4. REPORT OF FINDINGS

On 5 February 1959, Agency A-M reported that [REDACTED], [REDACTED], received a letter from her mother on 26 January 1959 stating substantially the following:

[REDACTED]'s mother sent [REDACTED] a birthday package which was opened by the East German postal authorities. The package contained a few clothing items, a piece of sausage and a can of hash. It is forbidden to send sausage and hash through the mail, therefore the package was returned to [REDACTED]'s mother. The package was very messed up and returned in bad shape. [REDACTED]'s mother received a notice to report to the police station in Langenstein (nca), East Germany. She feels that she is to be charged for trying to ship unauthorized items through the mails.

AGENT'S NOTES: There also exists the possibility that the police wish to question [REDACTED]'s mother about [REDACTED]. This also indicated that the police or East German postal authorities are maintaining censorship on mail coming to [REDACTED] from East Germany. An investigation was conducted on [REDACTED] under dossier number GE-011806.
