

CONTINUA y Pas, Pedro L.

CONTE Aguero, Luis

State Dis. J 211
24 December 1955

Joint author of a report on revolutionary meeting held by Fidel CASTRO in Miami at the Flagler Theater in Miami on 20 Nov. 1955. The report was published in Bohemia. Subj. a vehement opponent of Batista, is the secretary general of the "unified" Organismo de Raul CASTRO. Allegedly, he is foremost among supporters of Fidel CASTRO within that Organismo group. At the aforementioned meeting in Miami, CONTE spoke at the gathering.

Reported to be a bodyguard accompanying CASTRO to the U.S. In 1949 the Communist Party of Cuba proposed establishing a new organization called National Congress for Peace and Democracy. A petition endorsing the organization was signed by a list of individuals described as Communist sympathizers, including Luis CONTE Aguero.

Departed Hab 6 April for Miami. Escorted to airport by Argentine Amb but status was not that of political asylee being given safeconduct. In other 6 April 60 words, he departed as ordinary Cuban citizen. Anticipated that subj will engage in much publicity. Line he will take is that Raul CASTRO and Che GUEVARA as well as Communists have hijacked Fidel CASTRO's revolution. He will stress his own close relationship w/CASTRO and CASTRO's earlier alleged strong anti-Communist attitudes.
