What points of fact and what of your opinions became the subject of primary attention to questioners?

How precise were your recollections?

Did you qualify your statements?

If so, on what points and how?

Do you have any records on the points of fact? If so, did you discuss with questioners? If you have such records, may we have those not purely personal?

Did you have a direct responsibility for management or supervision of op op? If so what?

If you had a responsibility for handling take, as distinguished from direction, describe.

Bose house keeps did all development, contact sheets, report.

What do you know about any SOP for op. How closely in practice did conduct of op adhere to SOP?
