Miami specifically advise whether the attached [CIA report] contains the same information as the one referred (S)(u) to in the referenced teletypes. Miami also submit its comments, observations and recommendations with respect to the information contained in the attached report and any action which should be taken with respect to the information contained therein, not only by the Miami Office but also by any of the other recipients. Set out appropriate leads where warranted. Handle promptly.

NOTE:

[CIA, Miami, on 3/21/68 furnished report concerning captioned anti-Castro group. In part report stated Hector Cornillot Llano either placed bomb at Soviet Embassy or made it.] Miami noted Cornillot reportedly was in Miami at time of (S)(u) bombing and does not believe him to be involved. [Report also identified a number of alleged members of Cuban Power cells.] (S)(u) Miami believed the report is compilation of unverified rumors and determined from CIA that the source was the above-mentioned

[redacted] (S)
[redacted] was interviewed 3/23/68 and in essence claimed he had overheard a conversation between several Cubans, one of whom was a woman identified as Irmina Bousa. Miami has determined, however, that Bousa was in hospital having baby at the time and could not possibly have been involved in the conversation. Miami feels [redacted] may have fabricated the story of the conversation he overheard [and that his report to CIA was thereafter further edited by CIA prior] being furnished to the (S)(u) Miami Office.

From a comparison of the report mentioned in the referenced teletypes, it would appear that it is identical [with the 3/26/68 CIA report.] (S)(u)
