Acting Chief, FIOB/Security Research Staff

1 February 1971

William V. Kelleher

Exposure of CIA Personnel
#601 818

1. Per instruction of the Deputy Chief, Security Research Staff, the following is a summary of information concerning several individuals who had been PNG'd from the USSR. This information was extracted from a FIOB memorandum dated 20 January 1971, Subject: TOON, Malcolm, #412 916, (A-226).

2. One paragraph in the referenced memorandum reflects that various news media such as the Sunday Star, dated 30 May 1965, as well as the wire services publicized the naming of two American diplomats in Moscow as CIA spies by Nedelya, the illustrated weekly supplement of Izvestia. Nedelya contained an article entitled "Spy - Mania and Naked Kings" on American Embassy spy activities. The article concentrated its attack on Mr. Malcolm TOON as the supervisor of several individuals who are known to be PNG'd from the USSR. These individuals are listed as follows:
