The attempts of the United States

Fidel Castro as well as other foreign leaders during the turbulent decade of the 1960's shocked and disgusted
the American citizens. When sources

II BACKGROUND MATERIAL - ~~RELEVANT~~ Summary

A. CIA - MAFIA PLOTS

The genesis of the utilization of the United States criminal syndicate by the CIA to attempt to assassinate Castro is placed by the 1967 Report of the Inspector General as occurring during a conversation between the Deputy Director of Plans, Richard Bissell, and the Director of Security, Colonel Sheffield Edwards⁽³⁾.

⁴ These plots extended from 1960 until early 1963 and can be divided into ^{two} ~~three~~ stages.⁽⁴⁾ The first stage occurred from August, 1960 until

April, 1961, and can best be Phase I or termed as "the pre-Bay of Pigs period.^⑤ From April, 1961 until late 1961 the CIA takes the position that the plots were dormant.^⑥

In late 1961 the CIA decided to CIA-MAFIA, thus creating Plan II, renew the A plots and kept them
 active until late 1962 or early 1963.^⑦

During the initial stage of Phase I Edwards assigned the proper
specific task of locating the proper persons to assassinate Castro to James "Big Jim" O'Connell, who was Chief of the Operational Support
Division of the Office of Security.^⑧ Both men agreed that O'Connell should contact +

~~Robert A. Mahan, whom the CIA previously~~

~~had previously used in several covert operations, to recruit the necessary personnel.~~

~~Mahan subsequently contacted Roselli, who in turn recruited two persons initially known to~~

O'Connell as "Sam Gold" and "Joe"
along with Mahan

O'Connell says he later discovered the true identities of these persons ~~as~~ to be Sam Giancana and Santo Trafficante, respectively.⁽¹²⁾

After meeting ~~and~~ several times
in Miami and deciding upon poison pills as the method of assassination, the 1967 IG Report contends that

Trappiste made the arrangements for ~~the~~ the assassination of Castro with one of his contacts inside Cuba or one of the trips he allegedly ~~had~~ ^{had} made to Havana, Cuba.⁽¹³⁾ This contact was Juan Orta, a Cuban official who held a position close to Castro.⁽¹⁴⁾

The "I G Report" then states that Roselli passed the pills to Trappiste.⁽¹⁵⁾ Roselli subsequently told O'Connell that the pills were delivered to Orta in Cuba.⁽¹⁶⁾ Orta apparently retained the pills for a few weeks and then returned them since he was unable to fulfill any plan.⁽¹⁷⁾ Orta was no longer in a position to kill.

Castro because he had lost his Cuban post.⁽¹⁸⁾

With Orta unable to perform the syndicate looked elsewhere. Roselli next told O'Connell, sometime during early 1961, that [REDACTED] Trappiste knew a man prominent in the Cuban exile movement job - DR.
who could accomplish the job. [REDACTED] DR.

Manuel Antonio de Verona y Loredo.⁽¹⁹⁾

After receiving [REDACTED] approval Trappiste approached Verona about assassinating Castro and reported that Verona was receptive.⁽²⁰⁾ The 1967 I&G report states that O'Connell again distributed pills which eventually reached Verona.⁽²¹⁾

[REDACTED] This activity concluded

the pre-Bay of Pigs phase of the plots.

The 1967 IGR does not document

any attempt to actually administer the plots to Castro.

The 1967 TOR relates that apparent Bissell
after a period of "dormancy" Bissell
in approximately November of 1961
directed William Harvey⁽²²⁾ to reactivate

the CIA-mafia plot.⁽²³⁾ O'Connell

therefore introduced Harvey to Roselli.⁽²⁴⁾

During this phase the CIA decided against using Giancana or Trappianti; ~~_____~~

~~_____~~ instead, a person referred to as "MACCO" entered the plot as the person who would ^{help} provide Cuban contacts.⁽²⁵⁾

In addition, the plot still utilized

the services of Antonio de Verona.⁽²⁶⁾

plots

(26)

Even though the ~~█████~~ no longer included Trappuante and Giancana.

the CIA ~~█████~~ admitted that Roselli most likely kept them informed.

The CIA noted in the 1967 IGR that

It would be naive to assume that Roselli did not take the precaution of informing higher-ups in the syndicate territory that he was working in a territory considered to be the private[domain] of someone else in the syndicate. "(27)"

In June of 1962 Roselli reported that to Harvey that Verona dispatched

a three man team into Cuba with the general assignment of recruiting others

to kill ~~█████~~ Castro, and, if the opportunity arose, to kill them themselves, maybe through the use of pills. ⁽²⁸⁾ In September of 1962

Roselli

[redacted] reported to [redacted] Harvey in

Miami that the "medicine" was reported in place, that the three man

team was safe, and that Verona

was prepared to [redacted] dispatch another three man team to infiltrate Castro's

bodyguard. ⁽²⁹⁾ In December, ~~of~~ 1962,

Roselli and Harvey agreed that not much

seemed to be occurring and by ~~in~~ February,

1963, Harvey terminated the plot. ⁽³⁰⁾

B. The Las Vegas Wiretap Incident

The 1967 ~~top~~ IGR also mentioned an event that occurred during Phase I of the CIA-mafia plots^A. On October 31, 1960, Las Vegas police arrested Arthur J. Balletti, an employee of a Florida investigator named Edmund DuBois, for placing an electronic bug in a hotel room in Las Vegas.⁽³¹⁾

Subsequent ~~an~~ investigation determined that Robert A. Makler ^{authorized} ~~had~~ the surveillance of the subject involved and that Makler probably acted on behalf of Gravina and the CIA.⁽³²⁾

[REDACTED] Attorney General Robert Kennedy [REDACTED] stated that a few days prior to

CIA that Robert A. Mahan had been hired by the CIA to approach Sam Giancana with a proposition of paying $150,000 to hire gunmen
to go into Cuba and kill Castro.
He further stated [REDACTED] CIA admitted having assisted Mahan in making the "bugging" installation in Las Vegas which uncovered this clandestine operation and for this reason [REDACTED] CIA could not afford to have any action taken against Giancana or Mahan. Mr. Kennedy stated that upon learning [REDACTED] CIA had not cleared its action
in hiring Mahan and Giancana
with the Department of Justice

he issued orders that the CIA should never again take such ~~extreme~~ steps without first checking with the Department of Justice.

