Routine

For [Redacted]

During our talks, McCLOY, on his own initiative, brought up the subject of criticism of the European press, especially the French, of the activity of WARREN's commission.

In a lengthy monologue he condemned accusations that the commission intends, in the name of public interest, to gloss over the evidence of the assassination and with its authority support the conclusions reached by the FBI.

b(iii)

He wants to assure us that he will not permit any distortion or concealment of the facts; however, from materials at his disposal, he is more and more convinced that OSWALD committed the crime by himself. I acknowledged his information with the statement that interest in the commission's report is great everywhere because of the shock of KENNEDY's assassination and of the world position of the USA.

McCLOY's statements confirm the opinion circulating here that the commission is mainly interested in proving that the assassination was not linked with any foreign centers. At the same time, public statements made by MARK LANE, hired by OSWALD's mother to defend her son before the commission, must be treated very carefully even in our press. Our friends consider him an unscrupulous politician interested only in his career. He is financed by groups which lean toward the Chinese viewpoint.
