SUMMARY OF THE REPORT

SUBJECT: Tax Status of AMLB Payments to Legislative and Executive

Committees

1. On 19 July I was called by Mr. James Detheratz of the General Counsel's Office. He said a letter from Rep. George Hartman (Minority whip of House Ways and Means Committee) to Mr. Clark Miller has requested information as to what was the tax status of individuals receiving payments through the AMLB complex. He expects to know specifically what their liability was to the Internal Revenue Service and what steps, if any, had been taken by this Agency to insure compliance with federal tax laws.

2. Mr. Detheratz requested my presence at a meeting held at 2:30 P.M. in Room 216 East Building to determine the tax status of the payments made to the Senate in the fall of 1963.

3. Present at the meeting were the following persons:

James (BRIGGS), Office of General Counsel

George C. RY, Assistant Legislative Counsel

Joe SCHET, Assistant Legislative Counsel

5. I told the members of the Agency that this was at a meeting held in January 1961 attended by [] (Coronet Tax Branch), [] General Counsel Officer and [] (Chief, Support, ANIRIS) it was decided that payments made to dependents of trainees were not salary payments but were subsistence payments not taxable. At this meeting, Mr. [] stated that any salaries paid to council members of ANIRIS would be the personal responsibility of the individual receiving the salary and that reporting to Internal Revenue would be in accordance with existing laws. He also stated there was no policing to be made by this Agency. (b) No withholdings for taxes were made by ANIRIS. (c) ANIRIS has no official or corporate status in the U.S. (d) Subsistence payments represented living allowances to dependents of foreign nationals who were training for the project primarily outside of the U.S. (e) There was no evidence of official notice to ANIRIS of any tax liability.

6. After a general discussion as to how Representative Kirsten would be briefed to his satisfaction, the meeting was adjourned.