Mr. Kennedy further advised that because of this matter it would be very difficult to initiate any prosecution against Granara, as Granara could immediately bring out the fact the United States Government had approached him to arrange for the assassination of Castro. He stated the same was true concerning any action he might take against Mafra for any violation in which he might become involved.

convicted Roselli for a violation of the interstate gambling laws.⁴²

E. ■ Debut of the Retaliation Theory

The genesis of this theory can be attributed to an interview ~~with~~ that Premier Castro held on September 7, 1963
with Associated Press reporter Daniel Harker. In that interview Castro warned against the United States
"aiding terrorists plane to eliminate Cuban leaders." He stated, according to Harker, that United States leaders would be in danger if they promoted any attempt to eliminate the leaders of Cuba.
Under James J. Rowley who is then notified the FBI. ⁽⁴⁵⁾ ██████████ Morgan

████████ informed the Committee that Roselli initially approached him complaining of excess FBI surveillance even

since he had been involved in the patriotic

Roselli also informed █████^{morgan} that Castro

wanted ^{to} ^{assassinating President} █████⁴⁶⁾ bad retaliated ^{for these plots by} after receiving this ^{Kennedy} █████⁽⁴⁶⁾

information the FBI decided not to further investigate the allegation. ⁽⁴⁷⁾ █████

Following the publication of the

Judd Anderson and Drew Pearson articles of March 3 and 7, 1967, however, where the █████ theory of retaliation first gained public notoriety, President Johnson ordered the FBI to investigate the matter. ⁽⁴⁸⁾ The FBI consequently █████ interviewed Edmund Morgan on March 20, 1967⁽⁴⁹⁾ Morgan informed the FBI that he represented clients that were responsible individuals who entered into a project that they understood to have high governmental backing and which involved the assassination of Fidel Castro.⁽⁵⁰⁾ Morgan then stated that his clients had reason to suspect that Castro learned of these plots and killed President Kennedy in retaliation.⁽⁵¹⁾

The SJC next relates that the FBI investigation resulting from President Johnson's acquired personal interest in the theory of retaliation and which prompted Helms to order the CIA report of 1967 Inspector General's Report.⁽⁵²⁾

The FBI investigation revealed in President Johnson acquiring a personal interest in the retaliation theory which prompted CIA Director Richard Helms to prepare a report on the assassination plots. (52)

These articles exhibited more detail, relating that several assassins made it to a rooftop before being apprehended within shooting distance of Castro, that this event occurred in late February or early March, 1963, that Robert Kennedy at least condoned the CIA-MAFIA plots, and that Roselli delivered poison pills to be used on Kelley Castro to a contact at the Miami Beach Fountainbleau Hotel on March 13, 1961. I. The Senate Select Committee To Study Governmental Operations with respect to Intelligence Activities.

In connection with its mandate to investigate the full range of governmental intelligence activities the SSC reviewed the performance of the intelligence agencies in conducting their investigation of the assassination and their relationship to the Warren Commission.⁽⁶¹⁾

In April, 1976, the SSC published its Final Report (Book II) which in essence faulted the CIA for its errors of omission in not informing the Warren Commission of the ~~CIA's~~ on-going plots against the revolutionary government in Cuba and its attempts or the life of the premier, Fidel Castro.

After reviewing the details of the CIA-mara plots the SSC stated that "Castro probably would not have been certain that the CIA was behind the underworld attempt" and it would have been that ~~it~~ ~~is~~ unlikely that Castro would have distinguished the CIA plots with any from ~~the~~ plots ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~underworld~~ ~~Community~~ ~~or~~ ~~any~~ ~~other~~ ~~entity~~ sponsored by the Cuban exile community and not affiliated in any way with the CIA.⁽⁶²⁾

The SSC identified the AMIAH operation, however, as being "clearly different" from the underworld plots.⁽⁶³⁾

The SSC stated that AMLASH was in progress at the time of the assassination, "could clearly be traced to the CIA, and that ~~the~~ ^{that it} ~~was~~

~~AMLAHSH~~ AMLASH's proposal for had been endorsed by the CIA a coup¹, the initial step being the assassination of Castro. ⁽⁶⁴⁾ The

SSC cautioned, however, that it saw "no evidence that Fidel Castro or others in the Cuban government plotted President Kennedy's assassination in retaliation for U.S. operations against Cuba." ⁽⁶⁵⁾

As related in the Introduction to this ~~material~~ material the SSC did not reach any conclusions because it believed additional investigation needed to occur. (66)

J. The CIA 1977 Inspector General Report (IGR).

Stung by the Senate criticism and the rippling effect that Book II

caused in the media, the CIA prepared a comprehensive report in 1977

designed to answer, at least within the CIA, the critical questions postulated in the SSC Final Report. ~~Even the~~

1977 IGR largely recognized ~~problems~~ the inadequacy of the CIA's narrow response to the Warren Commission's quest for all possible relevant information. The 1977 IGR acknowledged this in the following

Open with other page.

The 1977 IGR identified ~~this~~ as a principal theme of Book II as the possibility that Castro retaliated against the United States for attempts on his life and that the CIA operations may have specifically caused any such actions by Castro.^⑪ In responding to this theory the perform the following:

CIA decided to ~~investigate~~ ~~to assess~~:

- 1) to conduct a full review of information and operators on the Cuban target to identify any activity that might relate to the assassination of President Kennedy, and
- 2) to review the possibility that CIA activities against Cuba did, by their nature, cause Castro to order the assassination of President Kennedy. ^⑫

The thoroughly ~~the~~ details of the 1977 IGR are ~~fully~~ related in this material because ~~the~~ no source has previously publicly released them.

1. Syndicate Operations

Before analyzing the AMCLASH operations the CIA first related new considerations pertaining to the syndicate operations. The FBI refers to a series of articles^{written by Paul Moskill and} appearing in the New York Daily News in April, 1975. ~~1975~~
~~by Bill Crowley~~

From these articles of an ~~unpublished article from April 20~~

• ~~unpublished~~ moskill described how Frank Fiorini, now known as Sturgis, allegedly recruited Marie Torenz to spy on Castro⁽¹⁹²⁾ and how Sturgis knew planned to use him in Juan Orla and used Orla in planning to ~~but the~~ a bombing attempt assassination of Castro. ⁽¹⁹³⁾ Hugo claimed metall state asserted that Sturgis claimed he had been a fuel operator for the CIA for at least a decade and that Sturgis was in touch with all the casino operators in Havana during the period of the Castro takeover.

In another article on June 13, 1976, McMillan related the claim of Marie Lorey Lorenz that in the fall of 1960 Frank Sturgis, acting for the CIA, gave her two capsules of poison powder which she was to sprinkle in some food or drink of Castro.

The writers of the 1977 IGR were quite concerned with this assertion because Orta's name had ^{publicly} surfaced in connection with a Castro assassination plot before the ~~attempted~~ ~~of~~ ~~detain~~ SSC revelation of the CIA-organized crime plots and thus assignment to poison Castro given to the

the ~~and~~ ~~against~~ ~~the~~ ~~and~~ ~~by~~ "official"

close to Castro who may have received kickbacks

from the gambling interests." The possibility that Orta was involved in ^{assassination} than plots other ~~in~~ the

CIA operation ~~assassination~~ also attracted the attention of the CIA.

In reference to Sturgis' allegation that he had been a hired operator for the CIA for a decade the 1977 IGR asserted that

"he was in contact with some of the CIA Cuban employees in the Miami area, but had no direct relationships with the Agency." ⁽¹⁹⁷⁾

IGR ~~████~~

The ~~████~~ recognizes that Sturgis,

through Covens' his gambling activities and relationships
with various casino ~~operators~~ owners,
~~██████████~~ may quite possibly have known Orta, and █████ also raises the question of whether Sturgis may have been a source of information to Covens regarding Ortak's
participation in any assassination plot. ⁽¹⁹⁸⁾

In reference to the Lorey - Sturgis person kill █████ plot the 1977 FBI noted details in the
the similarity of this plot to the "18
October 1960" ⁽¹⁹⁹⁾

~~November 1960 FBI memo.~~ ~~██████████~~ ~~██████████~~

~~I also acknowledged that Veuna may have been involved in plot when he (1A
██████████ from ⁽²⁰⁰⁾~~

~~The joint Commission agreed~~

~~key the CIA concerning the three~~

~~Castro~~ (78) the plan allegedly involved the use of poison pills concealed in a jar of face cream; the plan failed because the pills dissolved. (79) The

