22 June 1961 Cable OUT 68995 TO:

DRE now maintains a pool of capable & qualified students available for 3-6 month assignments in any given area. They are experienced clandestine agents in Cuban struggle. Capabilities include:

- Act as authentic representatives of Cuban struggle for progress but against Communist tyranny;
- Establish local press, TV, Radio, student, intellectual, professional contacts;
- Plan, organize & participate in anti-Communist activities as CIA stations might direct;
- Counteract influence of Cuban diplomatic establishment on host populations.

Request stations indicate interest & during what period available - also what desire for contact, control & guidance.
Dec 5, 1961 Cable: UF6A-2783 to Chief Wm. Drennan
From: CG/SAFE

Report of interview with Chief Max of DRE.

Max said DRE entered CRC with aim of waging war against Castro but discovered Council members were now concerned with politics and quarreling among themselves, even to the point of creating internal problems within their own organizations.

1-31 March 1962

Notes from WAVE Monthly report.

DRE withdrew from CRC on 12 March 1962 because they felt Council was not carrying the war to Cuba.

Amphile Progress Report - July 1962

[Note: Amphile divided in two groups - Ambalae (DRE) and Ambiata (DRE)]

Attachment A: At the time of Alberto Muller's arrest in Cuba, the DRE continued to be guided by CIA but retained its absolute control over them. CIA's inability to keep Mueller ceased bitter criticism among DRE members. Control over DRE became superficial & material until late 1961 when time had worn away some of the shock & other activities were intensified. This resulted in higher morale & confidence in future support. Propaganda campaigns in support of Mueller & Miguel Garcia saved them twice from the firing squad.
