June 1965 [redacted] S/1 signed a letter of agreement with [redacted] in effect a contract with KUBARK. Upon signing the letter of agreement and agreeing to undergo an LCPLUTTER examination, S/1 was introduced to Rufus F. RODIGAST, a KUBARK Career Agent based in [redacted] who had been designated S/1's outside case officer. RODIGAST is known to S/1 under the alias [redacted] RODIGAST met at length with S/1 on 3, 5, and 6 June and made arrangements for S/1 to meet him in [redacted] 12 June and undergo further training, briefing, and security processing prior to embarking on a trial assignment of some 10 weeks.

2. On 12 June 1965 S/1 made contact with RODIGAST in [redacted] in accordance with instructions and was taken immediately to a [redacted] for debriefing on his 8-11 June trip in [redacted] and for [redacted] of [redacted] RODIGAST's Contact Report on this meeting and his report of the debriefing are included in Attachment B (USC.). S/1 was passed $200.00 to make travel arrangements for his trip to [redacted] (See also [redacted] 4057).

3. On 13 June S/1 again met RODIGAST in accordance with instructions and was taken to his LCPLUTTER examination at an [redacted] The results of this examination were forwarded in [redacted] 4056. In short, the outcome of the examination was considered satisfactory for the proposed operational use of S/1.

4. On 14 and 15 June RODIGAST again met with S/1 for further debriefings on the latter's contacts in [] RODIGAST then briefed him on [] requirements for [] and passed on the requirements for information forwarded in DIR 18107 and DIR 18675. RODIGAST's reports on these meetings are also included in Attachment B (USC). On 14 June S/1 was passed $500.00 as an advance on his per diem and travel expenses for his next meeting with RODIGAST. RODIGAST considers S/1 an apt student who learned the [] well in some two hours of instruction. [] KURIOT Officer DONAHY noted some carelessness on S/1's part [] and this was subsequently brought to S/1's attention in the overall security briefing he received from RODIGAST.

6. The next RODIGAST contact with S/1 is scheduled for 15 July in [] (See OPLA 2538 for [] request for [] Station support.) In view of the [] the meeting may well be concerned as much with rethinking S/1's operational objectives for the period following 16 July as with debriefings, briefings, and passage of funds. Even though latest indications are that [] will proceed as scheduled, it is questionable whether the [] or the [] will be held in [] this summer. Moreover, there is no assurance at this writing that [] will not be either postponed, canceled, or moved elsewhere. Add to this the possibility that DIEN A might be on the scene profiting from the sudden rise in the political fortunes of his friends, and [] suddenly loses some of its appeal as an area in which to carry out a meaningful test of S/1's operational capabilities. The next three weeks will tell us much and perhaps allay many of our apprehensions.

7. Nevertheless, RODIGAST must be prepared to handle a number of eventualities in his 15 July meeting, not the least of these being a possible revision of S/1's mission. The following possible alternatives present themselves; we ask Headquarters to address its attention to them and to other developmental targets and to cable recommendations and guidance prior to 13 July:

8. The second RODIGAST meeting of the summer with S/1 is tentatively scheduled for the second week in August, site to be determined. Addressees will know that S/1's wife is expecting their third child o/a 11 August and that S/1 intends to be in [] at that time if at all possible. Although he told RODIGAST he would forego a visit to [] at that time if it were operationally necessary, he would find it difficult to justify his absence to his wife unless he were to have a truly plausible and urgent cover assignment. We must therefore anticipate in all likelihood that S/1 will be out of action for most of the second week of August. In any event, RODIGAST will probably be able to meet S/1 somewhere in Europe when S/1 returns to be with his wife and will at that time hope to be in a position to discuss with S/1 the best employment of his talents for the balance of the three-month contract period and to pursue with him his longer range utilization as well. Headquarters views, then, are needed both with respect to the weeks immediately following the 15 July meeting referred to in the previous paragraph as well as with respect to the post-August period.

9. Administratively, [] has so far funded S/1 to the extent of $700.00 and has initiated action to have his salary and nonaccountable operational advance deposited to his []. These payments are being made in advance because of S/1's initially pressing financial needs. It is our understanding that the 1 July and 1 August 1965 deposits of $600.00 to S/1's [] will be effected securely and on time through [] (see DIR 20944 and DIR 21703). Action was also taken to clarify the question of S/1's per diem. We have received his initial accountings for travel, per diem, and operational expenses for the period 8 - 12 June.

10. On the basis of information available to [] S/1 has received the following payments from KUBARK since he was first contacted in [] by George H. KATZENBACH in January of this year (we have no record at hand of the KUBARK funds passed S/1 by []):

AMOUNT	DATE	COMMENT
$300.00	1/25/65 (o/a)	Ops payment per DIR 78506
400.00	2/23/65	Ops payment per ORLM 21869
400.00	April/65	Ops payment per DIR 28974
400.00	May/65	Ops payment per DIR 04341
100.00	6/2/65	Ops payment per DIR 04341 (signing bonus)
500.00	6/3/65	Ops salary advance for June/65
100.00	6/3/65	Nonaccountable ops advance for June/65
200.00	6/3/65	Travel and per diem advance
200.00	6/12/65	Travel Advance
500.00	6/14/65	Travel and per diem advance.

TOTAL: $3,100.00

11. Beginning with the Ops payment in May 1965, these payments have been T/A'd to Headquarters for charge to []. In addition to his present salary of $500.00 per month and his $100.00 monthly nonaccountable advance for operational expenses, S/1 is entitled to the following under the letter of agreement he signed 3 June 1965:

- a) necessary expenses incurred in connection with such operational travel as may be directed or authorized by ODYORK.
- b) operational expenses in excess of $100.00 monthly nonaccountable advance as are specifically authorized by ODYORK.
- c) compensation in an amount mutually agreed upon for the relocation of S/1 and his family to a new residence if such relocation is considered desirable by S/1 and ODYORK.
- d) per diem at the rate of $20.00 per day during periods of authorized travel (i.e.: during absence from []).

II. PRELIMINARY ASSESSMENT

12. At this stage in KUBARK's relationship with []/1 it is well to note certain factors that must be taken into consideration as we seek to devise a longer-term operation centered on his capabilities and potential. For the sake of brevity, if not precision, we will discuss these factors under the following headings: Personal Assets, Motivation, Handling & Guidance, Security, Termination, and KUBARK Operational Requirements.

PERSONAL ASSETS:

13. []/1, as has been noted in CIA 42,750 "really astonishes with the breadth of his personal information and understanding... 7 of 7" (especially in []), [] and [] and their general milieu, and [] organizations. Similarly, he appears to be informed on certain [] efforts at []. Combined with this knowledge and understanding is a long list of personal contacts in [] circles and a reputation as an articulate and committed [].

14. The Agent exudes an air of self-confidence and presents himself well and dynamically in interpersonal relationships. He has demonstrated talent as a [] especially as a []. While we have limited information here upon which to base an evaluation of the accuracy and thoroughness of his reports, they have tended to be consistent on the whole and reveal the workings of a mind capable of storing away vast amounts of information and recalling it with minimal stimulation. S/1 seems to have good command of the French language and can get by in Italian and Spanish. He has had considerable experience in international travel, apparently accommodating well to various degrees of discomfort and hardship as the case may require. He is able to use cameras and tape recorders operationally, and he quickly learned [].

