Mr. Walter Elder
 Review Staff
 Central Intelligence Agency
 Langley, Virginia

Dear Walt:

This letter will confirm verbal requests made by Mr. Dwyer of the Senate Select Committee staff to Mr. [redacted] regarding materials pertaining to the assassination of President Kennedy.

WA

1. The Senate Select Committee requests a listing of all Mexico City Station personnel for the period of September through December 1963. The Committee requests this list on an access basis only, to be retained at the CIA for use by the Committee staff.

CF

2. The Senate Select Committee requests clarification on what documents were filed in the Oswald 201 as of November 22, 1963. Both Mr. Hartman and Mr. Wall, CI Staff, have stated there were five documents in the file: two Department of State Foreign Dispatches (FS Dispatch #806 dated May 5, 1961 and FS Dispatch #317 dated December 12, 1961); one Office of Naval Intelligence memorandum (May 26, 1962 from H. T. Hadenberg); and two FBI Reports. Mr. Hartman stated the FBI Reports were reports of SA John Fain dated August 30, 1962 and July 3, 1961. Mr. Wall stated the FBI Reports were an October 31, 1963 Report of SA Milton Kaack and a May 12, 1960 Report of SA John Fain.

WA

3. (a) Cable traffic from JMWAVE Station to Headquarters following the President's assassination reveals that JMWAVE's file contained information on Lee Harvey Oswald. For example, WAVE 8049 (IN 66782), November 22, 1963, states that AMSPELL files (Cuban Student Directorate) of JMWAVE have background information on Oswald. The Senate Select Committee requests access to Cuban Student Directorate files of JMWAVE that contain information on Oswald.

WA (b) The presence of information on Oswald in AMSPELL files of JMWAVE suggests the possibility that JMWAVE files on other Cuban exile groups might contain information on Oswald. The Senate Select Committee would like to determine if JMWAVE Station was instructed by Headquarters to review its files for information on Oswald and if JMWAVE files on Cuban groups contain any information about Oswald. The Senate Select Committee requests access to JMWAVE files on Cuban groups that contain such information.

4. The Senate Select Committee requests copies of the following documents:
