1967 JG Report

p.1 "This reconstruction of Agency involvement in plans to assassinate Fidel Castro is at best an imperfect history. Because of the extreme sensitivity of the operations being discussed or attempted, as a matter of principle no official records were kept of planning, of approvals, or of implementation. The few written records that do exist are either largely tangential to the main events or were put on paper from memory years afterward. . . ."

p.2 "We can identify 5 separate phases in Agency assassination planning . . ." "Each phase is a reflection of the then prevailing Government attitude toward the Cuban regime."

a- Prior to Aug. 1960 - All "identifiable schemes" @ ^{possible} exceptions were aimed at discrediting Castro personally by influencing his behavior or altering appearance.

b- Aug 1960 - April 1961 - plots were "aggressively pursued" c- April 1961 - late 1961 - a major scheme begun in Aug 1960 - called off after Bay of Pigs - remained dormant for several months, "as did most other Agency operational activity related to Cuba."

d- Late 1961 to Late 1962 - Aug 1960 scheme reactivated in early 1962

e- "Late 1962 until well into 1963" - Aug 1960 scheme was terminated. 2 other plots originated but impractical and "nothing ever came of them."

THIS COPY IS NOT FOR RELEASE.
