Re: Thomas Edward Beckham AKA Dr. T. Edward Beckham; Fred Lee Crisman; dba National Institute of Criminology, Inc. and Associated Ambulance and Tow-Car Operators, Inc.
Miscellaneous information concerning

Informant suspicious of Beckham and Crisman operations.
Established above-captioned organizations. Confidence game.
Informant advised that in August 1966 overheard conversation between Beckham and Crisman wherein Crisman said he was taking $100,000 in "cold cash" for the Democratic Central Committee to California. About 10 days later Crisman appeared at informment's place of business at which time he commented that he had delivered $90,000 to someone in a hotel lobby in California, the money coming from the Washington State Central Democratic Committee for use of the Democratic Party in California. However, he was short $10,000 and made a side trip to Las Vegas, Nevada to obtain additional $10,000.

Infor advises Crisman claims to be a doctor of psychology working with various higher-level state employees who have psychological problems.

matters - conscientious worker

Vol. 3 - Main Identification File

After work for State of Washington became pilot of Harold Dahl's plane. Dahl reputedly black marketeer during war. Dahl allegedly stole idea for beach patrol from Crisman and Crisman severed all ties with him.

On some occasions, exercises poor judgement. Opened account as H. A. West when having marital problems - overdrew account.

8/7/47 Dahl and Crisman signed statement that they had picked up strange rock formation and sent it to magazine editor for analysis. Dahl and Crisman said it was part of a flying disk (later admitted this to be false).

7/31-8/1  B-25 crashed, killed pilot and co-pilot.
Supposedly pilot and co-pilot had called Dahl and Crisman the preceding day.