15. Because of his [] characteristics S/1 can pass relatively unnoticed as a [] or [] inter alia. He gives the impression of being able to strike up casual friendships readily and easily.

MOTIVATION:

16. This is a sticky area open to considerable speculation at this point, though there are specific actions and statements on the part of S/1 indicating he has sought some professional relationship with KUBARK for several years. We understand, for example, that he tried to establish contact with CUYKE while a student in Italy in 1951-52, that he appeared to be most cooperative when questioned by PERDING [] in relation to the assassination of President Kennedy, and that he took a calculated (?) risk by writing in directly to KUBARK in the summer of 1962 offering his services. In his contacts with KUBARKers since January of this year he has given every indication of being forthcoming and, apparently, sincerely interested in cooperating with us. One has the impression he was hoping to be recruited, and he certainly didn't play hard to get.

17. Now that he has signed a letter of agreement, undergone an LCPMASTER, and been passed a considerable amount of KUBARK money he may consider himself already "on the team," though in effect he was told specifically at the outset that he had to prove himself over the next three months. He has intimated to RODIGAST that he would like to parlay his present association with KUBARK into a long-term career relationship including retirement, insurance, etc. He has even alluded to an interest in working for RODIGAST's "service" in a "less covert" capacity sometime in the future.

18. One basic question rests with all of us concerned: Why?

In his early talks with the [] Station and again in his talks with RODIGAST and TIFFANY the Agent has indicated some degree of disenchantment with the organizations and personalities, if not the ideology, of the [] with which he had been so intimately involved. He has never gone so far as to renounce his birthright and citizenship, nor does he consider himself disloyal after several years of professional [] activity. He intimates that he would someday like to return home, though he doubts he would be allowed to live down his past and start a new career in PEPIDE.

19. On the basis of information available to us we could not to KUBARK.

20. There is a strong case for the argument that hard cash plays a significant role in motivating S/1 to cooperate with KUBARK at this point in time. All reports emphasize that he was not just broke, but deeply in debt, when he began talking to [] Station. Subsequently he has been receiving what amounts to a salary at a rate somewhat in excess of average for a European [] let alone a professional small-time [] Since he has had no valid cover story for anything other than the first advance(s) from [] we cannot be sure that he has let his wife, his in-laws, or his immediate circle of associates know the extent of his newly-acquired affluence. He is quite capable of thinking big operationally and has bluntly stated that it takes money to "move" in [] and that "poverty is no virtue in the 'Third World'".

21. But S/1 does not appear to be an out and out mercenary. There must be other factors than money alone that would lead him to cooperate with KUBARK. It could well be that he is reacting philosophically to an outlook on life that let him down despite years of devoted cultivation. In the long debriefings he rarely, if ever, mentioned anyone who he felt had really accomplished anything as a professional [] There are indications that he regards his activities over recent years as somewhat unrewarding, though there is little indication that he didn't enjoy much of what he did or that he doesn't consider the cause of the [] a just and honorable cause. He may, simply, have reappraised the results of some years of [] activity with a somewhat jaundiced eye and decided it was time for a change.

22. Certainly S/1 builds a convincing case about the reasons for his break with ILEN C, but it must also be noted that ideology is not among them. If anything, it would seem he was reacting to a breach of contract and perhaps wounded pride. The net result seemed to be a well of resentment against one individual, which resentment fermented into spite and determination to "get even." If this assumption is granted, [] in [] and the [] he submitted to [] are both explainable and explain such. It was his involvement with these [] that triggered KUBARK's operational interest in him, and we initiated contact at a period when he was, perhaps, basking in (what he probably considered) the success of his attack on ILEN A.

23. Looked at from still another angle, S/1's future prospects in January of this year (both in his professional and his personal life) were anything but bright for: he was jobless, in debt, to some extent cast off by the [] apparently felt homeless (as far as having something to which he could return in PEPIDE), and (from what scraps of information we can piece together) was not experiencing a mutually agreeable marital life. (He asserts he was unfaithful and that his wife knew it. We have learned from KATZENBACH's talks with the [] that she was unfaithful in her turn, though we have no confirmation of this from S/1). In such a situation KUBARK was able to offer S/1 an opportunity to, in effect, begin anew, get out of a hole, rebuild his own self-esteem, and perhaps even build up some credit toward an eventual return to FEPRIDE under conditions which he would find bearable.

24. It is interesting that in his long conversations with RODIGAST he should raise the question of his motivation as if to reassure ODYNEK that he was "on the level." He protested that he must not think that he had taken on this job just to "get out of a hole" for three months and explained that he wasn't really in a hole. He claimed that his debts to his brother-in-law were not a pressing matter at all. (However, during his LCF/UTIRA examination we are told that [redacted] [redacted] We were probing to find out if he was indeed under some obligation, financial or otherwise, to certain of his [redacted] associates of the past two and a half years, and what ensued was an outpouring of all the small and not so small debts he owed virtually everyone he knew. Foremost among these was the debt of some $1,500 to his brother-in-law. Whether or not he feels pressed to repay is not as important as the fact that there seem to be times when it weighs heavily on his mind.)

25. Giving S/1 the last word, the following report from RODIGAST on his 14 June conversation with the Agent should be given careful consideration: "It was clear that he was telling me, without spelling it out in words, that he had made up his mind to cooperate with us because, or partly because, he had decided he wanted to be on our side. He even used expressions like 'our side'. I had the feeling that he did not want to say outright that he was changing his political orientation for fear that we would not believe him, but that in fact he might very well be doing so; I think there was something genuine in his protestation that he wasn't with us 'only for the money'."

HANDLING & GUIDANCE:

26. The least that can be said of S/1 in summarizing his relationship with his KUBARK contacts so far is that he is not docile and passive. He appears to be a self-starter with a sense of what is necessary to get an operation off the ground. From his account of his work for IDEN C it would appear that he can honestly claim a great deal of credit for putting the [redacted] into business.

27. To date S/1 has expressed no reluctance to undertake his current mission nor to consider other missions for KUBARK which might work a hardship on him or place his person or reputation in jeopardy. His responsiveness, in fact, encourages us to believe that he will accept assignments which permit him to move easily in those [redacted] circles which are natural to him and which comprise, in effect, his natural target. He has, of course, made a case for working out of [redacted] or [redacted] rather than [redacted] or [redacted] but this was prior to his entering into a formal relationship with ODYNEK.

28. RODIGAST feels that he has been able to establish a good degree of working rapport with S/1 and perhaps even some degree of personal rapport. They have had some half-dozen meetings so far, including three working sessions in [redacted] RODIGAST has stressed to him the vital importance of good security habits, not the least of which involves such personal behavior as will keep him out of compromising situations (in respect to his work for KUBARK).

29. S/1 has been on time for all his meetings with RODIGAST and has complied well with instructions; he submitted without hesitation to the LCF/UTIRA and agreed to work with [redacted] (accepting the risks involved in [redacted]). S/1 has not failed to remind RODIGAST of the probable cost of his upkeep and operational activities while in [redacted] and has been assured that RODIGAST "fought for the $20.00 per diem right on up the line." Needless to say, []/1 seemed most happy to know that RODIGAST was concerned for his welfare.

30. RODIGAST feels that he can manage S/1's self-assertion and dynamism, and [] points to RODIGAST's record of handling "difficult" agents. RODIGAST's experience is reassuring in this connection, and we have no reservations about RODIGAST's ability to keep []/1 motivated in the months ahead.

31. A last word on the matter of handling: turn-over. So far S/1 has dealt with KATZENBACH, TIFFANY, and RODIGAST and has been forthcoming with all. There is no indication at this early stage that he has placed his relationship with KUBARK on a person-to-person plane nor are we sure he should be encouraged to do so. As representatives of ODYXER the three persons mentioned above have apparently earned S/1's trust, and anyone introduced to him by one of them would probably be accepted with the same degree of confidence should the introduction of another case officer become necessary. In effect, then, we foresee no handling problem with S/1 as far as a change in case officers might be concerned. We would point out, though, that S/1 has been handled sympathetically and without hostility to date and that those who have dealt with him would strongly advise firm intelligent direction and against a provocative or heavy-handed approach to such a complex and self-centered personality.

SECURITY:

32. S/1's very background is enough to pose all the security problems one would want to contend with in any operation. At the same time it is that very background that makes him valuable to KUBARK. Therefore we can discount many logical apprehensions about his personal loyalty and motivation (discussed previously) and proceed to questions of operational security.

33. Furthermore, IDEN A seems at this moment to hold as great a grudge against S/1 as S/1 holds against him, and IDEN A may still have better connections in the [] than S/1. This is especially so in view of the 19-20 June 1965 downfall of the [] IDEN A was not a [] man, and his fortunes declined sharply in inverse proportion to the rise of [] IDEN A's closest link to [] has long been [] according to S/1. In the papers of 22 June we read that, in a "startling development," former [] and said he was ready to "assume his responsibilities." We presume that IDEN A will seek to move quickly to derive personal advantage from this sudden change in [] As if operating in the [] security climate were not hazardous enough, S/1 may well have to contend with a vendetta mounted by IDEN A.

also. As noted in the discussion on motivation, he has been receiving funds since January with only [] to give as a source. His wife, who is a [] is presently suspicious of his activities, he says, largely because he received a phone call from [] in January. He explained it was a FBPRIME [] passing through who wished to talk with him, to which she was supposed to have retorted: "Why should someone from FBPRIME be interested in you, and, moreover, why should you be interested in working for anything or anyone from FBPRIME?" S/1 told RODIGAST that the [] initiated by [] 8004 did not fully dispel her skepticism. S/1's reaction to the FLUTTER examination on the []

36. S/1 seems to be most concerned that his wife not find out he is working for ODYCKE, let alone KUBARK, and we presume he has reason to feel she would probably say or do something, whether deliberate or not, that would compromise him in his present situation. We do not know the history of S/1's marriage, but we have received indications from him that lead us to believe he could not count on her discretion and loyalty in all circumstances. His relationship with his wife, therefore, must be watched with some care to insure that it does not comprise an undue hazard or that she does not become vulnerable in some way to forces inimical to his effectiveness in his work for KUBARK.

38. On 15 June S/1 told RODIGAST his wife told him on the phone that a letter to him from IDEN D warned him to be careful "as things might be 'hot' for him in [] IDEN D had apparently heard of S/1's forthcoming trip from [] and S/1 surmises this means news of his summer's travels must be rather common knowledge by now.

39. At TIFFANY's request S/1 let IDEN E know he was in [] and S/1 says that latter "came rushing around" to see him. S/1's report on this contact was passed to the [] Station 17 June by [] In the report is S/1's assessment that IDEN E would probably be willing to talk to RODIGAST's "service." We shall discuss this case further with [] Station, but in the meantime it should be noted for the record that as long as S/1 is said by many to be a KUBARK agent, it would not be unreasonable to assume that IDEN E might connect an approach by an ODYCKE representative with his recent conversations with S/1. Therefore, the possibility of a flap here should not be ignored.

40. As far as S/1's contacts with KUBARK, he knows no one by true name and his case officer will continue to [] in all future contacts. At the same time, there is the ever-present danger that he may some day come to know RODIGAST's true name because of the number of acquaintances they have in common in [] It was largely for this reason that RODIGAST will avoid holding future operational meetings with S/1 in [] RODIGAST has already reported the rather unsettling experience of having S/1 tell him: "I think I've seen you someplace before." RODIGAST says this is quite possible. Were S/1 ever to stay in [] for a considerable length of time the chances are Not remote that RODIGAST's identity would be compromised to S/1.

TERMINATION:

41. The question of termination is not academic at this time, for explicit in the letter of agreement which S/1 signed is his termination on 1 September 1965 unless specific conditions are met. It is doubtful that KUBARK will indeed terminate S/1 on that date unless such action is made imperative for reasons of security or of gross malfeasance on his part.

42. In the event of the termination of S/1 we foresee at this time no great cause for concern about possible repercussions against KUBARK personnel or installations. In addition to the use of aliases, RODICAST's meetings with him will be in third countries, and S/1 has not been passed classified information. He does keep in his possession materials for the [redacted] He received training in the use of these materials (and underwent his LCVLAUTER) & [redacted] of two [redacted] personnel. This [redacted] an [redacted] for a clandestine meeting, and [redacted] for at least two months.

43. Should it prove necessary to terminate S/1 the greatest danger which we can anticipate at this time grows out of his considerable skill as a [redacted] and the possibility that this skill might be used to attack KUBARK or ODYCE in some way, perhaps from the [redacted] of the [redacted] [redacted] which he has now foreseen. His knowledge of our operations and personnel has been kept to a minimum. Hence the danger of his [redacted] with great force or effectiveness is, we believe, not great and a problem which, though we must anticipate it, we believe to be remote.

THE KUBARK OPERATIONAL REQUIREMENTS:

44. All concerned would agree that a KUBARK agent who is unable to service KUBARK operational requirements would not be worth his keep. At the same time, it would be presumptuous to expect that in a situation where the agent is being handled at arm's length and under such disadvantages in time and distance as in S/1's case, KUBARK's operational requirements could be regularly and, if necessary, speedily measured against the agent's capabilities and specific requirements levied on the agent.

45. So far in KUBARK's relationship with S/1 we have outlined a general target area for him, levied the requirement that he prove to KUBARK he can effectively penetrate that target area and operate in place, and levied subsidiary KUTUE requirements for him to service as a by-product of his basic operational task. What we have assigned, in effect, is a short term operational mission upon which longer term operations might be based.

46. There is evidence in the realm of "testimony" KUBARK has taken from S/1 that he is a man who likes to operate, act, produce. There is also evidence that he, like any other human, consciously seeks approval and recognition of his work. The question to be posed is: Has KUBARK at this time, or will it have on 1 September 1965, an assignment for S/1 in which he can find satisfaction in producing a marketable product and find that approval and recognition which he requires? We must be more specific with him than to say: "Go out to [redacted] and see what you can dig up. We'll meet you again in two months for discussions." Rather, it would be well at this stage to review with the various area divisions those geographic areas in which S/1's talents could be fully exploited ([redacted] as an [redacted] etc., etc.) and to have a definite assignment for S/1 in hand at the moment we negotiate the extension of his contract.

