

27 February 1961

SUBJECT: Alleged Batistianos Signed up for the camps.

MIRP

1. Manolo RAY telephoned me Saturday night to tell me that he had heard from his Miami contact that a number of Batistianos had been recruited for training in the "camps" and some had already been flown to the camp. He said he understood this resulted from inadequate checking and that/the presence of these people at the camps could cause considerable trouble. He mentioned only one name - Cruz Vidal - but said he would seek additional info. Following Manolo's call I phoned [redacted] and passed the info on to him. He was already well aware of the problem and was taking remedial action.

2. On Sunday night, 26 February, Manolo called me again. This time he read to me over the phone the names of (1) a number of alleged undesirables who had been recruited and dispatched (2) a number who have signed up by who as yet have not been accepted and (3) names of people who are involved in the recruiting without necessarily implicating them in any questionable activity:
