SUBJECT: INTELLIGENCE EVALUATION COMMITTEE
INTERNAL SECURITY - MISCELLANEOUS

This sets forth results of the second meeting of the Intelligence Evaluation Committee attended by me this morning (12/16/70) in the Office of John W. Dean III, Counsel to the President, in the Executive Office Building. This is the proposed Departmental Intelligence Unit which has previously been discussed with the Director by Assistant Attorney General Robert C. Mardian and to which I have been designated to attend as the Director's representative.

Those present at the meeting were:

- Justice Morell Sharp - Chairman of the Committee
- John W. Dean III, Counsel to the President
- Egil Krogh, Jr., Deputy Assistant to the President for Domestic Affairs
- Robert C. Mardian, Assistant Attorney General of the Internal Security Division of the Department
- John Doherty, Internal Security Division of the Department
- [Robert F. Froehlke,] Assistant Secretary of Defense for Intelligence
- [Benson K. Buffham,] National Security Agency
- James Angleton, Central Intelligence Agency
- Thomas Kelly, Secret Service
- George C. Moore, Federal Bureau of Investigation

At the outset of this meeting, Mr. Mardian explained to the new representatives from the Department of Defense, the National Security Agency, and Secret Service the mission of