47. Certainly the sudden change of leadership in [redacted] can be expected to affect the [redacted] who have drawn succor from the [redacted] As noted in the section on security, it is reasonable to assume that S/1 will be in a less then fortuitous position if his efforts to reassert himself on the [] stage are to meet with brickbats from IIRN A from a front row seat. [] 6171 and [] 1974 tend to support the estimate that S/1's friends in the [] may now be gone, while IIRN A's [] friends may soon be in positions of power. While it is still too early to assume that such a situation will arise, it is not too soon to assess the possible damage this could do S/1 in the general target area so far assigned him and to watch closely for signs that he may truly be burned beyond operational usefulness to KUBARK. We would hope this should not be come to pass, but we cannot ignore the possibility.

48. In the event, then, that the next two month's activities compromise S/1's credentials in the [] where would we go from there? One suggestion would be a TIV to [] where his brain might be picked for operational leads and [] KUDESH, and KUROLF information. He could also be urged to [] and [] a member of [] and in certain [] circles. He might find a job with IIRN B who may well need a new crutch if S/1's reports of his diminishing influence are to be given credence. In short, steps ought to be taken now to define the alternatives awaiting S/1 as of 1 September 1963.

1. For the information of COS, [] KUNESK and KUNOLF are jointly engaged in the operational exploitation of the peculiar talents and contacts of a newly-acquired asset. []/1 (Idem B) []/1 has had a rather turbulent career as a [] and [] over the past several years during which time he came to know (and be known by) a number of significant personalities in the [] of several []. Among these personalities is Idem A. []/1 has been denounced within these same circles as a KUBARK agent for some time, though until January of this year KUBARK was not in contact with him. It was only early June of this year that he actually signed a letter of agreement with an "OOYOR Service". Currently []/1 is in [] seeking to re-establish himself in [] as a prelude to a long-term [] (at KUBARK's behest) targeted against the [] which are apparently being given increasingly direct support by [].

2. One of [] is his acquaintance with Idem A who has told him that, personally, he does not share the doubts spread about []/1 because, as Idem A puts it, []/1's primary accuser not only charges he is a KUBARK agent but also an Idem A agent, which Idem A of course knew not to be the case. However, []/1 is actually in the process of seeking to ingratiate himself with Idem A and of winning his confidence to such an extent that their personal relationship might serve as []/1's credentials for some time to come. At present the relationship shows signs of being off to a good start. []/1 visited Idem A in [] on 2 June 1965 with the intention of getting himself [] of Idem A's [] Idem C. Idem A told him that, in fact, Idem C was sending Idem D to [] the summer activities there. Idem A then added that Idem D would get in touch with []/1 in [] (c/o Idem E) so that []/1 could "introduce him around". [] considers this a fortuitous circumstance in that he can exploit Idem D as a [] in [] a unique way to suggest he himself is one of Idem A's 'boys'. It should be noted on the other hand that this situation provides Idem A a unique means of monitoring []/1's activities and contacts.

3. Of priority interest at this moment, however, is the fact that Idem A has expressed to []/1 his dissatisfaction with the progress to date in [] (Idem P; [] Idem A claims that an Australian is supposed to be working on a [] but that he has heard nothing from him in over six months. []/1 then told Idem A that he himself could do the [] job with the aid of friends but that he would have to spend some time with Idem A to work over fine points and to [] in this way []/1 feels he could cement his personal relationship with Idem A.

4. There are obviously operational and station policy questions that should be considered in this context. First of all, our sole reporter on the []/1-Idem A relationship is []/1 himself. Is he really seeking to set up a meaningful operational gambit to be exploited by KUBARK, or is he seeking to regain status among his former peers? We tend to believe the former on the basis of the results of []/1's LCP/STREX examination and his long conversations with his [] case officer. Secondly, would the damage to the KUBARK national interest inherent in the [] outweigh the operational gain to be made by putting []/1 in Idem A's confidence. []/1 argues that, on the contrary, the [] could hurt no one except possibly Idem A himself, because []/1 claims the [] has no intention of recommending that KUBARK help get [] in any case for that would be Idem A's own problem. Moreover, if []/1 did not undertake the [] job, the Australian would probably come through before too long anyway.

5. We are sure that airmen can see in this situation the seeds of a useful operational contact with Idem A who, according to various reports []/1 is receiving from one of his contacts in the [] of the [] is starting to lose his grip on his own organization.

6. In any event, unless advised to the contrary, we intend to encourage []/1 to continue developing his relationship with Idem A, especially as regards [] we are forwarding to Headquarters (usc) a copy [] and request that the appropriate office in KUBARK be approached immediately and asked to provide, on a priority basis, an [] which we can pass to []/1. He could then remark this [] doesn't and involve [] of particular importance from a critical point of view is that []

7. The time element involved is this: KUBARK Career Agent Rufus P. BOEIGART will be meeting []/1 in [] on or about 15 July. At that time he should have some firm word from KUBARK on the status of the [] effort. In matter of fact of course, the ideal situation would be to have the [] in hand at that time though we cannot gauge from here whether that is within the realm of possibility. In any case BOEIGART would have to have the [] definitely in hand the first week of August when he will be leaving [] for his second one meeting with []/1.

1. [redacted] S/1 was not successful in lining up any [redacted] arrangement in the U.S. Around 28 May he received word from New York of a flat turn-down on his offer to serve as [redacted] ~~on the spot get this job and~~ [redacted] plans to attend [redacted] himself. Locally, however, S/1 was able to line up the following sponsors (though none is in a position to pay much for his services they collectively provide him with sufficient reason for being in [redacted] he will let on that his travel costs were advanced him by his wealthy brother-in-law):
- [redacted]

During the last two months, S/1 has explained his income to his wife as coming from advances, expense money and [redacted]. This has not pleased her, as she dislikes both the [redacted] and [redacted] but has at least satisfied her curiosity. To explain Katzenbach's telephone calls to his home (K. identified himself to S/1's wife ~~Kate~~ as [redacted] S/1 had to improvise a purely notional affiliation with an American [redacted]. This will help explain some of his income to his wife, but will not be used with others.

2. The above skeletal [redacted] will hopefully be reinforced in [redacted] where S/1 will scour around for bits and pieces of work for his many contacts there. His visits to [redacted] and [redacted] on his way to [redacted] will also help to fill out his ostensible sources of income, though S/1 has agreed not to overplay this angle. In other words, he will not pretend that these two have given him any funds, but if others want to make the assumption, so much the better.

3. On 1 and 2 June, Tiffany expounded at some length on the importance of S/1 trying to get an [redacted] such as the [redacted] or establishment of an [redacted]

While we could easily set him up in this enterprise, we do not want to for the simple reason that this would at best only provide him with a superficial sort of access. What we want him to strive for is [redacted] that will lead him into one of the nerve centers of the [redacted] in [redacted] or [redacted] (S/1 ruled out [redacted] on the grounds that his wife is [redacted]) S/1 accepted this reasoning and agreed to go for a position that holds out the prospect of [redacted] in depth.

