Meetings held in early December involving more aggressive Cuban intervention in the anti-Castro effort and relocation of leadership to Central American country, ended up in bickering over the future position of Dr. Miro Cardona.

Provided info re return POWS Enrique Llaca and others.

December highly emotional month for Cubans, view Cuban situation as being of international significance. Orange Bowl speech brought several impressions;

- tacit recognition of Miro and CRC by US govt.
- recognition of thesis of Betrayed Revolution
- places emphasis for revolutionary effort against Castro on internal upheaval reinforced by economic sanctions.
- avoided time element in Castro overthrow
- "Flag incident" is source of arguments over whether it signifies a hard line US policy or just comparable to previous statements.

These policies accepted in general except with rightist reactionary elements known as the Palm Beach crowd, who are developing program of attack against US administration on points of Agrarian reform, land redistribution.

-- TDCS DB 315/00550-65 2/16/65

Info from Barker thru Frank Fiorini

Fiorini said MIRR planning another air strike over Cuba 2/16. Johnson told Fiorini, that he and Mike Rafferty had had a heated argument about Orlando Bosch on 2/15 because Bosch wanted his pilot to bomb the city of Havana. Johnson and Rafferty tried to advise Bosch against such an operation but Bosch refused to be dissuaded and instructed his pilot to make the mission. Unidentified American and Cuban co-pilot agreed to make the raid for large sum of money. Fiorini said that Bosch had a B-25 hidden in the Northern part of FL.

MIRR announced 2/13 that plane bombed and strafed Bahia Honda sugar central on Cuba's north coast 2/13. On 2/16 MIRR claimed a B-26 flew over Cuba for 21 minutes and did not draw ground fire. Napalm bombs of 100lbs each and a 200lb high explosive bomb and phosphorous incendiary devices were allegedly dropped.

"Although he has been somewhat ubiquitous among Cuban exile leaders in Miami since March 1963, still remains something of a mystery-man in terms of his own background in Cuba, in terms of his means of support, and indeed in terms of his long-range objectives."
Legend of large gambling interest backing bolstered by large deposit in Miami bank and advancement of modest sums to several groups.
Disintegration of CRC in April 1963, exiles looking for new unity formula. Sierra's boast of backing w/out ties to US apron strings would be particularly appealing.

assets; also listed Santiago Alvarez of Comandos L among members of JGCE. In August planned to recruit Edurado MOR Ruiz, action type. Early October, made pact with Aldo Vera Serafin, s MAPA group to use Vera's mother ship, also purchased two-man sub.

No indication of anti-Castro assets in Cuba. Reptd that JGCE Promoting Committee dissatisfied w/ Sierra in late August 1963, and wanted to replace him, nothing has been done. Repts indicate Sierra stil "guiding spirit". Sierra has not succeeded in attaching major groups, though secured some large names, Alberto Garrido, and Bacardi Pres. Jose M. Bosch Lamarque amon them. Question remains how long Sierra has managed to remain in the exile political scene so long. "Perhaps his mysterious backers are providing him with sufficient funds to keep the pot boiling for the present."

Dr. Garcia of Intl Petroleum Co., attended meeting of 5/8/63 at which Sierra spoke, claimed economic backing to extent of $30 million, endeavoring to unite Cuban groups. Sierra said included in group of backers was United Fruit Co and an affiliate of Standard Oil Co.

-- 00 A(S) 3,258,900

Dr. Cesar Blanco, Chicago, IL repled re meeting of Cuban exiles in Chicago 3/11/63. Blanco said that Burt Mold asked him during a meeting in Blanco's home, how much money was needed to work out a program to free Cuba; that the "Nevada" group would help since the US govt could do nothing. Mold, according to Blanco, offered the job of head of the police when Cuba is freed. He remarked that he knew all about activities at illegal airports in Yucatan.

Blanco also furnished booklet, "The Cuban Dagger," by Dr. John Lechner, Exec Director of Americans for Freedom, PO Box 90593 Airport station, Los Angeles. Mold's name in back list of members.
