1. Following information concerning George de MOHRENCHILD's contacts<sup>22</sup> with the Polish Commercial Delegation in Port-au-Prince was provided by [HTPA]-1506-1. This report covers the period 1d September to 31 December 1964. Mr. MOHRENCHILD's past contact with the delegation has been reported in reference and several other reports.

2. Station notes that George de MOHRENCHILD or his wife Jeanne visited the delegation but once during the Polish Commercial Attaché, Włodzimierz GALICKI's (201-314948), absence from Port-au-Prince. This one occasion was on 27 October, two days before GALICKI and his family returned to Port-au-Prince. On that one visit, Mr. de MOHRENCHILD was accompanied by an unidentified American. Mr. MOHRENCHILD, the American, and the acting Commercial Attaché, Casimir SALACINSKI (201-752851), spoke together in the courtyard for about half an hour. The American was short, fat with greying hair.

3. 30 October (Day after GALICKI's return to Port-au-Prince.) Mrs. de MOHRENCHILD visit the GALICKI's for an hour during the day. Mr. and Mrs. de MOHRENCHILD have dinner with GALICKI's later that evening.

3 November GALICKI's have dinner at de MOHRENCHILD's.

5 November Mr. and Mrs. de MOHRENCHILD stop by for one hour and a half. They drink and talk with GALICKI's.

10 November Mr. and Mrs. de MOHRENCHILD and unknown American stop by for an hour. All speak Polish.
