MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

FROM : Lawrence F. Barker

SUBJECT : Meeting with L-9 30 Jan 1964

1. A meeting with L-9 took place from 2010 until 2145 hours 30 Jan 1964 at the safe apartment. L-9 was in surprisingly good spirits, showed none of his usual depression.

2. L-9 reported on the following:

a. On Saturday 18 Jan at the usual Embassy staff meeting, several new assignments were passed out. A "three month plan" was announced and during this period staff members, in addition to their usual duties, will prepare special reports on several topics. Raul APARICIO will do a report on the National University -- physical plant, student body, activities, ways in which the Cuban government can exert influence, etc. L-9 will [redacted]

[redacted] Dra. MACHADO will do a report on countries which have diplomatic relations with Cuba -- emphasizing how contact with representatives here in Mexico of such countries may be parlayed into something more worthwhile for the Castro government. Rogelio RODRIGUEZ was given an assignment as Political Reporting Officer.

At this meeting Guillermo RUIZ of the Commercial Office -- who has recently been emerging as a fanatical Fidelista -- spoke out about the recent accord between the USSR and Cuba, saying that it was convenient for the USSR to keep on the good side of Cuba and thus keep a dagger in the back of the imperialists. Ambassador HERNANDEZ Armas, somewhat taken aback by RUIZ' language, pointed out that the relationship between the USSR and Cuba is based, above all, on the highest principles of international friendship.

b. Last Wednesday (29 Jan) a Soviet official, Boris T. RUDENKO, visited the Cultural Department and spoke with APARICIO and L-9. L-9 took pains to "be a good Communist" during this encounter. (This conversation was picked up by ESTRAP) RUDENKO was also at the home of Horacio FLORES Sanchez on the 28th after the Marti homage session at the Cuban Cultural Institute.

c. A Bolivian woman -- name possibly VILLALBA -- was recently at the Hotel Oxford with 7 children, waiting to go to Cuba to join her husband who works there. L-9 believes she has gone on to Cuba.

d. On 17 January Cuban delegates to the CEPAL Conference visited the Embassy and spoke with Embassy employees. One of these delegates, referring to the Nicaro plant in Cuba, said that only 12 engineers of the original 37 remained. Of these, a man named (Cnu) PRESILLA was still doing an excellent job although he is physically in poor condition. The Nicaro plant specifically, and technicians throughout Cuba in general, are having a hard time with the decimal system used by the USSR in its technical equipment. The delegates said that it was now apparent that Cuba will definitely plan to base its economy on sugar -- that Fidel CASTRO had at last made this quite clear.

g. On 29 Jan a Venezuelan woman named TERESA BEJARANO came to the Embassy. She was staying at the Hotel Virreyes, Room 402. She was trying to sell exhibition rights to a film entitled "Twist y Crizen" which had been filmed in Venezuela and shown only twice before the government shut it down and prohibited future showings, labelling the film as of "improper social tendencies." BEJARANO said that she planned to stay in Mexico about a week and would also contact the Soviet and Czech Embassies in an effort to sell the film and recoup some of the cost of producing it. She was told that her proposition would be relayed to Havana.

h. A young Cuban doctor, named SILVIO REYES, is in Mexico City and trying to return to Cuba. He was in the Embassy on 29 Jan and has been there before.

n. After TERESA BODENA was seen off at the airport, Oscar CONCEPCION "revealed" that she had been fired on orders of President DORTICOS who got tired of receiving reports that a famous international sex deviate (famosa "bertillera" internacional) was working at the Embassy. DORTICOS fired her for "immoral conduct."

- q. Guillermo RUIZ has been showing himself to be quite aggressive politically in staff meetings. He appears to be a violent partisan of the Castro regime.

- w. An American named Fred BALDASARE, a swimming champion, has been in the Embassy trying to implement his plan to swim from Cuba to Florida and set a new world record. APARICIO remarked that if they let this nut train a Cuban to make this swim (as he wants to do) it would probably result in thousands of Cubans doing the same thing to get out. (LIFEWAY and [redacted] have picked up BALDASARE).
- x. Some youngsters from a group called the "Movimiento Cultural Mexicano" have been trying to establish good contacts with the Embassy. The president is Juan [redacted], phone 23-24-39. extent of their love for the "B" man. "C" does not know much about this group, feels it is being investigated.

3. "C" asked B to get him a book about the painter Archile GORRY. This book is published by the Whitney Museum of American Art, The Macmillan Company, New York, 1957. It will be ordered from H.Q. separately.

4. The meeting had to be cut short since B had to go elsewhere to meet and assess an agent prospect who was planning to leave Mexico City the next morning. Accordingly, it was agreed that another meeting would be held on Tuesday 4 February at 2000 at the safe apartment. "C" will be paid his January salary at that time.
