Re SUNDVIK's account of summer with Subj at his apt Annantatu 22, A-2 on evening of 26 Apr 61. Subj's wife left and the two men alone... Talked about Helsinki and Finland in general... Subj said after graduating from the University of Moscow Law Institute, he held a First Lt. officer commission and worked in the Dept of Defense in Moscow thruout the wars. After demobilization, he had come back to the University of Moscow for more studies and transferred to the Soviet Foreign Service -- Helsinki is his first foreign post as a vice consul... (for details see att to this dispatch filed in Sundvik 201)... Sundvik is not longer at Helsing. Because of poor job performance and unsavory background as well as danger of security risk, Sundvik was asked to resign on 5 May 61... Att also gives account as reported by Sundvik of his trip to USSR...
