d. In connection with the file check completed by this office, the following information was furnished the Embassy at Rome in our memorandum dated 25 September 1952:

*It is noted that subject states that his father is deceased. Information dated 12 May 1947, evaluation C-3, indicates that one KRIVANOVSKY, Sam, an old man, was a gate watchman at the Soviet Consulate in Fientain.

* Information dated June 1946 mentions Evgene KRIVANOVSKAYA and her daughter, Evraia Popovna KRIVANOVSKAYA as self-appointed leaders of Russians doing espionage in the Philippines. The mother and daughter contacted the Russian consulates when they arrived in Manila to attend the surrender of the Japanese, and gave parties for the Russian officers. At this time Evraia KRIVANOVSKAYA expressed her willingness to work for the Russian Consulate in Berlin, but was told by the consulate that she would be of more value if she could get to the United States. It is not possible to determine whether the above-mentioned women are in any way related to subject or his wife.

*Subject states that he was employed by the Carl Walter Company in Fientain. Information in our files dated September 1945 states that this company supplied Germany with such needed raw materials via Siberia up to the outbreak of the Russian war in June, 1941.
