really know all of this in detail.

Mr. Kelley. Do you know who [REDACTED] was?

Mr. Helms. He was a Cuban exile leader, is the best definition to give to [REDACTED].

Mr. Kelley. I am told by a member of our staff who reviewed these documents in their unsanitized forms that [REDACTED] that L-1 was AMLASH, and that the case officers whom they have questioned about these documents --

Mr. Helms. Wasn’t [REDACTED] also a member of the Cuban Brigade?

Mr. Kelley. He was very heavily involved in the Bay of Pigs. [REDACTED] L-1 was AMLASH in the period ’64-’65, and the case officers who were involved in these documents have testified, they say, that Desmond Fitzgerald knew all about what they were doing, that he was informed that they were trying to put AMLASH in touch with our teammate in order to effect AMLASH’s goal of assassinating Castro, and that the case was a very big one, at least in their view of what the DDP Directorate was doing at the time.

Mr. Helms. Who said Fitzgerald knew all of these things?

Mr. Kelley. The case officers that they were working for Fitzgerald.

Now my question is did you know what Fitzgerald was doing? Did Fitzgerald report to you what he and his case officers were doing with respect to AMLASH?
this case, I think, two of them out in Europe some place, handling an asset -- and just how often you put your finger into the pie, if at all, other than getting yourself routinely briefed by one of your trusted --

Mr. Helms. It would be the latter. Fitzgerald would be the man who would report to me and tell me what was going on. Get what authorizations he needed for me, bring me whatever papers had to be signed in order to carry on his work. Obviously minutes of 303 Committee meetings would come to me with regard to participating, whether I did or didn't.

In other words, I would keep in the policy line there. But the actual operational details, day to day, would be handled by Fitzgerald and his people in these various stations, Miami, and so forth. They would come into him in Washington.

What telegrams going back and forth I would see or would not see, I would not have every single telegram there to find out, but this was generally, he reported to me. I didn't go down and talk to individual case officers about these.

Mr. Kirbow. One other question.

Mr. Helms. Except on rare occasions.

Mr. Kirbow. Sure.

After Desmond Fitzgerald returned from his trip to meet with AMLASH, hodding himself forth, apparently properly to be a representative of the United States government, do you recall

MEMORANDUM FOR: CIA Officer

SUBJECT: Last Meet with L-1 and Case Officer

1. [Redacted] according to his wife who spoke to him by telephone 10 December, hopes to return Tuesday, 15 December. L-1 will debrief him as soon as he returns on the situation in Havana, and as agreed, pass all information he collects through you. L-1 has no phone but will contact you through [Redacted]. You can call him at the residence at telephone number.

2. [Redacted] returned from Madrid on 9 December with the information from [Redacted] regarding the meeting with B-1. L-1 may meet with B-1 later but is not prepared to meet with him until after he talks with [Redacted] and finds out the details of the arrangements. L-1 is also concerned over his own security and that of the people inside Cuba whom he would be committing once he ties in with B-1.

3. Our official line to take with regard to B-1 is that he is operating from outside the United States, is doing what he can for his country, and is highly thought of. Although we would like to see B-1 and L-1 get together, we do not want to be the brokers in the union. All we can do is encourage it indirectly and permit them to make their own decisions. FYI: B-1 is in full agreement with L-1 line of thinking regarding solution in Cuba and is the reason he would like to join forces. B-1 does not know and we do not plan to tell him that we are in direct contact with L-1 nor does L-1 know and we do not desire he know that we are in direct contact with B-1.

4. L-1 was told and fully understands that the United States Government cannot become involved to any degree in the "first step" of his plan. If he needs support, he realizes he will have to get it elsewhere. FYI: This is where B-1 could fit in nicely in giving any support he would request.
SUBJECT: Second Meeting Between B-1 and L-1 in Madrid on 30 December 1964

1. B-1 returned to Madrid on 30 December 1964. He arrived at 1500 hours and by 1600 hours was in his second meeting with L-1. The meeting lasted until 2200 hours and took place in an apartment on the top floor of the highest commercial building in Madrid. The apartment was rented the night before by B-1 and L-1. They rented the apartment and spent the night, one remained in the apartment until the conference took place. B-1 arrived with another person and L-1, who met him. In the apartment when B-1 arrived with person and L-1 were L-1 and person. While B-1 was saying his hellos to L-1 and person, another person looked around the apartment for any concealed tape recorders. He used the pretext of looking for something that the Spanish security service may have planted in the apartment, but was also checking on his brothers. Before leaving L-1 ordered three bottles of cider and four cans of beer. This was delivered and everybody except L-1 and B-1 left the apartment. They promised to call at 2000 hours to find out when they should come and pick them up.

2. They started the conversation discussing mutual acquaintances and friends in Cuba. L-1 does not think much of the DK3 boys, especially Savat, who is in Miami at this time, but he does respect Alberto Muller who is in prison. He stated that Muller is having troubles in the Isle of Pines but he is demonstrating his determination to resist any kind of indoctrination which is forced upon him. B-1 had a long list of government personalities which he had hidden in his coat. When he extracted the list from its hiding place, L-1 started to laugh. L-1 asked whether B-1 was also going to ask him about all these different people because the Americans had also presented him with a long list asking about the same people. He said the Americans always ask him about these people and also about the new arms that Fidel may have in Cuba.

3. L-1 mentioned that the first thing that may interest B-1 before they started to talk about any personalities was that all the SAM sites were in Cuban hands and not in Soviet hands. He also mentioned there were two groups with whom he was in contact besides his own group of the Directorio Revolucionario, one led by Cmdre. Efigenio Ameijeiras from the 26th of July group and a second group... also from the 26th of July. The latter is opposed to the regime, but a prerequisite to joining in the coup is the elimination of Castro. The following officers are members of this group: Cmtdes. Sergio del Valle, Chief of Staff of the Cuban Army; Antonio Lusson y Batlle; Guillermo Garcia Frias, Commander of the Western Army; and Victor Bordon Machado, Chief of Artillery, Western Army. L-1 was not too lauditory concerning this group. He feels they want to reap the fruit after the big job has been performed. On the other hand, regarding Ameijeiras, he claims that he has the courage and determination to proceed with what has to be done under any and all circumstances.

5. L-1 asked the following question of L-1:
If Fidel Castro should be eliminated, what officers would join a group which would oppose the Communist Party, Paul Castro, Che Guevara and company. L-1 mentioned Sergio del Valle. L-1 claims that he has already talked to del Valle, but the condition placed by him is the death of Fidel Castro or he is unwilling to participate in any kind of coup.
According to L-1, he has already spoken with del Valle, Lusson, Guillermo Garcia Frias, and Victor Bordon Machado. All of these people are in the same position as del Valle; they are not willing to participate in anything until Fidel Castro is eliminated. In L-1 opinion, the following would also join the anti-Communist forces once Fidel Castro is eliminated: Juan Almeida Bosque, Delarama Castilla Mas and Pedro Miret. Another man who may also join them is "El Gallego" Fernandez, but he has no troops with him. The troops are very much opposed to him because he was a member of Batista's old army. He was then made a comandante in the new rebel army. L-1 feels that Cmtd. Manuel Caspedes Fernandez, the deputy commander of the Eastern Army in Oriente, will probably join an anti-Communist group. L-1 is not certain of Caspedes but does know his brother is anti-Communist. L-1 has not yet spoken with or talked with Cmtd. Oscar Fernandez Mel who is the deputy commander in the Western Army. L-1 is relatively sure Fernandez will join them since Fernandez is against Castro since Fidel is living with Fernandez's wife. L-1 is also certain that the members of the old army and the old navy will also join them although he has not had direct contact with these people. He is sure of this because Fidel at every opportunity warns Ramiro Valdes to check these people out and keep a careful watch on them. This group consists of Cmtdte. Juan Ignarra Matarran, Chief of the Eastern Naval District in Paines, whom L-1 claims is a homosexual; Capt. Juan Valdez Reyes, member of PURS; Capt. Juan Velez Carrion, Naval Base Commander, Cienfuegos; and Capt. Bonacio Porrata Nieves, Commanding Officer.
southern Sector of Eastern Naval District. Fidel has no confidence in these people and has placed below them people of confidence to watch over them. L-1 is not certain, but feels that Juan Almeida Bosque will probably join forces with the anti-Castro, anti-Communist group, also Cadte. Raul Gonzalez Tomasevich, Chief Operations of Central Army, L-1 claimed he didn't know the rest of the list had with him.

