MERCHANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Highlights of Tape-Recorded Conversation in Hissa Between Mr. William D. Pauley and an Unidentified Cuban during Period 17-18 October

- 2. The unidentified Guban, who had somewhat of an accent and spoke indistinctly, was difficult to understand. He mentioned a meeting "with some of our people who came up from Guban to discuss plans. He said his group had been contacted by a representative of General Jose Eleuteric PEDRAZA, leader of Guban revolutionary groups in the Deminican Republic, who wanted to know what action their group had taken and was told that they had a plan "to start sabotage". The Guban said the PEDRAZA representative said their group (the PEDRAZA group) had four provinces organised in Guba, mentioning Gamaguey and Santa Clara, and that they had two provinces yet to be organized —— Habana and Matansas.
- 3. The Cuban said his group needed two things -- morel backing and money; he pointed out that Cubans in Cuba are afraid to start an underground movement, and there was no way to raise funds, ste. Mr. Pawley gave him no encouragement on the money angle, saying that even if there were Americans willing to run the risk of becoming involved in Cuban revolutionary setivities by furnishing money for such a movement, which he doubted, he felt that at the present time it would be like "putting money down a rat-hole" for the following reasons: (1) there is no unity among the anti-CASTRO groups, and there are at least 10 that he knows of who are working absolutely independently of one another; and (2) CASTRO is in control of the country and has the support of a large number of Cubana, especially the under-privileged. Hr. Payley said he falt the Cuban economic situation was worsening fast and that if it gets bad enough, a large number of Cubans will turn on CASTRO; but until that time comes it would be dangerous to try to organise a revolutionary movement.

i. Hr. Family asked the Cuben if his group felt they had moral support of the U.S. and the Cuben replied that they worted U.S. moral support but whether they had it or not, they felt they were obliged to carry through with their plans. Er. Pruley said he didn't know what to tell him -- would have to think about it and son if anything could be done. He said, "having been connected with the U.S. Covernment, I can't get involved in revolutionary soussents". Also said he would hate to see the Downiana Covernment get involved, which sight be difficult to avoid with so many Cuban exiles there, but commented that he understood "the Downiana Covernment hasn't given them a disea".