4. Turnover to Rodigast. After getting S/1's unhesitating agreement to an LCFLUTTER examination and his signature on a Secrecy Agreement on 2 June, Tiffany introduced him to Rodigast, under the alias [] on the morning of 3 June. It was explained that Rodigast would serve as S/1 point of contact in the future. 5. Financial Arrangements. After discussing all possible alternatives, it was decided that the most secure arrangement would be to give S/1 an advance of the equivalent of $200 for his travel [] [] and per diem and ~~his~~ an advance of the equivalent of $600 for his June salary plus non-accountable expenses. These advances were made and signed for on 3 June. One ~~XXXX~~ important reason for the large cash advance was the fact that S/1 ~~XXXXXX~~ was completely broke, and he had to make some funds available to his wife to meet expenses and pay off a 65 [] debt to his brother-in-law before leaving on his trip. (S/1 will explain the funds as the last of the advances and payments for [] and other []) For essentially the same reason (poverty) we agreed to make S/1's July and August salary payments in advance (to be paid into his [] account on the first of each month). We recognize that this procedure is somewhat irregular, but we went ahead with it principally on the grounds that this was necessary to head off the security and morale problems posed by an irate wife.

6. In the course of his initial talk with S/1, Rodigast pursued the matter of the allegations made at various times in the past to the effect that S/1 is or was a "CIA agent" or "FBI agent". S/1 explained the situation as follows:

8. For future contacts, Rodigast gave S/1 "an alias I am using:

the possibility of emergency contact [redacted]

SECRECY AGREEMENT

1. I, , understand that upon entering on duty I am undertaking a position of trust in the Organization responsible for intelligence relating to the security of our country. I understand that in the course of this association I will acquire information about the Organization and its activities and about intelligence acquired or produced by the Organization.

2. I have read and understand the provisions of the espionage laws of our government and I am aware that unauthorized disclosure of classified information relating to the national defense may subject me to prosecution for violation of such laws, whether such disclosure be made while I am associated with the Organization or at any time thereafter.

3. In addition, however, as I am undertaking a position of trust, I have a responsibility to the Organization not to disclose any classified information relating to the Organization without proper authorization. I undertake, therefore, not to discuss with or disclose to any person not authorized to hear it from information relating to the Organization, its activities, or to intelligence material under the control of the Organization. I further understand that this undertaking is a condition of my association with the Organization, that its violation may subject me to immediate dismissal for cause or to other appropriate disciplinary action, and that this undertaking shall be equally binding upon me after my association with the Organization as during it.

4. I understand that the burden is upon me to ascertain whether or not information is classified and if so, who is authorized to receive it, and, therefore, I will obtain the decision of authorized officials of the Organization on these points prior to disclosing information relating to the Organization, and failure to obtain such a decision will be grounds for my dismissal.

5. I understand that my unauthorized action or verbal or written utterance which would reasonably be expected to result in publicity on intelligence or intelligence activities would be in violation of government and Organization regulations and would be grounds for my dismissal.

6. I understand that there are established procedures within the Organization permitting appeal at all times of any legitimate criticism, grievance, or complaint and that to carry any such grievance or complaint which I may have outside the Organization will be considered a violation of the undertaking set forth above in paragraph 3.

7. I further understand and agree that my association with the Organization is conditioned upon my understanding of and strict compliance with the Organization security requirements.

8. I will not undertake to publish or participate in the publication of any information or material relating to the Organization, its activities, or intelligence activities generally, either during or after the term of my association with the Organization without specific prior approval by the Organization.

MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution

FROM : CA/CF; CI/ICG

SUBJECT :

1. Areas of Knowledgeability. A reading of the transcription of [] taped debriefing clearly underlines KATZENBACH's assessment that [] possesses an encyclopedic knowledge of personalities and groups ranging from []. It is not always clear from the debriefing to what extent [] enjoys either a first-hand knowledge or even a friendly relationship with specific individuals or groups. What is clear is that [] moves in a milieu on which we presently have very little coverage; that he is already a member of this loosely defined society and thus can be presumed capable of developing new contacts or strengthening old ones by means of present and past associations.

It is difficult to categorize or devine what this milieu is. It is not the world of [] -- although it contains a preponderance of communists; and it does not seem to be a society which necessarily revolves about the []. The primary common denominator covering most of the personalities involved in [] reporting is some association with the [] -- particularly []. A secondary means of characterizing these contacts is a correlation with the [] which lies outside such organized [] as the []. (His main access to [] and [] with whom he claims to be on good terms at the present time.) Another common thread, almost as general, is association with [] although the meaning or clarification of this political description is never spelled out. In general, [] displays a good and often personal knowledge of target areas which might be grouped as follows:

[REDACTED]

2. Access and Limitations on Access. There apparently has been circulated a charge that [REDACTED] is a CIA agent. (This is reflected in his 201 as dating from his days with the [REDACTED]) In dealing with this question, however, KATZENBACH cites [REDACTED] own belief that he is still able to operate in the circles which would be of interest to us. It is, of course, difficult to tell from his debriefing the extent and seriousness of this charge against [REDACTED] insofar as it affects his bona fides. It does seem that in [REDACTED] milieu, gossip, personal attacks, muddled loyalties and an aura of conspiratorial confusion are everyday facts of life and that personal contact and effectiveness in building rapport would far outweigh such critical personal charges -- which, indeed, probably circulate about most people. At the present time, for reasons not entirely clear, [REDACTED] feels that he would be unwelcome and restricted were he to visit [REDACTED] and, in fact, would not like to make such a trip. He has indicated, on the other hand, that he has friends in [REDACTED] and believes he could probably get some kind of job there or at least find a receptive and generally friendly reception. He also appears to have some contact and standing with the [REDACTED] since he claims their [REDACTED] offered him employment. It is not known to what extent he might be able to parley such a contact into employment in [REDACTED] or some form of official association in Europe, although these questions could be explored further. The termination of his association with [REDACTED] would not, according to his account of it, discredit him in the eyes of those who might have been partisans of the ideological line which this [REDACTED] purveyed. According to his account, [REDACTED] is not in good standing with the [REDACTED] or even the [REDACTED] and that his [REDACTED] quarrel with [REDACTED] over unpaid salary is well known. While this may not be unbiased, it is apparently true that he has lodged a claim for payment against [REDACTED] and thus is not in the position of having been expelled from [REDACTED] for ideological deviation. As [REDACTED] recounts it, it is [REDACTED] not he, who is discredited.

3. Motivation and Readiness to Cooperate. The debriefing reflects between the lines what KATZENBACH judges in his covering dispatch to be a readiness to collect information for us knowing that we are an official agency and probably suspecting that we are KUBARK. His professed motivation is monetary, and frankly so, although a certain degree of fatigue with his past profession of ideological punditry is discernable. There are also a number of indications that [REDACTED] would like to rehabilitate himself lest he be forced to make his living for an indefinite period of time in an environment that he finds both unpleasant and materially unrewarding. It is not possible, of course, to make an intelligent judgment from this debriefing on the firmness and consistency with which he might undertake continuing assignments for us, but this is not an unusual area of uncertainty with a new agent and one which a probationary period should dispel. (It should be noted that in one instance, he volunteered a name as an operational lead -- i.e., as someone whom we might find it worthwhile to look up. He also provided what is apparently an [redacted]

4. Long-Range Usefulness and Initial Targetting. [redacted] long-range usefulness, of course, would depend not only on his effectiveness and dependability, but on the opportunities which will emerge and take shape as a result of his initial activity. As a general proposition, he can be viewed as an intelligence collection asset targetted at [redacted]

[redacted]
Specifically, these targets would include:

[redacted]
In the short range, a current assignment for us should meet the following criteria:

a. lend itself to probationary exploitation;

[redacted]

The best likely assignment to fulfill these requirements is that of a [] capable of credible travel in [] with some associations which will preserve his []. Assuming the development of adequate cover, he could then spend an initial period this spring and summer in [] (29 June) and the [] (28 July). []

[] in May, [] cannot be anticipated as targets at present either because of indefinite planning or because of unsuitable location. There is little doubt, however, that additional meetings will take place in [] bringing together interesting target personalities from [] whom [] might attempt to report on.) In addition to his contribution in coverage of these meetings he might also attempt to develop his access and contact among the [] at least with the value of developing biographical and operational support data.

