This will confirm information furnished on May 7, 1960, by Special Agent L. M. Linton of this Bureau to Mr. Louis R. Hage of the Department of State; Mr. Mario T. Noto of the Immigration and Naturalization Service; and Mr. Chester A. Emerick of the Bureau of Customs, and by Special Agent R. H. Haynes to [redacted] of Central Intelligence Agency; Commander J. L. Nerr of the Office of Naval Intelligence; Colonel Eugene Cox, Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence, Department of the Army; Major J. P. Ford of the Office of Special Investigations, Department of the Air Force; and Technical Sergeant Joseph Hemphill, of the Joint Staff.

On May 5, 1960, an informant of this Bureau who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that an unidentified woman contacted Abelardo Blanco, Cuban Consul General, Miami, Florida, and informed him that a group of one hundred men was being trained in shooting by Pedro Luis Diaz Lanz, former Chief of Cuban Revolutionary Air Force, and that this woman's son is a member of the group. According to the informant, this woman further advised Blanco that the group was scheduled to depart for Cuba on May 9, 1960.

On May 6, 1960, Mr. Gene Chaput, U. S. Border Patrol, Miami, Florida, advised the Miami Office of this Bureau that a source of the Border Patrol had related he had gone to the residence of Frank Anthony Sturgis on the evening of May 9, 1960, and was issued a military uniform and boots. According to this source, twenty-eight individuals were scheduled to participate in
