(1) CIA will not initiate an investigation of any [redacted] without the concurrence and coordination of [redacted]. In this context, the term "investigation" means systematic and direct inquiries or procedures (such as physical or technical surveillances or neighborhood inquiries) aiming at developing information concerning an individual's activities or background; "investigation" does not include the acceptance or the development of information through social contacts or contacts normally made by CIA agents in discharging their cover functions. (S)

(2) CIA will seek concurrence and coordination of [redacted] before approaching for recruitment any [redacted]. [redacted] will concur and coordinate if the proposed action does not conflict with any operation, current or planned, including active investigation of [redacted]. (S)

(3) CIA will advise [redacted] prior to any planned meeting between [redacted] of known or presumed interest to [redacted] (this would include all [redacted] for purposes of assessment and social development. (S)

(4) [redacted] [redacted] will be identified to [redacted] by name or appropriate description depending on the national security interest involved. (S)

(5) Pursuant to paragraph 4 above, [redacted] [redacted] will be advised and [redacted] will confer regarding the handling of [redacted]. It is recognized that each case will have its individual peculiarities. The governing principle will be positive intelligence interest as weighed against internal. (S)