5. Proposed for Discussion. The following questions seem to present themselves for discussion at this time:

- a. decision on the continuation of support to [] on a probationary period;
- b. determination on targetting for initial probationary and possible long-range employment;
- c. mechanics of establishing a project;
- d. timetable for assignments.

Ref: OFLA 42,706

1. Ref forwarded the tapes and a rough transcription of the debriefing session with Subject, which were held on February 17, 18, 19, 23, 1965.

2. In accordance with Headquarters' instructions, these meetings were kept on a don't-call-us-we'll-call-you basis - in fact [redacted] was given no means for calling us. Also in accordance with Headquarters' instructions, we did not pay [redacted] at a constant rate of over $100 per hour. The first ($300) payment to [redacted] was in fact more than we had originally intended to give him as a "binder", but in light of the imminence of his trip to Europe we advanced him that sum to help him to meet his expenses. This nicely coincided with our own time table, since the time he was gone - some three weeks - should have provided adequate time for the initial tape to be reviewed and for requirements to be prepared and pouched to the field. At any rate, the total sum given to [redacted] for his time and a shot at his [redacted] was $700.

3. [redacted] may well feel that it has been done out of $700 in COA funds. The information obtained on [redacted] of [redacted] or on any [redacted] at all, was slight. [redacted] claims not to have had more than very little contact with them, and not to know too much about them. Unless there is hard info to the contrary, we are inclined to believe that [redacted] was telling pretty much the truth in this respect, as indeed seems to have been the case almost all of the time. While this is a bit of a disappointment, in a way, and seems to lessen the immediacy of [redacted] interest, it certainly does not appear to eliminate [redacted] potential worth.

4. The [redacted] Station continues to feel that [redacted] has considerable potential as a source of positive intelligence on a wide range of targets - targets that appear to be only lightly covered otherwise, although we are not always able to judge this. A review of this debriefing can only cause one a certain amount of amazement at [redacted] encyclopedic knowledge of many, many groups, personalities and [redacted] literally from [redacted] We leave it to Headquarters, of course, to evaluate [redacted] his material; to the [] Station, however, it appears to be not only rather massive but detailed as well. We do not doubt that he will be caught out from time to time on facts, and perhaps interpretations as well. But the totality of his information - and the whole performance was without notes - is astonishing.

5. Several points should be noted. First of all, a conscious effort was made to show [] that his comments on the [] were not being made a matter of record. (I took notes during our talk, and always stopped making notes when such a topic came up.) This is, as KULPA noted in OELW #1903 of 12 February 1965, an area of sensitivity with []. The only times that [] really became emotional were when he talked about the [] his involvement, and the involvement of his close associates. And he kept reverting to the topic, and his involvement in it, throughout our conversations. We did not share KULPA's impression that [] dissatisfaction with the [] in America makes him generally anti-American. He does say that he would not like to be living in America for the coming year; but in the context of one who does not wish to be caught up in a period of growing violence, which [] appears not to believe to be the solution to the problem. He states: "I can understand how they feel that way, I can recognize the problems, but I sure don't know what the solution to the problem is." His judgments on [] reflect not only an intimacy with the problem and a genuine concern, but also a generally reasonable and real understanding of many of the forces at work. [] tends to condemn individuals - he spares no sympathy for the FBI, understandably - but he does not appear to condemn the United States as a whole, nor even the United States Government as a whole. At the same time, he makes no phoney protestations, either.

6. Regarding Cuba, [] showed a similar emotional involvement (he acknowledges "my pro-Castro bias") but, withal, manages to give a more balanced portrayal of the situation than many rabidly anti-Castro commentators. (Cuba, and Cuban matters, were also similarly low-keyed by me during our talks.)

7. Where [] really comes into his own, and really astonishes with the breadth of his personal information and understanding, (and largely, it appears, without the same personal involvement and bias) is in [] affairs (especially in [], [] and [] and their general milieu, and []). Similarly he appears to be informed on certain [] efforts at subversion and propaganda in [].

8. Rather as if reading our thoughts, [] offered to recruit himself. He didn't get too specific, and neither did we. But he did make it quite clear that he would be willing to collect information for us, knowing only that we were ODYCKE, probably suspecting that we were KUBARK, and probably equally doubting (because he knows the difference) that we were ODENVY. His motivations can be compiled from his own words. He has for some time been unable to find a suitable job here in []. He has economic pressures working on him - now exacerbated by the fact that his wife has [].

[] Venal? Opportunistic? Or someone who has a wife and two kids to support, and no job for the past eight months? [] acknowledges that he has become somewhat bored with the "pro-biology" of chasing petty ideological differences, the kind that make factions of six members or less. At the same time, he acknowledges that he has to have a job, and that his access to and knowledge of these persons and groups are marketable commodities. His preference, he says, would be to have a nice quiet [] job here, but his efforts to find such a job have been fruitless. Now, obviously, can one of his background and talents better employ them than as a []. He says that he would like [] or [] work for the [] perhaps, or an ODYCKE agency, but he is certain that he could never get the requisite security clearance. Still, obviously, he suspects that an "irregular" arm of ODYCKE, such as we, might be able to work something out.

9. How about his ideological motivation? We had hoped for some more concrete expression than we got, on this score, but what we have is not too bad. He states that he will not be "intellectually dishonest" to the point of becoming a "professional anti-Communist," by which he means a propagandist. At the same time, he agrees that he has no desire to be a professional [redacted]. Again we note that he is not blindly or unduly critical of ODYSSEY. Granted, he criticizes many elements of ODYSSEY policy and tends to defend some enemies of ODYSSEY. A failure for him to do so would be sufficiently remarkable to make us totally suspicious of him. Note further his comment that he would have been perfectly willing to talk to us a year ago in [redacted] in the same fashion as he has here. This would sound rather suspicious and difficult to believe, were it not for the fact that he did show himself to be candid and cooperative in his [redacted] interview with a [redacted] officer.

10. How badly blown is [redacted] then, if we are thinking of using him. After all, he has been publicly labelled a "CIA agent." Could he, then, work for HUBARK successfully? [redacted] himself is certainly a better judge of that than the [redacted] Station, and we feel that there are only two indices that can be used to judge the matter. The first and most immediate is [redacted] own opinion, since he has lived with the problem, and has tested the idea in practice. He feels that he could still operate ("move" is his term) in most of the desirable areas successfully, provided he has adequate cover for being where he is and doing what he does. The second index would be for us to test his continuing access to targets of interest. It should not take too long to make such a test without putting anything into real jeopardy.

11. Cover for [redacted] of course, would be a serious problem. He himself proposes the obvious answers: some kind of vaguely [redacted] [redacted] We should think that such cover could be arranged. And we propose to discuss a number of possibilities with Headquarters in due time.

