Director Woolsey:

We are writing to express our sincere appreciation and recognition of the excellent support that has been provided to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence by a member of your agency.

From October 1993 through August 1994, Mr. John Carver has assisted Committee staff in the review process required for release of the John F. Kennedy Records Collection. The project involved reading and evaluating thousands of classified records that were in the possession of this Committee, and approving them for release pursuant to Public Law 102-526.

Given the volume of documents stored at the Select Committee, this was a tremendous administrative task. Mr. Carver's expertise, professionalism, and personal attention to detail were a significant contribution to our Committee being able to successfully complete this important task.

Mr. Carver is clearly a credit to your organization and we appreciate his hard work and superior performance on behalf of our Committee.

Please extend our personal thanks to Mr. Carver.

Sincerely,

Dennis DeConcini