FBI then mentions the October 18, 1960 FBI memorandum where Sam Giancana referred to the ~~assassination~~ of Castro, his knowledge of a plot to assassinate Castro involving a woman (80) who would drop a pill ~~in~~ some drink or food of Castro (80)

The CIA concluded that this October date is too early for the CIA therefore syndicate operations and that "the syndicate may (81) have been acting independently. (81) [redacted]

The CIA also concluded that Antonio de Verona, the Cuban exile leader active in the syndicate operations, may have already been active in plots with the Mafia when the CIA approached him. ⁽⁸²⁾ The CIA cited two FBI memorandum as support. First, a 21 December 1960 memorandum pertaining to underworld support for some Cubans, and second, a 18 January 1961 memorandum relating an unconfirmed report that Verona was one of the Cubans receiving support. ⁽⁸³⁾

The CIA further acknowledged that although ~~the~~ the operation suspended with the mafia was ~~attempted~~ after the Bay of Pigs it appeared to

-37a'

still be in progress when re-activated in April, 1962. (84)

The IGR summarized its sponsored position concerning non-CIA¹ syndicate operations in the following passage:

It is possible that CIA simply found itself involved in providing additional resources for independent operations that the syndicate already had underway... [I]n a sense CIA may have been piggy-backing on the syndicate and in addition to its material contributions was also supplying an aura of official sanction (85)

2. AMLASH

The IGR states the SSC ~~was~~ possibly suggests that AMLASH [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] a Castro agent assigned a provocation mission which would then justify relationship, or, in the alternative, that

AMLAH was a security risk through which details of the plotting may have surfaced to Castro thus providing the

additionally, [redacted]
[redacted]

opportunities for provocation. (86) [redacted] [redacted]

the IGR cites the SSC as holding that in either

Case

[redacted] AMLASH should have been reported to the Warren Commission. (P7)

contends

The IGR [redacted] neither theory is correct. (88) [redacted] stating that the relationship between the

CIA and AMLASH before the death of President Kennedy was so

"insubstantial and inconclusive that

it provided no basis [redacted] for AMLASH/

to feel that he had any tangible

CIA support for plotting against

Castro." ^(89.)

In support the IGR proceeds to narrate the Agency's understanding of the operation. On August 17, 1962, the case officer for AMASH reported that he "[has] no intention [of giving AMASH/] physical elimination mission as requirement but recognize this ~~as~~ [as] something he could or might try to carry out on his own initiative." ⁽⁹⁰⁾

Headquarters replied the next day, "Strongly concern that no physical elimination mission be given AMASH/". ⁽⁹¹⁾

On September 7, 1963 the CIA received the following cable:

From August 29, 1962 until September, 1963 the CIA ~~had~~ states it did not have any contact with AMASH.

AMLAASH still feels there only two ways accomplish change either inside job or invasion to realistic enough to realize latter out of question. According AMWHTP, AMLASH still awaiting for US several plan of action. ⁽⁹³⁾

The IGR notes that the SSC interpreted "inside job" as referring to an operation against Castro; the CIA, however, says it refers to a general commitment concerning how to effect change. ⁽⁹⁴⁾ The IGR also states that at this point Book II ~~is~~ says "characterization of this phase of the AMLASH operation is disputed." ^{"(95)} The CIA contends that any dispute only exists in the eyes of the SSC. ⁽⁹⁶⁾

The IGR next comments

on an interview of Castro by AP

reporter Daniel Harker in which

Castro said that anti-Castro terrorists

had the support of U.S. leaders.⁽⁹⁷⁾ The

IGR states that the ~~SS~~ Book II

implies that AMLASH/1, may have reported to Castro what the SSC

characterized as assassination plots.⁽⁹⁸⁾

The CIA response is that "Castro's

remarks at that time could not have

stemmed from anything said to AMLASH/1,

by CIA officers as they proposed nothing and undertook nothing."⁽⁹⁹⁾

On October 11, 1963 the case officer called headquarters and said that AMLASH/1, claimed to have the necessary people and equipment to overthrow Castro without ~~the~~

U.S. assistance.⁽¹⁰⁰⁾ On October 29, 1963

Desmond Fitzgerald met AMLASH/1,

in []⁽⁰¹⁾ At this meeting the CIA maintained seen that Fitzgerald rejected AMLASH's request for an assassin~~ratio~~ weapon,

specifically, a high powered rifle

with a telescopic lens.⁽¹⁰²⁾ The CIA contends that at this point it was clear that AMLASH was informed that there would be no U.S. assistance

until after the fact which is contrary to the SSC statement in Book II

to the effect that it was uncertain

how AMLASH interpreted the put-off

by Fitzgerald. (103)

On November 19, 1963, Fitzgerald approved informing AMIAH⁽¹⁰⁶⁾ that he would be given a cache inside
Cuba and that a high-powered rifle with a scope would be included upon request. (104) On November 20 ~~AMIAH~~ the case officer informed AMIAH that he ~~not~~ would be receiving the meeting he requested.
↓ (105)

The IGR ~~admitted~~ summarized the significance of their contacts with ~~dissemination of the American operation~~ AMIAH as related to the contentions in Book II in the following passage:

This meeting occurred on November 22.

Whatever the relationship with AMLASH/¹ following the death of President Kennedy, there is every indication that during President Kennedy's life AMLASH/¹, had no basis for believing that he had CIA support for much of anything. Were he a provocateur reporting to Castro, or if he was merely careless and leaked what he knew, he had no factual basis for leaking or reporting any actual CIA plot directed against Castro.¹⁰²

he has no basis for believing that he had CIA support for much of anything.

he has no basis for believing that he had CIA support for much of anything.

he has no basis for believing that he had CIA support for much of anything.

he has no basis for believing that he had CIA support for much of anything.

he has no basis for believing that he had CIA support for much of anything.

Finally, ~~as~~ in reply to the SSC allegation that the CIA ~~had~~ inadequately responded to the Warren Commission's request for all possible relevant information, the IGR observed:

While we can understand today why the Warren Commission limited its inquiry to normal avenues of investigation, it could have served to re-inforce the credibility of its effort had it taken a broader view of the matter. CIA, too, could have considered in specific terms what most saw in general terms -- the possibility of Soviet or Cuban involvement in the assassination (JFK) because of tensions of the time. . . . The Agency should have taken broader initiatives, then, as well." ⁽⁷⁾

Behind John F. Kennedy's Murder

Mafia mobster John Roselli may have taken the secret of the John F. Kennedy assassination with him to his death. He was brutally murdered a few weeks ago, his hacked-up body stuffed into an oil drum and dumped into Miami's Biscayne Bay.

Before he died, Roselli hinted to associates that he knew who had arranged President Kennedy's murder. It was the same conspirators, he suggested, whom he had recruited earlier to kill Cuban Premier Fidel Castro.

By Roselli's cryptic account, Castro learned the identity of the underworld contacts in Havana who had been trying to knock him off. He believed, not altogether without basis, that President Kennedy was behind the plot.

The Cuban leader, as the supreme irony, decided to turn the tables and use the same crowd to arrange Kennedy's assassination, according to Roselli's scenario. To save their skins, the plotters lined up Lee Harvey Oswald to pull the trigger.