12. Utilization and locale are most closely related, of course. From our vantage point here, it would appear that [redacted] would be the most desirable home base for [redacted] He could range out from there into [redacted] (the two best targets, apparently) and maintain a regular flow of information on [redacted] affairs while "at home." He has spoken several times of the ease with which he is integrated into the [redacted] environment, and he has a fairly well established base there from which to expand his operations. He has said that he would be willing to go there, or [redacted] or most any other place where his children can continue their education in [redacted] And [redacted] appears to be, for the foreseeable future, a worthwhile target in its own right, as well as the site of a growing number of [redacted] meetings, for which [redacted] would appear to have exceptionally fine credentials. As he says, he could go elsewhere in [redacted] but [redacted] is where he would fit best. We would be inclined to keep him, for the most part, away from the [redacted] milieu (except, perhaps, incidentally) to avoid straining his reportorial objectivity. In the [redacted] and [redacted] areas, we suspect that careful checking would ensure such objectivity.

13. His utilization could best be considered on a straight information-collecting basis. To use him as a [redacted] would be not only repugnant to him but destructive of his utility as well. Presumably he could be permitted to continue [redacted] not only for his overt employments (in a [redacted]), but perhaps occasionally for [redacted] of his own choosing, in order to maintain his own cover. (This is, admittedly, seeing rather far into the future.) We do feel, however, that [redacted] could be an admirable and highly valuable collector of positive information on that whole spectrum of the [redacted] with which he is already so familiar.

15. We should also like to comment on the reliability of [] comments in the course of our meetings to date. We have found him to be thoroughly consistent in his comments and attitudes throughout. We found no indication of deliberate deception or serious attempts to mislead. He may have provided some erroneous materials, or he may have erroneously interpreted some events; but his comments and attitudes remained sufficiently consistent to lead us to believe that he was being reasonably honest all the way. He played down some items, no doubt, and played up others. In the course of a debriefing such as this was there seemed little or no point in pushing hard at such points - besides, his knowledge of the areas covered so far outdistanced mine that I could not have attempted to probe or pin him down on specifics. (Note also his tendency to make corrections in the debriefing questionnaire, as when the wrong name would appear for a []

16. [] present status is that he is out of work, in debt, and without any prospects of reasonable employment in the near future. He is somewhat occupied with an [] this will probably keep him from taking another job for the next few weeks. Beyond that, nothing is definite. If we would like to give him a try, then, some move should be made to formalize matters with him before he accepts some job that will put him out of the market.

17. Recognizing that there are risks involved, it nevertheless seems most undesirable to pass up what has the earmarks of being a highly useful asset. We request, therefore, that Headquarters review and consider the entirety of our knowledge of [] to this point, and give us a reading on his potential worth, as viewed by [] AF Division, KUDSK/ICG and other interested parties. If, for reasons of which Headquarters is aware, and we are not, [] is considered unacceptable as a KUTUBE asset, let us know. If, on the other hand, there appears to be a market for his talents and capabilities, we should move rather rapidly to pre-empt him. His present flexibility is not likely to last for long, and any plan to use him should take this into account. As WR/BC is aware, we are not in a position to put this into the form of a [] Station project. This should not be the reason for neglecting what appears to be such a potentially rewarding asset for KUBARK, however.

18. We would appreciate a reply within a couple of weeks of Headquarters' receipt of this dispatch.

Katz

1. Transmitted herewith are the tapes of the 17, 18, 19 and 23 February sessions with [redacted]. Also transmitted is a copy of the Station-prepared transcript of the tapes. The quality of the transcription varies: the first session is mostly summarized, the subsequent ones are almost verbatim. Roberta L. HORRELL did the transcripts, and I subsequently reviewed them, filling in comments, names, etc., that HORRELL had missed.

2. As rough as these transcripts are, a careful review of them is fairly revealing about [redacted] and about his knowledge of the topics discussed. Further comment from this end will be contained in an operational dispatch. Right now we are anxious to get the present material into Headquarters' hands for further processing. This is about as far as we can take the material here, due to extreme time limitations. We are retaining a copy of the transcript, however, for further use and future reference.

1. Transmitted herewith is one copy of the cards that constitute the [redacted]. These were borrowed from [redacted] and copied in the station. [redacted] wife, who compiled the cards and was responsible for [redacted] (and to whom, therefore, they more properly belong) is not aware that [redacted] has "loaned" the cards out. They were returned to [redacted] the same day he brought them in for copying.

2. We have not made any attempt to count them. There are several thousand. A few comments will be in order about some of the marks and notations that appear on the cards.

3. One general category is "Promotional". The first bunch of sheets - about twenty, it appears - are in this category. They are marked "Promotional" or "PR". These were sent out gratis either to induce publicity, or to encourage new [redacted] or to make friends happy. (Presumably, [redacted] and several others are in this category).

4. Thereafter, the cards run in categories of one sort or another, with given countries generally lumped together. Those where the [redacted] are some of those that were taken from [redacted]. Some are marked [redacted] which means that the name came from the [redacted] and the person subsequently [redacted] on his own, after a little promotional treatment.

5. The coded symbols, unfortunately, [redacted] could not explain, since this was his wife's territory, rather than his own. The first set of letters obviously refers to the country (e.g. [redacted]). Other numbers and letters are not clear. The name that appears apart from the name of the [redacted] usually indicates who arranged the [redacted] (this may be an [redacted] or something like a gift [redacted]). For instance, [redacted] who handles

RE: OELA - 42,410, 26 January 1965

1. On 11 February KUBARK Staff Agent Errol S. KULPA, who had contact with [redacted] in 1963-64, listened to reference tape and made the following comments, which may be helpful to Katzenbach. KULPA felt that the [redacted] that he was hearing on the tape had indeed changed rather radically since the last time KULPA had any contact with him or the [redacted] KULPA remembers [redacted] as [redacted] and probably (because of this [redacted] orientation) anti-U.S. KULPA is therefore quite suspicious of [redacted] motivations and advises that extreme precaution be taken in the handling of [redacted]

2. KULPA's view of [redacted] motivations:

KULPA has strenuous doubts as to any ideological motivation on the part of [redacted]. He recognizes the obvious monetary motivation and feels that this probably plays a large part in the man's being willing to talk to ODYCKE. Another very possible motivation is [redacted] disaffection with [redacted]. Parenthetically, KULPA added that in [redacted] and probably in [redacted] was really nothing more than a name that [redacted] wanted on the masthead. [redacted] primary duties as [redacted] were probably in the area of translation. In light of this KULPA feels that perhaps some legitimate information of value can be obtained in the area of the [redacted]. Again, parenthetically, it might be noted that KULPA felt that [redacted] was not as "idealistic" as his wife. Where [redacted] might adhere to the aspects of Marxism-Leninism that called for revolutionary change (probably because of his dissatisfaction with a world in which the [redacted] had to endure a certain amount of [redacted]), he is not a strict doctrinaire in any of his beliefs. On the other hand, KULPA pointed out that [redacted] wife (who by the way is a [redacted]) is idealistic in the sense that she feels her brand of [redacted] must be internally and ideologically consistent. (This is why she objected to [redacted] for [redacted] and why she probably would get upset if she knew exactly what type of game her husband was currently playing with ODYCKE.)