6. Another man with whom L-1 is also in contact is Cadte. Jose Ramon Machado Ventura, the Minister of Public Health. Machado and Cadte. Raul Vallejo Ortiz are in the midst of a dispute since Vallejo is desirous of getting Machado's ministry. L-1 gave C-1 the details and the exact locations where Fidel spends every Saturday and Sunday and specifically every Sunday at Varadero. C-1 will take maps with him the next time he travels to Europe to see L-1 so he can pinpoint on the maps the exact locations where Fidel stays. C-1 is hoping that with these details he can prepare an operation against that point.

Faure Chomon Mediavilla, Minister of Transport, is 100 percent Communist. (FNU) Garcia is also very close to Chomon and they are both completely enchanted with Marxism and Marxist theories.

7. After discussing the different personalities, C-1 and L-1 started talking about other matters. L-1 informed C-1 that the first Cuban exile leader with whom he had talked was B-1. L-1 decided to make this contact because he felt it necessary to develop a concrete plan they could proceed to work on. L-1 claims he was convinced that B-1 actually has something because of the way Fidel talks against him and is opposed to him even in private conversations. L-1 claims that the commando raids raise the morale and spirit of resistance of the people in Cuba. L-1 had one piece of advice for B-1 that is, B-1 must concentrate his commando attacks on two targets. He was very insistent to forget military targets but to concentrate on economic targets, specifically sugar and POL. He said these two items are in short supply and it infuriates Fidel every time he looses one drop of oil or one pound of sugar. The other piece of advice L-1 had for B-1 was that the frequency of the attacks should be stepped up. He felt there was too much time between operations. In order to heat up the target, L-1 also suggested that one month before the attempt on Fidel Castro as many targets as possible should be hit in order to prepare the public and raise the morale and resistance spirit of the people. L-1 told C-1 that the militiamen or the army will do nothing once Fidel is dead. They will sit back and wait to see what the Cuban public will do. If the Cuban public takes to the street, they will do nothing to suppress these people.
3. On this chord they started to reach a series of agreements. L-1 at this point stated, "Now let's see what I have. I have what I told you, my group from the DR, which I have again reactivated, and also the contacts with these other people that I have mentioned to you. I have also been in contact with the Americans since before the Bay of Pigs. I have been out just about every year and every year I have had contact with the Americans." He again repeated the fact that he had requested a silencer for the PAL from the Americans which they had not been able to provide. He said, "The Americans tried to give me a radio to take to Cuba."

L-1 was against taking the risks of operating a radio in Cuba. L-1 said, "The other things the Americans want me to do is to organize a coup, to organize a group of officers, battalions and regiments in order to carry out a coup against Fidel. But what the Americans fail to realize is that they are not faced with another regular Latin American government in Cuba. So long as Fidel Castro is around, this is impossible. When people from Washington come to talk with me, they talk with a police mentality, not with a political mentality, recognizing the situation in Cuba." He said "W" comes to talk to him from Washington. He fails to believe now whether "W" is even from Washington since he has asked him for a silencer and he won't even give him a silencer.

9. L-1 claims the only thing that he is capable of doing is trying to get rid of Fidel Castro. He is able either to shoot him with a silencer or place a bomb in some place where Fidel will be. He might use, for example, a small bomb that he can carry and place, or with his group attack the residence where Fidel lives when he goes to Varadero. These are the only things he can do. After that he has to pray and hope he isn't caught. He also stated he does not want to become a martyr and does not want to exchange his life for Fidel's. He confirms he is not a hero, he wants to live and see what happens after Fidel. He says he is not opposed to risking his life providing he has some assurance or some possibility of getting out and also of assuring himself that he will accomplish his mission. He claims that once he eliminates Fidel, the comandantes that he has mentioned before will join him. At this particular time, it is necessary for 3-1 to appear on the scene because this will convince everybody that the Americans are also backing the coup. He also claims that if he is unsuccessful in his attempt against Fidel, it is the same comandantes who will slit his throat in order to keep him from talking.