Roselli could never be pinned down on names or details. It was also difficult to assess whether he knew what he was talking about or whether he merely described what he thought might have happened. Certainly there

They were under the loose control of Florida's Mafia chieftain, Santos Trafficante. His gambling enterprises in Havana had been closed down by Castro after the 1959 revolution. In fact, Trafficante had been lodged for a period in a Cuban jail, an indignity that didn't endear Castro to him.

After Trafficante made it back to his Florida haunts, he left part of his organization behind in Havana. Some of his henchmen even managed to develop contacts in Castro's inner circle. These were the people Roselli wanted to use to knock off Castro.

But Roselli didn't have the stature inside the Mafia to make the necessary arrangements with Trafficante. So Roselli called in his patron, the Chicago godfather Sam (Momo) Giancana, to deal with Trafficante.

As Roselli's associates tell it, he persuaded Giancana that it would be to their advantage to win the good will of the CIA. Convinced, Giancana flew down to Florida to make the preliminary arrangements.

Once Giancana and Trafficante set it up, Roselli used the Havana underworld to plot Castro's demise. At first, they tried to plant poison pills, supplied by the CIA, in Castro's food. The

In an impromptu, three-hour interview with Associated Press reporter Daniel Harker, Castro indicated that he knew about the attempts on his life and warned that U.S. leaders also might not be safe. That was Sept. 7, 1963.

According to Roselli, Castro enlisted the same underworld elements whom he had caught plotting against him. They supposedly were Cubans from the old Trafficante organization. Working with Cuban intelligence, they allegedly lined up an ex-Marine sharpshooter, Lee Harvey Oswald, who had been active in the pro-Castro movement.

According to Roselli's version, Oswald may have shot Kennedy or may have acted as a decoy while others ambushed him from closer range. When Oswald was picked up, Roselli suggested, the underworld conspirators feared he would crack and disclose information that might lead to them. This almost certainly would have brought a massive U.S. crackdown on the Mafia.

So Jack Ruby was ordered to eliminate Oswald, making it appear as an act of reprisal against the President's

In an affidavit to the Committee

Tangosch recalled that:

[T]he AMLOSH operation prior to the assassination of President

the Special Affairs Staff, Desmond Fitzgerald (sic) and other senior CIA officers as an assassination operation initiated and sponsored by the CIA. 108E

Tangosch further recollects that as of 1962 it was highly possible that the Cuban Intelligence Services were aware of AMLOSH and his association with the CIA and that the information upon which he based his conclusion that the ANLASH operation was insecure was available to senior level CIA officials, including

Desmond Fitzgerald. ~~██████████~~ 108F

In response to Langosch's sworn statements, this Committee received (CIA pseudonym) the affidavit of Kent L. Pollock from the CIA. Pollock "served as Executive Officer for Desmond Fitzgerald during the entire period in which he was Chief of the Special Affairs Staff -- and discussed with him the ANLASH operation as it progressed." Pollock specifically contested the assertions of Langosch stating:

To the best of my knowledge, Mr. FitzGerald considered the AMILASH operation to be a political action activity with the objective of organizing a group within Cuba to overthrow Castro and the Castro regime by means of a coup de'etat. I heard Mr. Fitz Gerald discuss the AMILASH operation frequently, and never heard him characterize it as an assassination operation.

Mr. FitzGerald stated in his hearing several occasions his awareness that coup de'etat often involves loss of life. 108g

He also stated:

Desmond FitzGerald did not characterize the AMILASH operation as an assassination operation'; the case officer did not; I, as Executive Officer did not; never discussed any aspect of the AMILASH operation with Joseph H. Langosch; the Deputy Chief, the other branch chief and the special assistants could not have so characterized it since they did not know about the pen (the pen was specially filled with a hypodermic syringe in response to urging by AMILASH for a means to start the coup by killing Castro.) The CIA offices offered the pen to AMILASH on the day of President Kennedy's death. AMILASH rejected the pen with disdain.

An interview

The reasons supporting this contention

~~are~~

In his interview with the Committee Premier Castro ~~stated~~ set forth some

~~but adder
are anti-Castro~~ reasons supporting this contention. ~~by~~ reasoning

The Committee agrees with the ~~by~~ in his statements. Castro said in part:

In response to the allegation that the Cuban government orchestrated the assassination Castro ~~for~~ ~~stated~~ said:

That was insane. From the ideological point of view it was insane. And from the political point of view, it was a tremendous insanity. I am going to tell you here that nobody, nobody ever had the idea of such things. What would it do?

We just tried to defend our folks here, within our territory. ~~Nobody~~ Anyone who subscribed to that idea would have been judged insane... absolutely sick. Never, in twenty years of revolution, I never heard anyone suggest nor ever speculate about a measure of that sort, because who could think of the idea of organizing the death of the President of the United States. That would have been the most perfect protest for the United States to make our country which is what I have tried to prevent for all these years, in every possible sense. Since the United States is much more powerful than we are, what could we gain from a war with the United States? The United States would lose nothing. The destruction would have been here.

Castro also added:

I want to tell you that the death of the leader does not change the system. It has never done that.

(b) (5) 60'

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ In this interview

Castro also commented on the speech of September 7, 1963

which has been ~~REDACTED~~

cited throughout the years as an indication that Castro may have assassinated President Kennedy in retaliation. Premier Castro asserted:

So, I said something like those plots start to set a very bad precedent, a very serious one -- that that could become a boomerang against the authors of those actions ... but I did not mean to threaten by that. I did not mean ever that, not in the least .. but rather, like a warning that we knew, that we had news about it; and that to set those precedents of plotting the assassinations of leaders of other countries would be a very bad precedent ... something very negative. And, at present, the same would happen under (the same circumstance, I would have no doubt in saying the same as I said (then) because I didn't mean a threat

by ~~it~~ that. I didn't say it as a threat. I did not mean by that that we were going to take measures - similar measures - like a relaxation for that. We never meant that because we knew that there were plots.
For three years we had known
there were plots against us.
So, the conversation came about very casually, you know, but I would say that all these plots or attempts were part of the everyday life.

~~Assassinate Castro~~

Some reasoning, which Committee cautions is speculative, maybe
of some assistance here:

! It does not seem likely that Castro
would make a veiled reference to assassinating American leaders in relaxation for

plots in his life if he was actually contemplating planning such ~~an~~ acts. He would want as possible

to call as little attention to himself

~~as possible~~. Rather, it seems Castro was attempting to display his public and knowledge of dismay ~~at~~ such attempts in an effort to prevent their continuance.

Consequently, ~~in the manner~~ together with an absence of any other evidence implicating Castro in the assassination,

~~the Committee believes that this incident~~ ~~is not significant~~
the Committee believes that this incident, ~~is not significant~~

while displaying Castro's displeasure at American activities, ~~is not significant~~ ~~but~~ does not ~~implicate~~

~~assassination~~.

(32) 63

~~Castro offered no reason for not assassinating~~

~~President Kennedy, the Committee believes,~~

The Committee believes there are ~~other~~ additional reasons to discount any movement of Castro in which are also compelling.

The assassination ~~contributes to the~~
The Committee cautions that these reasons, while ~~persuasive~~, are still necessarily ~~Castro offered~~ speculative.