Ref: OELA - 42,410, 26 January 1965 1. Forwarded as enclosure are requirements for the debriefing of Subject. Together with the requirements is a KUDESK narrative on [redacted] for the background information of Katzenbach. Further background on [redacted] can be found, if you have not already done so, in the following dispatches:  OELA - 39,346, 26 Sept '63 OELW - 20,852, 16 Dec '63 OELA - 40,208, 24 Feb '64 OELA - 40,542, 15 Apr '64 OELA - 41,545, 10 Sept '64 OEL - 30,251, 24 Sept '64  2. We have not yet had time to review the tape of your first session with Subject forwarded with Reference, nor do we expect to get a transcription completed in time to reach you by 15 February. The list of names attached to Reference indicate considerable knowledgeability on the part of Subject as well as a tendency to pour out his knowledge in a sort of stream of consciousness style. We fear that, if given the opportunity, Subject will take the bit in his teeth and as much money as he can in his hot little hands and be off and running. To prevent this we would like to suggest that the debriefing be set up on a tightly organized, businesslike basis. It would probably be advisable to write up the terms in a Letter of Agreement contract for Subject's signature before getting started, making sure to include a paragraph in which ODYOKE's obligations and promises are limited to the terms specifically enumerated in the document. We think that any meaningful debriefing will take 3 - 5 days, and there is good reason to believe that Subject will have information of sufficient interest to justify this expenditure of Case Officer time. We do not foresee any long range operational relationship with Subject. While we look at the debriefing as basically a one-shot proposition there will probably be follow-up questions and, perhaps, specific action requests, requiring a later contact. Therefore, the communication channel to Subject should be left open on a "don't call us, we'll call you" basis.

3. In line with the need to put the debriefing on a businesslike (rather than a "flexible") basis, it might be a good idea to start by getting Subject to supply a personal history statement from the time of his first entry into [redacted] to the present day. (This can be presented to Subject as a basis for us to formulate meaningful questions, not as any sort of personal "confession" on his part.) In addition to providing us with a check on his veracity, this will set the stage for a debriefing conducted on KJBARK's terms, not Subject's. ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

REF: [redacted] 5706, 21 January 1965

1. Attached is the tape of the interview with [redacted] recorded in an office, using a Uher 4000 Report - 5 recorder, recording at a speed of 15/16 feet per minute. The interviewer used the alias of [redacted] arrived at 1745 and departed at about 2030.

2. We are not attempting to summarize or analyze [redacted] comments in this dispatch. The tape provides a much more revealing picture than our subjective comments could. A few notes, however, appear to be in order.

3. Speaking of his departure, [redacted] said he planned to leave [redacted] on 24 or 25 January. As of noon 24 January, at least, he was still in [redacted] because I saw him walking on [redacted] (A potential problem exists here: [redacted] and not infrequently ride the same bus line. This problem can only be met when it manifests itself.) [redacted] incidentally, has alerted its [redacted] contacts (prior to our meeting with [redacted] and requested that [redacted] be [redacted] They said that they would [redacted]

4. [redacted] was given money amounting to $300. Under the circumstances of his plans, as he expressed them, it seemed reasonable to do so, to ensure, at least partially, that he would come back to talk more. He was more than willing to take the money and raised the initial suggestion of $200 to $300 or $400. His obvious shift in his line regarding dollars (as opposed to [redacted] is further indicative of his willingness to get what he could.

5. The considerable number of names mentioned by [redacted] makes the transcription of the notes a sizable chore, and in order to lessen this burden a listing has been compiled of almost all of the names, in the order in which they appear in the tape, with the exception of [redacted] and the [redacted] and a few others. The names appear only one time each on the list, although many of them crop up repeatedly in the tape.

A few of the phrases that do not appear too clearly on the tape are included on the list. Occasionally the names are written phonetically, indicated by (ph.).

6. [] offer of a photograph of [] was not accepted, on the assumption that KUBARK already has a photo. If this is not the case, let us know, and we will include that in our requirements for a subsequent meeting.

7. The [] is apparently []
[] He is also referred to as the [] (See [] 5575 of 12 January 1965.)

8. The reference to the [] corroborates (rather, is corroborated by) the material referred to in para 4 of [] 5337 (22 December 1965). We are not fully aware of the [] however,

9. In reviewing the tape, it will become apparent that the arrangements with [] were left fairly flexible for the future. It would appear, from his responses, that a longer range relationship with him could, in fact, be established if, after thorough review of his materials, that seems necessary or desirable.

10. We will expect, in addition to the requirements that have been promised, that Headquarters will advise us on their desire to arrange for the one-shot approach previously suggested by Headquarters, or a different arrangement. We are unable to assess the validity or worth of all the comments he made. Our impression, however, is that he is reasonably knowledgeable of a number of fields of interest to us. We also suspect that in some areas his knowledge is quite superficial. His access to various areas of potential interest may be partially proved by his trip around Europe and should be a useful indication of how we may be interested in playing him. The possibility of his [] has not been overlooked, of course, and we welcome Headquarters' comments on this score as well.

11. We would also appreciate further comments on various personalities, with whom we are not familiar - [] is the most obvious in this category.

12. Headquarters is requested to provide us with a transcription of this tape, as well as the promised requirements, prior to 15 February. ODENVY should also be provided with as much of the material as is of interest to them, and a copy of that material should be given to us to pass to the ODENVY office here. We are also obliged to pass to [] such elements of this material as is of legitimate concern to them. In this case, we would suggest that this be interpreted rather liberally and Headquarters prepared copy be forwarded along with the other items listed above. (Note that [] has been quite cooperative while we have been approaching this case, and their recent run-down on [] is being pouched almost simultaneously with this dispatch.)

One of the most violent reactions came from the heart-land of capitalism, from the small American faction which produces the monthly Hammer & Steel Newsletter in Boston. The October issue of the mimeographed bulletin vengefully gives a list of eight reasons why Khrushchev fell -- each one a vindictive crow of triumph, and many attacking not only Khrushchev but basic Soviet policies such as "the distortion of peaceful coexistence." Points 2, 3 and 8 will serve as illustrations:

2. His German policy -- Khrushchev sought to ingratiate himself with West Germany. He was obviously ready to sell out the German Democratic Republic...
3. The declining influence of the CPSU among the Socialist countries and the Communist Parties. The proposed Moscow gathering was shaping up as a conference of only those Party leaders ready to openly serve U.S. imperialist aggression against the national liberation struggles. For example, Asian supporters of Khrushchev could have gathered in a telephone booth.
8. The nuclear success of People's China. Khrushchev had maintained that nuclear power was the exclusive responsibility of revisionists and imperialists -- of white nations. Khrushchev's great power chauvinism was blown sky high in Sinkiang Province.

Although there is no evidence that the politically insignificant Hammer & Steel group enjoys any direct support from the Chinese (as the Russians alleged in their "Open Letter" of July 14, 1963), it has always offered its allegiance to Peking in the most extreme form. This is expressed again in the claim that "Khrushchev's failure to recognize the contradiction between the oppressed peoples and imperialism as the focal contradiction of our time resulted in blindness concerning the leading rôle of the Chinese Party."⁸ This is a claim that the Chinese themselves would not want to make, especially at this juncture.