L-1 claims this is the reason he needs 3-1. If the attempt fails, he will have a place to go. If it is successful, he will also have 3-1 to guarantee U.S. support.
10. L-1, in discussing the political set up after Fidel, claims he is not opposed to B-1 being president of the junta, provided there is an equal number of representatives on the junta from the internal group. Those from B-1's group should be selected from the prisoners in Cuba. For example, if there are six people on the junta, three would be from L-1's and Ameijeiras's groups and B-1 plus two of his group from inside Cuba.

11. L-1 asked that the other members of the junta be revolutionary members who are presently in jail on the Isle of Pines, that they not be old Batistanos or from the exile community. L-1 claims it has to be the former revolutionaries who have now served time on the Isle of Pines in order to help cleanse the ones who have collaborated with the regime all this time. L-1 feels they will need the influence the boys in prison can bring to bear on the masses. The other point that L-1 insisted upon was that in the first three months after a coup the Cuban exiles not be permitted to return to Cuba. The only ones who would be permitted to return, in a non-political and strictly technical fashion, would be the doctors and the engineers, and only to work, not to engage in politics.

12. L-1 asked, "First, what do I need?" The first thing he claims he needs is a means of escape. L-1 said he needed escape routes provided by B-1, not those belonging to the Americans. "If you fail me, then L-1 will kill you and he is unable to kill the Americans."

B-1 is going to provide L-1 with escape routes and places where B-1 is able to pick him up. He will memorize these points and escape routes. He will not take anything back in writing.

13. L-1 also asked that B-1 do everything possible to organize one of the western provinces, either Pinar del Rio or Havana, where they could have a fall back position or where, once Fidel is eliminated, L-1 can go in order to take refuge during the period of chaos which may follow.

14. Next, B-1 is to provide L-1 either a silencer for a FAL or a rifle with a silencer. B-1 told L-1 he did not know since he was not a technician, if it is possible to make a silencer for the FAL. L-1 stated that the Americans also told him it was technically impossible because it would reduce the effective range of the FAL, but he wasn't sure this was the case. If B-1 can give L-1 a silencer, he will personally take the silencer back with him. If it is a rifle with a silencer then B-1 will put a cache for L-1 in Cuba.
15. The other thing requested of was a bomb inside a suitcase, a cake, a lamp or any concealed bomb that he could place at Fidel’s side without being stopped and searched before getting there. He said, "Don't send me any radios, don't expect me to operate any radios inside Cuba."

16. offered contacts inside Cuba. thought about it and then stated he would accept these contacts, but he would establish the contact after having checked them out; he did not want the contacts coming to him or knowing who he was. agreed and stated this was perfectly satisfactory.

17. also would like to know the exact location of the cache before he returns so he can memorize this information. After the cache is in place, asked to write him a letter in French mailed in Paris, purporting to be from a French girl friend whom he had met there, talking about their love affairs in Paris. He will know when he receives this letter the cache is in place and he will go pick it up. requested several letters be written to him in case one of the letters should get lost. Another thing he requested was that the cache be placed in a location where he could go with relative ease without causing suspicion.

was unable to remember but did mention that the Americans had either given him a cache or had promised him a cache. However, it was placed in such a location that it was impossible for him to go recover it.

18. also requested that once Fidel was eliminated and the new government formed, they would have the recognition of at least five Latin American governments. had already offered this and approved of it.

19. also requested that after every commando attack the propaganda reaching Cuba would state that his attack was made possible because of the intelligence received from the chief of the underground inside Cuba. Thanks to who is the leader of the underground this attack was made possible. hopes that after Fidel Castro is eliminated, he will be able to disclose that he was. He also authorized to disclose that if something happens to during this period, is authorized to disclose that was in fact agreed to this because he is aware of the complex which has because of the time he has spent inside doing nothing, going along with the Castro regime.
20. L-1 also requested that B-1 be in Cuba one week before the elimination of Fidel. L-1 agreed to this provided no one, including L-1, knew where he was hiding. At the time the elimination of Fidel takes place, L-1 insists that B-1 must be in Cuba. According to B-1 has two complexes. One is from the fact that he has been with Fidel and the present regime for such a long time and no one realizes that, although he has been in contact with the Americans, he is unable to publicize the fact that he has been working against Fidel for over three years. The second complex, and a very personal fear, is the fact that he may be left hanging by himself. He lacks confidence in everybody outside Cuba. The other consideration that L-1 raised with B-1 was, upon his return to Paris, he would type an original and one copy of the agreements. When they meet the next time, both B-1 and L-1 would sign both copies, B-1 would keep one of the copies of the agreement, and the second copy would be placed in a safe deposit box to which L-1 would give the combination to a trusted person whom he did not identify. If B-1 betrayed L-1 or did not live up to the agreement, his confidant could publish the agreement. B-1 would have the same privilege if L-1 does not live up to his part of the agreement. B-1 considers the request ridiculous since no purpose can possibly be served by publishing such a document, but realizes this is also a part of L-1's complex and will give L-1 the feeling of some control over B-1 and his part of the agreement.