First, William Atwood, Special Adviser to the United States Delegation to the United Nations, was involved in diplomatic efforts to establish a framework for detente' during the fall of 1963. Atwood told the SSC that McGeorge Bundy, an advisor to President
Kennedy, told him that President

P¹⁷³
SIR

- 64 -

Kennedy was in favor of "pushing towards

"an opening ~~with~~ towards Cuba" to take

Castro "out of the Soviet fold and perhaps wiping out the Bay of Pigs and maybe getting back to normal!" Atwood

also arranged for a French journalist,

Jean Daniel to meet with Kennedy

prior to a scheduled trip by Daniel to see Castro. Daniel and Kennedy

[discussed the prospect for reestablishing

United States-Cuba relations and Kennedy

asked Daniel to see him after visiting Castro.

The Committee believes that such efforts to establish a peaceful

co-existence between the United States hampered

and Cuba would have ~~affected~~ any desire by Castro to assassinate Kennedy.

Second, the Committee also believes that among the ~~of all the~~ United States leaders of the United States President Kennedy ~~had~~ supported a less hostile attitude and position toward Cuba. Thus, ^{(P) - skip 4 spaces} renewed diplomatic relations much the prospects of ~~detente~~ in the air and the knowledge that Kennedy possessed a more ~~more~~ favorable attitude toward Cuba than other military or political leaders, Castro would have had ^{every} reason to hope that Kennedy maintained the Presidency. Even if Castro felt ~~conditions were bad with~~ United States were bad under the Kennedy Presidency, there ^{were legitimate} reasons to suspect they would have been worse under any other administration.

66-

Further, the Committee do not believe that eliminating Kennedy would necessarily have altered the United States' operations and less toward Cuba. In addition, the Committee does not believe Castro would have ~~acted~~ given the United States the ~~occasion to~~ ~~no~~ destroy Cuba. If assassinated President Kennedy became such an act, if discovered, would have afforded the United States the excuse to destroy Cuba. The risk would not have been worth it.

B. Issues Pertaining to the CIA-Organized Crime Plots

1. Scope and Nature of Plots - Analysis

~~Scope and Nature of Plots - Analysis~~

a) Roselli Knowledge of CIA Sponsorship

James O'Connell [redacted] informed the Committee that Maceu told Roselli he represented an international group of dealers [redacted] who had a vested interest in Cuba.⁽¹⁰⁹⁾ Roselli, however, testified to the SSC that Maceu told him from the beginning that O'Connell was with the CIA.⁽¹¹⁰⁾ Maceu confirmed this account to the SSC.⁽¹¹¹⁾ Maceu also stated in a deposition to the Committee that Graciana knew at the time that O'Connell was with the CIA.⁽¹¹²⁾ Trappante testified to the Committee that Roselli informed him that he, Roselli, was operating as an agent of the CIA.⁽¹¹³⁾

The weight of the evidence indicates that Roselli, and thus Graciana and Trappante, knew the CIA was behind the assassination plots. [redacted] at ~~recognition of CIA plots~~ an early stage. This recognition of CIA initiation is important because shows that introduced them to O'Connell as

"Sam Gold" and "Joe".⁽¹⁴⁾ ~~He [REDACTED]~~

~~O'Connell~~ ~~said~~ that O'Connell claims he learned the true identities of the operation was in progress when he ~~as~~ Maher saw an article in one of the Sunday sections of the Miami newspaper. ⁽¹¹⁵⁾ ~~that~~

This article supposedly pertained to Organized crime in the United States and ~~it~~ contained pictures of top hoodlums, including Sam Giancana and Santo Trafficante. ⁽¹¹⁶⁾ In the 1967 IGR O'Connell stated that the article came ^{the in the Miami Times} ~~to~~ Parade magazine. ⁽¹¹⁷⁾ Maher ^{also} contends ~~that~~ that he did not know the true identities of Sam
Gold and Joe until this article appeared. ⁽¹¹⁸⁾

The ~~SSC requested for conducted~~
~~a search of supplements to all Miami~~

~~The day~~ O'Connell ^{also} stated ^{that} ~~that after~~ this incident
the CIA occurred after the ~~CIA was~~ "we were

consequently the CIA decided to progress forward. (119)

The SBC ~~searched for~~ conducted a search of supplements to all main newspapers for the requisite time period and could not locate any such article. (120) The Committee consequently searched Parade magazine for the fall of 1960, all of 1961, and all of 1962, the years which spanned the entire operation. ~~They~~ The Committee learned that on January 21, 1962, Parade

published an article entitled, "Our government's crackdown on organized crime," written by Jack Anderson, which contains [redacted] a listing of the top ten hoodlums [redacted] of mobsters, in the country as well as several [redacted] photographs, including [redacted] Santo Trafficante⁽¹²¹⁾. The article [redacted] focuses on the efforts of Attorney General Robert Kennedy's campaign against organized crime and mentions both Giancana and Trafficante.

Although this Parade article appears [redacted]
[redacted]
[redacted] a year prior to [redacted] O'Connell and Mahan, correspond with [redacted] description,
it is over one year past the beginning
[redacted]
[redacted] [redacted] months of their operation.

nine months

Indeed, it occurs ~~approximately~~ after the completion of Phase I of the plots. Additionally, neither the SSC nor the Committee has discovered any other article pertaining to organized crime in Parade magazine or the supplements of any Miami newspaper for the alleged time period.

It appears O'Connell and Maher are lying in an attempt to look for an ex post facto reason for continuing the operation after the introduction of two of the top ~~mafia~~ organized crime figures in the United States. Implicit in their contention is that while the CIA wished to solicit criminal ~~organized~~ sources to assassinate Castro

it would not knowingly have recruited [redacted]

[redacted] of organized
any figures from the top echelon of crime. (122a)

Additionally, O'Connell's statement that

"we were up to our ears in it" is even more difficult to fathom since the operation

[redacted] according to the 1967 IGR the

in the fall of 1960

[redacted] operation was in its embryonic stage

and no pills were even delivered until approximately February or March of 1961.

Without additional support the Committee does not believe the

[redacted] contents of Maher and O'Connell, [redacted]

thus CIA

[redacted] plot to assassinate Castro

was necessarily a highly volatile and secret operation. Once Roselli introduced additional contacts into the scene it is not logical that the CIA would have refrained to verify the identities of [redacted]

~~and~~ ~~now exactly who they were~~

~~dealing with conspiring with~~ ~~the~~

[redacted] such principals. On the contrary, it is more believable and more

~~likely~~ probable that the CIA ascertained

the true identities of "Sam Gold" and "Joe"

at an early stage and consciously

progressed forward in the operation

confident that these two persons, in the words ~~as~~ attributed to Colonel

Sheffield Edwards, were individuals

"tough enough" to handle the job. 122

c) Roles of Principals

i) Phase One

• ~~Loselli~~

Colonel Sheffield Edwards assigned O'Connell the task of finding someone to assassinate Castro. ⁽¹²³⁾ ~~After several~~

Edwards & O'Connell both decided to use Loselli as someone to recruit persons to evaluate the operation. ⁽¹²⁴⁾

O'Connell also described his role as the liaison to the CIA and ~~and~~ confirmed that all reports on information would proceed through him to the Agency. ⁽¹²⁵⁾ In addition, O'Connell said he acted as a "babysitter" to

Loselli; that is, remaining with him to occupy his time to ensure that

Loselli was fulfilling his role. ⁽¹²⁶⁾ During Phase II of the plots ~~the William Harvey assumed~~ O'Connell's position who was assigned ~~another~~. ⁽¹²⁶⁾

There is a discrepancy over who suggested Roselli for the operation, but in any event, he was recruited because he had connections with persons who could handle the assignment.

