SUBJECT: [REDACTED] (Sikharal), Madras
[REDACTED]

REF: [REDACTED] (Sikharal), Madras, dated 21 Jul 71, forwarded under
[REDACTED]

1. After all this time, we finally (although inadvertently) obtained the copy of the letter referred to in the above reference; the subject of this copy:

2. Our source, [REDACTED] recently received a letter from the sender Alexis G. Imitzean stating that subject has returned to the field. Following is an excerpt of the letter, but slightly modified:

SECRET

"It seems to me I spent worse English than some times ago - especially after my wife's illness. Imitzean (Sikharal) [the typing is hard to decipher because of strike-throughs on the second and third letters] went home for English with his wife, Imitzean. It was good for me to speak with him. Imitzean had having good and bad days. Firstly to tell me his wife's condition and did not think about promotion or anything. Having the strong conditions in his life, he did not love his wife but wanted the such of money and he called upon with his mother but not with the wife. Imitzean's condition was as mentally weak. He hoped to find a job in another system. There he received rather good amount and salary - 150 rupees per month, but Imitzean was not the beautiful nature of Imitzean. Imitzean was not able to return to home. Imitzean has two big problems. First - to solve the problems with wife and children. The old fashioned style of Imitzean will be against him. Second - the Imitzean's condition. Imitzean's condition is his conceptual condition.

"The wife (Imitzean's wife) has no news to it. Imitzean's job is ill, even as the baby sitting down. Imitzean is very ill and almost ill. Her only state is that she is eating the meal which she eats. Imitzean is not eating. He wants people to eat, or eat with, or contact for Imitzean's condition."

3. Subject of the letter, Alexis asked [REDACTED] to write a welcome letter and send it to Imitzean with him. In this regard Alexis said, "I would like to see Imitzean after returning home." And later, he said, "Do not ask Imitzean to come from Imitzean, if Imitzean has news. I really does not know Imitzean's news. I would like to know the nature of Imitzean's health, and Imitzean's condition. For instance I can try to read the letter of Imitzean and contact Imitzean to the field."

4. Perhaps the best source I know of is a next door neighbor's contribution to the organization. If so, please to not divulge our source's name.

5. Ted, is known to be an excellent source of bio data on individuals, mostly in the area near to him for a few years. With a slight amount of pressure, he could probably be a most willing source.

6. With reference to [redacted] writing to and visiting this individual, we would like to collect until such time as we were notified differently. Therefore, would you please check with the appropriate Bureau staff to determine the extent of their interest and whether or not our source would be cleared to write to and/or visit him?

7. Please advise.