Meeting in West Palm Beach, Florida, 3 Jan 1965

SUBJECT: Points of Agreement Reached Between B-1 and L-1

Following are the points on which an agreement was reached:

1. B-1 is to provide L-1 with a silencer for the FAL; if this is impossible, B-1 is to cache in a designated location a rifle with a scope and silencer plus several bombs concealed either in a suitcase, a lamp or some other concealment device which he would be able to carry and place next to Fidel Castro.

2. B-1 is to provide L-1 with escape routes controlled by B-1 and not by the Americans. The lack of confidence built up by the Bay of Pigs looms large.

3. B-1 is to prepare one of the western provinces, either Pinar del Rio or Havana, with arms caches and a clandestine underground mechanism. This would be a fall back position and a safe area where men and weapons are available to the group.

4. B-1 is to be in Cuba one week before the elimination of Fidel, but no one, including L-1 will know B-1’s location.

5. B-1 is to arrange for recognition by at least five Latin American countries as soon as Fidel is neutralized and a junta is formed. This junta will be established even though Raul Castro and Che Guevara may still be alive and may still be in control of the part of the country. This is the reason L-1 requested that B-1 be able to establish some control over one of the provinces so that the junta can be formed in that location.

6. One month to the day before the neutralization of Fidel, B-1 will increase the number of commando attacks to a maximum in order to raise the spirit and morale of the people inside Cuba. In all communiques, in all radio messages, in all propaganda put out by B-1 he must relate that the raid was possible thanks to the information received from clandestine sources inside Cuba and from the clandestine underground apparatus directed by “P.” This will be L-1’s war name.
7. C-1 will give L-1 several contacts inside Cuba but will not disclose L-1's identity to the contacts, therefore leaving the initiative for contact with L-1. These contacts L-1 will use in case he has to send an urgent message to C-1 outside Cuba. He will utilize the clandestine pseudonym "P" in these messages. This will also serve as bona fides and identification.

8. All these points will be committed to writing, a copy of which will be given to C-1 and a copy of which will be deposited in a safe deposit box in a bank to which L-1 will give the combination to a trusted friend. In case C-1 betrays any part of the agreement, his confidant will be authorized to publish this agreement. The same would pertain to C-1 if L-1 betrays any part of the agreement. This in general was the essence of the meeting.

C-1 plans to return to Paris the end of January before L-1's return to Havana. At that time they will formalize their previous agreements and C-1 will give L-1 what he has requested.

MEMORANDUM:

SUBJECT: Proposal to Exploit L-1 and Jose Rebeleon in AN Operation

It is proposed that at the next meeting with we pass a message as follows:

"A big comandante or capitán who used to be a leader of the university students opened a numbered (secret) account in Switzerland through Colombian Suarez (my successor). He was traveling in Europe at that time, roughly December 1964-January 1965. The deposit was in the amount of $10,000."

The message is purposely so phrased that it could apply to both L-1 and Jose Rebeleon. Both are past presidents of the PDU (Federation of University Students), one is a comandante and the other a captain, and both were traveling in Europe in December 1964-January 1965.