Conflict arises over the role of Gracanica. Roselli informed the SSC that Gracanica was only a "back-up" man. It should be noted that man. (129) ~~Gracanica~~ Gracanica was murdered four days before Roselli made this statement. Makhov, however, described Gracanica as having a key role and characterized his job as "to locate someone in Castro's entourage who could accomplish the assassination."

Joseph Shimor, a close friend of Roselli

who had knowledge of the plot at the time, ~~referred~~ he stated that

Roselli contacted Giancana

to provide Cuban contacts. ⁽¹³¹⁾ Shimon further characterized Giancana as only providing contacts, specifically Santo Trafficante,

and not as an active participant. ⁽¹³²⁾

The role of Trafficante, the only living municipal organized crime

major source of conflict.

his superior, Gracana, who would then ~~make the decision~~ make any

~~and recruiting Cuban~~

The role of Trappante, the only living major organized crime figure involved in the plot, is a major source of conflict. The 1967 IGR contains several references to Trappante which characterize his function. In discussing how ~~the~~ poison pills could be given to Castro it states that "Trappante ('loc, the courier') was in touch with a disaffected Cuban official with access to Castro and presumably of a sort that would enable him to surreptitiously

passon Castro." ⁽¹³⁴⁾ Later the report states that "Roselli passed the pills to Trappicante"

and that "Roselli reported to O'Connell

that the pills had been delivered to

Orta in Cuba." ⁽¹³⁵⁾ After Orta lost

his position in the Cuban government and could no longer pass any pills the FOR

says "Roselli told O'Connell that

Trappicante knew of a man high up in the Cuban exile movement who might do the job." ⁽¹³⁶⁾ Roselli identified

him as Antonio de Verona. ⁽³⁷⁾ ~~Devera~~

~~All reliable info~~

Trappicante's role:

Trafficante approached Verona and told him that he had clients who wanted to do away with Castro and that they would pay big money for the job. Verona is reported to have been very receptive, since it would mean that he would be able to buy his own ships, arms, ~~etc~~ and communications equipment. (138)

~~Official inquiry of the Committee~~

Trafficante testified in public that ~~he~~ informed [redacted]

to the Committee that Roselli asked him ^{solely}

In his Senate testimony Roselli confirmed ~~that~~

role as a translator. []

O'Connell, however, informed the Committee that Trappicante was the person in contact with Cubans in Havana. (43)

Gramana partially confirmed this ~~as~~ in the 1967 [] or ~~as~~ by identifying Joe a man "who would serve as a courier
to Cuba and make arrangements there." (44a)

O'Connell also confirmed that he was the only CIA conduit and that if the 1967
TDR states Trappicante [] controlled or procured the assassins then it accurately reflects the information the CIA received. (44)

It is interesting ~~to~~ that the 1975 and 1978 Congressional testimony of Roselli and Trappante corroborate each other but remain contrary to the facts ~~as~~ the principals reported the facts in ~~the~~ 1967. ~~The~~ ~~whole~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ evidence ^{simply} indicates that Trappante was not merely an interpreter but an integral part of the active participant in passing the poison pills and in recruiting the potential assassins. This is important in dramatizing the deep involvement of organized crime with the CIA in these plots. One can understand why Trappante today wishes to downplay his role; the facts, however, simply do

NOT support his assertions. ~~are only malindict~~

Cuba in late February or early

March, 1961. (148)

Joseph Shriman informed the Committee that he and Maher travelled together to Miami to the Fontainebleau in ~~mid~~ March, 1961, to witness the Patterson - ~~Johansson~~ Johansson fight. (149)

Once there Maher informed him of the plot to assassinate Castro. (150) Shriman also says he attended a meeting that during this trip he attended a meeting where a poisonous liquid to be used in the assassination was passed. (151)

~~Shriman's version probably~~ Shriman is probably the source for Anderson's ^{source} full Anderson's column of January, 19,

1971, which fixes the date of the passage of the poison at the Fuerabuena
as March, 13, 1961.

In any event, it appears certain the CIA [redacted] did not possess any that [redacted] plots, poison, or assassination weapons before February of 1961. The full segment of the plots only constituted a planning stage; no one undertook any operational activities.

E) LOCATION OF TRAFFUANTE

To support the description of Trafuante as a conman the 1967 IGR states that "last that time the gambling casinos were still operating in Cuba, and Trafuante was making regular trips between Miami and

Havana on syndicate business" (152)

The Committee has obtained some evidence

[redacted] which [redacted] indicates that Trappante was ^{not} travelling to Cuba

during this period. No records available to the Committee from INS,

State Department, or the FBI

reflect any travel after February, 1960,

During this time

[redacted] the FBI maintained physical surveillance on Trappante during this period (53) Trappante stated before the Committee that he only made two trips to Cuba after his release

the Tresconia prison

from [redacted] in August, 1959, and that these trips occurred within two to three months of this release (154)

considering Traffante's reputed top position in the LA COSA NOSTRA,

Additionally, it seems more reasonable

that Traffante would send a representative to Cuba to conduct any business rather than risk being detained by Castro again.

If Traffante was actually travelling between Miami and Havana the implications are interesting. He was either willing to risk being detained again or had ~~had~~ acquired assurance from the Cuban government regarding his safety.

In any event the presence of Traffante
during ~~the~~ the fall of 1960 in Cuba raises the possibility of a closer relationship between him and

~~the~~ the Cuban government than previously believed. Such a relationship

during the period when Traffante

was scheming to assassinate Castro write the theory that Trappiste was possibly informing the Cuban government of activities in the Miami area "general and ~~the~~ ^{of} the plots in particular.

In return for such information Trappiste ^{had acquired} needed could ~~any~~ lost gambling

smuggling of contraband into the United States. The Committee realizes the enormous ramifications of such a theory and cautions that it has not received [any] information or evidence in this regard. In addition, the ~~available~~ available evidence

evaluates Trappante was not ~~possibly~~ travelling between Miami and Havana although the Committee recognises that Trappante could ~~to~~ make ~~such~~ such trips and not disrupt his ~~was~~ normal routine in Miami and Tampa thus possibly undermining the effect of any surveillance.

F) Verona's Other Contacts

As previously related the FBI forwarded to the CIA a memorandum on 21 December 1960 reporting that U.S. racketeers were making efforts to finance anti-Castro activities and subsequently forwarded another memorandum

on 18 January 1961 which associated Verona with those schemes. ⁽¹⁵⁵⁾

At the time of his introduction

~~into the plots~~

~~He was allowed~~

Other sources were also providing assistance to Verona to conduct anti-Castro operations. At the time of his induction into the CIA-organized crime plots the CIA was funding Verona through the Revolutionary Democratic Front and the Cuban Revolutionary Council. ⁽¹⁵⁶⁾ Verona informed the Committee that the purpose of the Council stemmed from an agreement with the American government to invade Cuba and establish democratic control of the island. (157)

Adding to the support for Kerma were the promotional efforts of Dino and Eddie Cellini ^{reportedly} who were working through a Washington, D.C. public relations firm, Edward K. Moss and Associates. Moss had previous CIA associations and was supposedly acting as a conduit for funds supplied by the Cellini brothers with the understanding that this group would receive privileged treatment in the Cuba of the future. (158)

In his testimony before the Committee Verona also described a meeting at the home of ~~me~~ Lansky's home in Miami in the summer of 1960.⁽¹⁵⁹⁾ Lansky said he had business interests in Cuba and wanted to help the Cubans fight Castro, destroy Castro, and buy and establish a democratic government.⁽¹⁶⁰⁾

The logical inference to be drawn from ~~all~~ this is that the CIA, organized crime, and other persons interested in removing the Castro regime all settled ~~out~~ upon de Verona, probably independently.

as a person who had the potential of uniting the multitude of exile groups to overthrow Castro. Additionally, Verma's reported contacts with Organized crime raises the possibility that he was involved with them in a plot to kill Castro before the evolution of the CIA - organized crime plots. If this was the case then Trappante's recruitment of Verma into the CIA operation would result in providing official U.S. sanction to an already existing independent operation. The CIA recognized this in stating "it is possible that Verma already was involved in independent

G) Introduction of "JOE" and "GOLD" and Related Events

~~the timing of the introduction of Granma ("gold") and Trafalgar ("joe") is important to the analysis of the true role of organized crime in the Castro assassination attempts.~~

This introduction, together with other related events, further suggests the thesis that the CIA found itself involved in providing additional resources for independent operation that the syndicate already had commenced.

According to the 1967 IGR, the entrance of Grana and Roselli occurred during the week of September 25, 1960. (162) H

In contrast, the SSC did not assign a ~~too~~ precise date for their entrance because of conflicting evidence between the 1967 IGR and Mahan's Senate testimony which set the date after November, 1960. (163) The SSC did conclude, however, that Grana was involved in the operation ^{during} = October because of the Las Vegas wiretap incident which occurred on October 30, and because of the October 18, 1960 FBI memorandum which revealed Grana had told several people of ~~a plot against Castro~~ to assassinate Castro. (164)

although these two events ~~edit~~
~~by the 686~~ which the SC C cites ~~may~~ ^{may} ~~to~~ support the involvement of Giaccone during October they also ~~██████████~~ ~~██████████~~ invite speculation of independent organized crime operations. The October 18, 1960, FBI memorandum is particularly applicable
~~██████████~~. This states:

[D]uring a recent conversation with several friends, Giaccone stated that Fidel Castro was to be done away with shortly - said it would occur in November. Moreover, Giaccone said he had already met with the would-be assassin on three occasions, the last meeting taking place on a boat docked
at the Fontainebleau Hotel, Miami Beach.
Giaccone stated everything had been perfected for killing Castro and that the assassin had arranged with a

it appears that ~~the~~ organized crime had already had its poison plan in progress, using a weakness of Castro, to accomplish the deed, when the CIA fortuitously entered the scene.

Organized crime then occupied a perfect position. If their private plot ~~succeeded~~ they ^{would} possess ~~of~~

far-reaching blackmail potential against the CIA which they could exercise at an opportune moment. If their intelligie failed, however, they could government.

H) ■ Richard CAIN

The "assassin" that Giancana refers to in the October 18 memo may have been Richard Scallietti Cain.

Cain, in connection with the Top Echelon

Cain's superiors dismissed him from

First,

[redacted] Cain maintained a [redacted] record of voluntarily providing information to the CIA [redacted] concerning his foreign ventures, a practice Granara may have promoted in an effort to gain possible leverage with the CIA. In a [redacted] CIA memorandum to the FBI dated 4 November 1960 in his first contact with the CIA:

Cain supplied the following information:

- 3) That in 1959, Constantino Kangas, a former attorney ^Q for the Cuban 26th of July movement, inquired ~~with~~ whether Cain would instruct ¹⁶⁹ Castro Army officers ¹⁷³ in the use of polygraphs.

Second, ^{ON} November², 1960, a confidential informant tells the Bureau that on October 20, 1960, Sergio Montijo, the former head of the July 26th movement in Chicago, met Richard S. Cain in the office of Constantine Kangles, the former attorney in Chicago for the Cuban 26th of July Movement and former counsel in the United States for the Cuban Government headed by Fidel Castro. ⁽¹⁷⁴⁾ Cain indicated to Kangles that he had clients who wished to get news stories and photographs out of Cuba concerning rebel activity in the Cuban foothills. ⁽¹⁷⁵⁾ Cain further indicated that he ~~wanted~~ wished to cover this story and was soon going to Miami.

in an attempt to enter Cuba, and that Jack Matley, a Chicago columnist, and Bob Ayman of Life magazine, had knowledge of his venture. (16)

Third, on November 2, 1960, the FBI interviewed Cain in Miami at the Sands Hotel, Miami Beach. (17) Cain said he was a representative of Accurate Detection and sixty-four other newspapers. After providing information on the military

more suspicious.

These events can be interpreted to indicate that Cain may have been the "assassin - to - be" whom Giacomo referred to in the 18 October 1960 FBI memorandum, or he may have been the contact man for the operation.

Mahan denied this. O'Connell, the

The committee was not satisfied with the status of surveillance.

Despite their desire, the evidence

~~attempts~~

and influences supported the conclusion

that Makell had asked for Thompson to conduct surveillance on him and his activities, but the committee concluded that Makell had no other purpose than to protect himself from the surveillance.

Makell informed the Committee that he instigated

the surveillance to pacify Grancara's concerns that Phyllis McGuire was having an affair with Dan Rowan and to Assuming that Maher did provide most likely for Harrison he ~~all probability~~ did at the request of so ~~for~~ someone else. Maher did not have any reason to independently prefer one person over another; The CIA [redacted] or Giancana, however, did have such a personal interest. I) ① The "girl" in the 18 October 1960 memorandum.

In this memo Gracana spoke of a girl ~~was mentioned to Castro who~~ who ~~were~~ were going to drop a pill in some food or drink of Castro. This format is again "... contradiction to the CIA operations which initially relied on Jesus Orta, a secretary in Castro's prime ministry, to administer the pill.

The identity of this 'girl' referred to by Gracana has not been ascertained but it is reasonable to assume that Trappiste [REDACTED] was [REDACTED] in the prime position to recruit a mistress of Castro because of his numerous contacts in the Cuban gambling and prostitution circles. (Consequently)

American gamblers routinely maintained Cuban mistresses and Trappante was a typical example. A witness also informed the Committee that Castro customarily arrived at the Nacional Hotel unescorted to visit one of his paramours. This indicates that it may have been relatively easy for Trappante to have arranged for a young woman to serve Castro and to attempt to poison him. Consequently, the use of a girl is quite logical and further supports the involvement of organized crime in an independent plot to kill Castro.

3) Articles on Frank Sturgis

As indicated in section II.

Paul Moskoff of the New York Daily News

concerning activities of Frank Sturgis.

These articles further ~~reflect~~ reflect the Theory that organized crime was involved in independent ~~and~~ ^{of} Castro

consequently

The Committee agrees ~~not~~ with the CIA assertion that the Agency

"may have been piggy-backing on the

~~according to this theory the~~

~~Consideration has been given to the following~~

~~considerations~~

The following consideration ~~are~~ from the theory and more ~~fully~~ thoroughly regard to the allegations in the Meekill articles.

First, Organized crime probably initiated independent assassination plots against Castro prior to any CIA involvement in late 1960. ~~This~~ Such plots may have been in progress when the CIA reactivated its plans to kill Castro in April, 1962.

