SUBJECT: Organizational planning of Dissident Communist Party of Greece

CLASSIFIED BY: [redacted] DATE: 12 July 1972

REF ID: A6 3234

1. As of mid-July 1972, the Dissident Communist Party of Greece (DEKS) was attempting to reorganize itself by establishing a new leadership in Greece. An effort will be made to hold a conference of party cadres within the next few months to determine if new leaders can be chosen from among cadre living in Greece legally. If so, the DEKS leaders living abroad will resign and the party will run from within Greece. At that time, DEKS cadre living in Greece illegally will leave the country. (Source Comment: Although the DEKS will thus be directed by legal residents, their activities on behalf of the DEKS will be illegal according to Greek law and the members could be subject to arrest.)

2. Leonidas Tzoufros, former EKE Central Committee member and leading DEKS member living illegally in Greece, described his plan for the reorganization as follows:

a. Political Committee - to consist of five or six people with responsibility for establishing the party's political goals, forming party policy regarding Greek political developments and issuing statements in the name of the DEKS.

b. Organizational Committee - to try to reactivate the former leaders of the party who now "refuse to get involved". Because of the political situation in Greece, there will be no effort made to gain mass recruitments into the party. There will be no contact between members of the Organizational and Political Committees.

c. Committee Abroad - to have its headquarters in a West European capital and to represent DEKS interests with other

...of all coordinative party activities abroad and within Greece for the party. (Source Comment: Theoretis did not indicate how many qualified members he planned for the "United two candidates". Theoretis hopes to present his plan to the party within "in a few months" and believes it will be accepted in Greece and abroad. Leonidas Kyriakos, former EUSA official and member of the United Democratic Left (EDL) Executive Committee, and Theodoros Hofilaidis, former member of the EUSA Governing Council and syndicalist, agree with Theoretis' plan but would prefer to wait for the 1977 election before it is implemented. Kyriakos and Hofilaidis believe they should first try to work on reactivating party cadres and check whether all believe the party lacks strong support.

3. Theoretis and Theoretis said one of their major problems is the lack of a very high and medium level party cadre to become active members of the EUSA. These former members will not work with any party. (Source Comment: Theoretis said he had long ago anticipated this situation.) Theoretis' hold/leading officials in the EUSA are Theodoros Hofilaidis, Leonidas Kyriakos, and Eleuterios Theodoris.
Theoretis said that Leonidas Kyriakos and Eleuterios Theodoris are the only ones who have refused to leave the party.

4. Theoretis said that imprisoned party members Theodoros Kyriakos and Hofilaidis and Hafilaidis (Robis) Kyriakos and former EUSA full-time member and General Secretary of the EUSA respectively, were aware of the problem and have both expressed wishes to leave their prison cells insisting that Hafilaidis and Kyriakos resign for the good of the party. Hafilaidis and Kyriakos have agreed to resign since replacements are available but would prefer to leave if they quit of their own volition rather than that they were dropped by the party. (Source Comment: Theoretis said he believes Hafilaidis and Kyriakos will put the welfare of the party ahead of their own personal feelings and will resign their offices. He said that before he and Hafilaidis returned to Greece, they had told Hafilaidis and Kyriakos of their opposition to them and had voiced their intention to express their criticism of the two office holders while in Greece.
Theoretis did not specify what his own future in the EUSA will be but he said he will leave Greece when the reorganization is completed.)

5. Theoretis said there are not more than five or six active members of the Theoretis Antidictatorship Front (EAF) in Athens and no more than two active members of the EUSA and EUSA combined. Theoretis Theodoris, General Secretary of the EUSA who had been in Greece illegally until early 1977, went back to Greece that he had allies in his country, through a series of conversations in Europe, to get the President of the Theoretis Front, in return of a EUSA official.
Theoretis indicated his willingness to discuss cooperation on the issue with the EUSA. The EUSA refused because it does not agree with Theodoris' plan to use force for "dynamic resistance". Since then, the Theoretis has been spreading his own people to lead all operations alone in the country he visits and noted that the EUSA keeps the party members and his followers from entering the party in 1977.
Theoretis said in Greece to propose a candidate to replace Theodoris and expressed they consider Greek actress Anna Kyriakos as a replacement. (Source Comment: It is highly unlikely that a socialist would accept such a post.)

SPECIFIC - Operational diary -- June 1951

OPERATIONAL SERVICE

- 1st: Wrote to Searcher. See RSPA-100
- 2nd: Gave a dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. van Griin (head of National Parks) and the von Heiders. In entertaining, the custom here is to mix business with pleasure people, and in following custom.
- 3rd: Drove to Johannesburg to lunch with the Bruce Crawfords. While there, I met a British representative of the USA-AEC. Stayed over for two nights, which I provided. Scotch is practically unobtainable here by non-entassy people, and the local liquor is definitely sub-standard. Anyone carrying a bottle of Scotch for themselves is voted as the man most likely to succeed.
- 5th: Had Seaman and wife to dinner.
- 7th: Drove to Johannesburg to meet William Potts (Director of Tsetse Research in the Boylko) and H. Thomas of the Kenya Administration. Took them and the children to the Criterion night-club (sic). Potts and Thomas are on their way to French West Africa for a conference. Arranged to meet them on their way back.
- 8th: Mr. and Mrs. David Nelson stayed with us for a day to meet a number of medical appointments which my wife had been able to arrange for them.
- 12th: Searcher came to Pretoria for the day. In general all hope of using him. Too old. See RSPA-100.

13th: In the evening I called on Olive at her apartment but found she already had a visitor, the sub-editor of the Pretoria News. Chatted a while, then left.

14th: Gave a luncheon party at the Pretoria Club for the mining fraternity. Guests: Mr. Johnson of the C.S.A., Director of the S.A. Geological Dept., Mr. Prosser, Mr. Stant, Mr. Langerstein, S.A. Geological Dept., Mr. ... Department of Mines, Mr. ... Department of Mines, Mr. ... Department of Mines, Mr. ... Department of Mines, Mr. ... S.A. 452, Mr. Birch, Commercial Attache, Pristie, & Mineral Attache

Not being a member of the Pretoria club, I had to give the lunch through Birch, who is.

15th: Gave a cocktail-dinner party for as many as the house would hold.

Guests:

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bold (Head of Road Safety Department)
Mr. and Mrs. Berfontein (Administrator-Technical College)
Mr. and Mrs. Roberts (Lecturer - Pretoria Univ.)
Miss Moolman (singer)
Mr. and Mrs. H. Stoker (Consts Bureau)
Mr. and Mrs. Alex Price (Attorney - Kimberley)
Mr. and Mrs. ... (Tvl Director of Mines)
Dr. and Mrs. ... (Dentist)
Mr. and Mrs. ... (President Business man)
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Crawford (S.A. Ceramic Co.)
Mr. and Mrs. ... (Chief Personnel Manager)
Mr. and Mrs. ...
Major and Mrs. ...
Mr. and Mrs. ...
Mr. and Mrs. von Hellens
Mr. and Mrs. Birch
Mrs. Dougherty
Mrs. Connelly

18th: Picked up William Potth and H. Siemes at the Palmfontein Airport (fifty miles from Pretoria) at 1 P.M. Put them up for the night.

19th: Took them back to the airport. Siemes said he had no intention of settling in Kenya after his retirement. Too much agitation among the Kikuyu natives -- too many Indians crowding the place. More and more people are saying that they see no future in Africa for the European.

22nd: Attended a big cocktail party at the Steyns (Senior). My wife met and charmed a Mrs. Mabeler whose husband is in charge of training the police for the whole of South Africa. I've been ranting to cultivate police circles for some time, and this may prove to be the opening wedge. Met Coert Steenberg, noted sculptor; also Aubrey Poseman, painter and architect.

23rd: Had dinner with Dr. Stoker's. Met Mrs. Lee (?) widow of a former S.A. Minister; Mr. and Mrs. Herman (?) from S.A. diplomatic service. Stoker monopolized the conversation with stiff Afrikaner views on apartheid. Restrictions on political arguments apparently don't apply to Afrikaner homes.

24th: (Sunday) Spent the day with:
Mr. and Mrs. Phillip (Genev) van Aas, Stock Exchange
Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Groenston, Accountant, Standard Bank, Johannesburg

25th: Picked up Sedative and gave her a bottle of Scotch and she asked me to come to her apartment and help her drink it. I will. I must find out if she is taciturn or just naturally dumb. If a few drinks doesn't loosen her tongue, I'll cross her off my list.

Mrs. Poseman called and invited me and mine to a birthday party she is giving for her husband. There is something about this artistic circle that isn't altogether normal. I intend to get a more intimate acquaintance with it. Viola, (I mean Mrs. Poseman) wanted an extra girl for the party but she wouldn't have Sedative.

26th: Seazy is back from Cape Town. He seemed surprised when I told him I was now doing mineral work. He said no word had been received from Washington regarding this matter. I said no word was needed. I was happy to attach working priority on minerals and there was no reason for asking Washington's approval. With that, he brightened and said perhaps I was right, so that's the way it is. He showed me the cable sent to him March 20, which departs somewhat from yours of about the same time. His cable read in part "no objection to X continuing in mineral work until Frisbie's arrival at which time he can devote full time to primary mission with cover well established." Our liaison officer might point out to the Department that covers must be maintained as well as established.

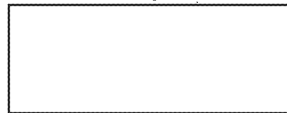

27th: Attended a cocktail party given by Major Morgan to welcome the military group just returned from Germany. Met, and talked with: Brig. Hirst, British Military Liaison Officer; Captain Glass, Ass't British Military Advisor; Commodore Dean, who figured prominently in the recent S.A. military reshuffle; Douglas Cullinan, son of (Sir) Thomas Cullinan of diamond fame, and very wealthy in his own right. Glass and Cullinan seemed interested in furthering the acquaintanceship. Will do.

28th: Visited Cedative in her apartment from 5 P.M. until 6 P.M. A scotch and soda, even better she stirred it with surprising moderation, seemed to relax her inhibitions. It untied her tongue but not to the point of loquacity. I discerned something of her background: a Bohemian circle, apparently centering around her, broke up as the artist members married one by one. I sensed a bitterness, a disillusionment and many unspoken reproaches against herself as well as against others. She now has a 'fiance' but he does not seem to loom very large on the landscape. Before leaving I led the conversation to today. She said she hadn't seen him for some time, then added that she would get in touch with him, presumably to do some political in the buff.

29th: Attended a party at Aubrey Rosen's. When, at 2:30 A.M., the hardier guests prepared to make a night of it, we left. The group, artistically inclined, was settling down for a reading of quaint, erotic tales.

30th: Drove to Johannesburg to pick up Mr. and Mrs. Angus Collie, then to Germistown to attend the races with the Alex Wise's. In the evening Wise gave a party, following which we drove back to Johannesburg and spent the night with the Collie's.

I would like to describe the last two days in greater completeness but the pouch exerts.
