

SECRET

18 October 1976

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: [redacted] (S) CAPRICE-1)

The following information was uncovered during a review of Cuban operational files. It should be brought to the attention of C/LA/COG, and made a part of (S) CAPRICE-1's official 201 file:

a.

A conversation from a telephone tap of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City, 22 November 1963: Marta, Oscar's wife, tells LLAGOSTERA (Jose LLAGOSTERA Garcia, gardner at the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City and reportedly G-2) to tell Oscar that he forgot some of the candy. LLAGOSTERA says that their plane will not arrive until 1615 hours. Marta is sending the candy to someone in Cuba and she doesn't want Oscar to forget it. LLAGOSTERA tells Marta that a good man died today. Marta replied really, who? KENNEDY, says LLAGOSTERA. Marta laughs, tells LLAGOSTERA not to forget to tell Oscar about the candy. (Copy of tape is attached.)

b. From (S) CAPRICE-1's 201 file: In 1964 AMNIP-1 (Miguel ROCHE Monroy - DGI defector) suggested to (S) CAPRICE-1 that the latter meet with CIA to talk about ridding Cuba of Communism. (S) 1 was non-committal. (S) 1 met with Bob Shaw in 1964. (S) 1 was recruited by CIA in 1975. During a debriefing at that time, (S) 1 said that he reported to the DGI in 1964 AMNIP-1's recruitment pitch to him, but said that he did not mention Bob Shaw's name.

Felipe Acevedo

[Handwritten notes, mostly illegible]

see other side for above note.

g/mc

Note by Annie Goodpasture: 18 Feb 77. The attached transcript was from a LIFEAT tap of the home of [redacted] The same call appears in a LIENVOY transcript which was from a tap on the Cuban Embassy office phone, copy attached in Spanish (347 in margin indicates call).

YMC