2. Subject proposal has taken the following information into consideration.

a. The record: The file shows that since April 1959 and repeatedly since then, L-1 has threatened to eliminate CASTRO, but has not done so. He also was reportedly on the verge several times of defecting but never did. There are numerous reports of varying credibility that he has been and is a Castro agent. His character is such that he has been described in a report as "a probable thief, a possible user of narcotics, a homosexual or a friend of homosexuals," but also "an exceedingly brave man." Various reports indicate that he is a heavy drinker and a party lover. Thus a person with such traits could reasonably be believed to be involved in irregular financial transactions.
b. Favorable factors (from OPS standpoint): In the summer of 1962 L-1 gave $500 in Helsinki to be deposited for L-1 in a European bank "for a rainy day." In March 1961, L-1 showed great sensitivity on the subject of bank accounts in Europe by Cuban officials, indicating that he might shoot any official so involved.

c. Conclusion: While it cannot be discounted that L-1 may be a Castro agent, it may be that he has been sincere in his dealings with CIA. Resolution of doubts through an Polygraph interview has been impossible since L-1 bit the ceiling when the matter was first mentioned.

Presumably CIA's interest in L-1 is to see him carry out his mission to eliminate Castro. The above proposal may actually stimulate the desired action. If L-1 is questioned by the regime in connection with this charge, and should the investigation involve a certain amount of harassment and unpleasantness, he might well reach the conclusion that the time to take matters into his own hands (which he has threatened to do for several years) has at last arrived.

If L-1 is a Castro agent and Castro should be aware of L-1's relationship with CIA, Castro might conclude that L-1 received the money from CIA banked it without reporting it, and was in fact working with CIA against Castro. (At the recent meetings L-1 asked us for $10,000. We did not give him this sum, though CIA gave him $7,000.)

If for any reason the regime should do away with L-1, his alleged sympathizers in the Armed Forces might feel they must react at once to save their own skins. Given the tense political situation in Cuba today, this is not out of the question and certainly this proposal could split the regime more.

Received from
AUG. 23 1975
CIA

Jose Rebellon

Rebellon is a non-controversial good target for inclusion in this OPS play for the following reasons:

a. He is close to Castro, as well as to \( L - 1 \), and has a Communist background.

b. He is familiar with the $80,000 account opened in a Swiss bank by Ambassador Carrillo in the fall of 1964. Rebellon has been authorized by Castro to draw on that fund for purchases related to Castro's pet projects. Castro might think that Rebellon had raided Castro's own official fund.

As with \( L - 1 \), any action by the regime against Rebellon might widen splits in Cuba and bring about further political uneasiness and tensions in interpersonal relationships that we desire.
MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

TO: C/FI

From: C/RI

Subject: L-1

Reference: DIR 96056 - H-I TRAINEES AND L-1

In view of the fact that it was a policy of the B-1 (co) complex not to disseminate any of the information, inclusive of the L-1 connection, outside of the B-1 office and that of the C/O, it may be possible that your office has not seen the attached Memorandum of conversations between L-1 and B-1. In it, L-1 explains and cites the military connections he has, their conditions for helping him, their positions, et cetera. This may be of interest to your office.

In addition, L-1 has made it clear that he has no material needs, other than the $10,000 which he requested (which was not made available). The money was needed to keep certain people in certain positions, if necessary; for briefs under some circumstances; for his escape, if possible, et cetera. When C/O refused to give him the money, L-1 gave him $5,000. L-1 himself is trying separately to raise $3,000 (Cuban pesos) inside Cuba.

FYI: Although C/SAS and C/O assured L-1 on 22 November 1963 that C/O would give him everything he needed (telescopic sight, silencer, all the money he wanted) the situation changed when C/O and C/SAS left the meeting to discover that President Kennedy had been assassinated. Because of this fact, plans with L-1 changed and it was decided that we could not have any part in the assassination of a government leader (including Castro) and would not aid L-1 in this attempt. This included the following: We would not furnish the silencer, nor scope, nor any money for direct assassination; furthermore, we would not lift a finger to help L-1 escape from Cuba should he assassinate Castro.

L-1 was not informed of the information in the preceding paragraph until he was seen by C/O in November 1964. L-1 understood this. However, we attempted to have the same ends accomplished for L-1 via B-1. B-1 furnished him with the silencer which he carried in on 23 February 1965, has made some plans for his escape if L-1 has the opportunity, and told him he could count on his help. L-1 made C/O put this in writing to clear his own part in it — but since then appears to have decided that he neither likes B-1 nor trusts him. He refused to accept the $10,000 from him since he had just recently met him and, in addition, did not want to be obligated to him.
