Marvin Kantor (201-279,710)

Kantor's 201 file contains:

- 1) Several envelopes containing "third agency" documents;
- 2) CIA reports to other governmental agencies outlining the Agency's information on Kantor;
- 3) CIA internal reports concerning Agency contact with Kantor:
A 5/5/61 Report of contact meetings with Kantor on May 3 & 4 includes a section entitled "General Information on Minsk in 1959." This includes information on construction, food supplies, the Minsk O.V.I.R., the Jewish community in Minsk, etc. One paragraph states: (# 23 on p. 8 of report)

"In addition to the university, there are several technical institutes, but Kantor had no opportunity of visiting them. He remembers that he once passed by a building which houses a military research institute / "voynnonauchnyy institut", but without a map he was not able to describe its location."

A 28 page report of 4/14/61 describes the contacts with Kantor on April 11 and 12. This report details Kantor's personal & educational background, his financial status, his visits to the USSR of 5/31/58 - 7/9/58 and 6/2/59 - 9/8/59, his relatives in the USSR, and his contact with Soviet officials & RIS and other American students ^{who were in} contact with the Soviets. The report goes into considerable detail concerning his contacts with Soviet officials, the attempt by RIS to recruit him while he was in Minsk in late July 1959 (p. 17), his subsequent expulsion from the USSR (p. 20) and his later contacts with Soviet officials and/or RIS upon his return to Copenhagen.