Second, organized crime could quite possibly have been conducting activities such as those described in the New York

Daily News article.

Third, Frank Sturgis most probably established contacts with organized crime through his gambling associations and probably was used by them in some capacity. This does not imply that he was a member of organized crime.

Fourth, Frank Sturgis probably knew Orta and could have been involved with him in an assassination plot. Since Sturgis is not a reliable source, however, his allegations are suspect.

K) Implications | Phase Two of the Operation

Significant differences are apparent between Phase One and Phase Two which reflect ^{upon} ~~the~~ organized crime's motivation and seriousness in fulfilling its part of the bargain originally indicated in 1960.

First, in Phase One, Roselli and his colleagues demonstrated their ability to execute the contract on Castro by naming their source who was, indeed, in a position close to Castro. In Phase Two the modus operandi and the ability of the assassin or assassins becomes quite vague. Harvey reported that Vassour had an asset in Cuba who had ~~been~~ to someone in a restaurant which Castro frequented who could administer the poison.⁽²⁰¹⁾

In June 1962 Roselli reported to Harvey

that Verona had despatched a three man

team to Cuba to recruit persons to Kill Castro, or to kill him themselves, maybe with poison pills, if the opportunity arose.⁽²⁰²⁾

Harvey said they had no specific plans.⁽²⁰³⁾

Second, as already indicated, the cast of the organized figures involved changed.

Marek, Gramana, and Trappante

allegedly retired from the scene, with a "Macco" assuming the position of Roselli⁺

Trappante. Verona remained. As the

The Committee agrees with the CIA that their figures, at least Trappmann and Gronau, were kept informed of the progress of the plots.

What is puzzling is the introduction of a person simply referred to as "Marco"
into a highly sensitive and covert CIA operation without any apparent attempt by the CIA to check his background or ascertain his identity.
It seems ~~unbelievable~~ extra ordinary ~~now~~ that the CIA would propel the

Indeed, it seems more logical that at least Ponelli

and for whatever reason decided to withhold this information.

A related issue is whether "phases" actually existed or whether the operations to kill Castro encompassed ~~are~~ a continuous time period. As indicated previously, it was believed the CIA maintained that the plot was dormant from the Bay of Pigs until Harney assumed direction in the spring of 1962. Both Harney and O'Connell stated, however, that ~~they~~ took Harney "tools over a going operation." ~~The exact details of what this ongoing operation entailed has not been divulged,~~ Considering that Roselli was able to immediately mobilize his forces in 1962 in response to Harney's request and that this

1967 IGR characterizes Macco as Roselli's man, it is more probable that Trappiante, who had recruited all the Cuban personnel previously used in the attempts and who maintained the most complete network of Cuban allies in Miami and Cuba, provided this individual. to posit the ~~single~~ theory that organized crime was not seriously

~~Despite the~~ Consequently, while the United States government, specifically the CIA, still possessed a viable interest in assassinating Castro, organized crime did not.

Despite these reasons to discontinue attempts to kill Castro, organized crime still had a strong incentive to strong the CIA along. This incentive, specifically, this incentive was ~~to~~ to establish a relationship with the CIA for subsequent use in blunting any prosecutions for unrelated offenses and ~~for~~ ~~thus~~ thus against organized crime. the following section.

2. MOTIVATION ^{OF} ~~FOR~~ ORGANIZED CRIME
TO BE INVOLVED IN PLOTS

Despite the reasons just presented to discontinue attempts to kill Castro, organized crime still had strong incentive to stay the CIA along. Specifically, this incentive was to establish a relationship with the CIA for subsequent use in thwarting prosecution for unrelated offenses and thus blunting any Justice Department proceedings against organized crime.

The Committee believes that organized crime, while recognizing the benefits of establishing a ~~secret~~ ^{always} ~~intimate~~ ^{intimacy was} relationship with the CIA, ~~secretly~~ also ^{seriously} ~~intended~~ ^{intended} in assassinating

Castro to repair lost ~~to~~ territory.

As already indicated, the Committee believes they desire allied with the solidification of Soviet influence. After this occurrence it appears ~~the~~ organized crime may only have put forth the "appearance" of involvement and good faith in the plots to further define a relationship with the CIA. Indeed, the CIA prevention of prosecution in^{1961 in} the Las Vegas murder incident would have given Mafioso, Roselli, and Giancana confirmation of the value of such a relationship and impetus for continuing

it in 1962 even though the assassination of Castro may no longer have been a viable alternative.

The actions of Maken, Giacana, and particularly Roselli in the years following these plots support this theory. As related in Section II, actually did ~~that~~ these individuals ~~sought to~~ use ~~in~~ their CIA affiliation in attempts and knowledge of the plots¹ to hinder law enforcement prosecution and objectives. ⁽²⁰⁾ ~~This apparently was done successfully~~ The success of some of their efforts verifies the tremendous blackmail potential they possessed. As Sam Papich, the FBI liaison to the CIA, commented in May, 1967, Giacana and Roselli had the CIA "on a barrel" because of "that operation" and he doubted that the FBI would be able to do anything about either Graciano or Roselli because of "their previous activities" with the CIA. It is clear that at least one group benefited from the failure of the assassination plots.

3. Relatator theory.

The Committee found no evidence that these operations provoked Premier Castro to assassinate President Kennedy in retaliation.

The Committee also has found no evidence that Castro knew of CIA sponsorship of their activities or even knew of their existence prior to the death of President Kennedy. Even if Castro did discover their existence, however, the Committee does not believe that Castro would have connected them with the CIA. In this regard, only a few persons knew of CIA sponsorship; the Cuban operations and any others engaged in penetrating Cuba or directly participating in

~~As just indicated in the previous

In an article in the Washington Post on September 9, 1976,

Anderson revealed that ex-CIA agent William Harvey, attorney Edward P. Morgan, and ~~two~~ repudiated mobster John Roselli were his sources. ~~The~~ Committee has determined that John Roselli was the person who informed Harvey & Morgan about the plot and the relaxation theory;

thus, only one source, John Roselli, actually ~~exists~~. Further, John Roselli supplied all information concerning the operator to the CIA through either James O'Connell or William Harvey.

The Committee notes that the ~~operator~~

The plots corresponds remarkably to the efforts of John Roselli to prevent his deportation in 1966 and 1971, and to prevent his prosecution for illegal gambling activities in 1967.

These coincidences plus other evidence has led the Committee to conclude that

~~John Roselli had CIA help~~ John Roselli ~~was~~ manipulated → the part of the plots ~~fit~~ into the retaliation theory

in efforts to force the CIA to favorably intervene into his legal affairs

to prevent the further disclosure of the plots in general and the retaliation theory

in particular and to prevent further waves of public paranoia. The Committee notes that in some instances John Roselli was successful.

CIA-organized crime plots and that and ignoring the Committee belief that Roselli fabricated the retaliation theory,
the CIA sponsored them,¹ the
it is unlikely
Committee still believes¹ that Castro
would ~~not~~ have resorted to assassinating
the President of the United States in retaliation for the reasons indicated in the ~~SECRET~~ ANALYSIS portion of the Issue Analysis section. Specifically, these reasons are:

1) the ~~SECRET~~ prospect of exposing Cuba
to ~~total~~ invasion and destruction
would not have been worth the risk;
2) ^(the act of) changing a leader does not necessarily change the system;
3) Castro may have recognized that among

Cuba; and

- 4) The growing prospect of detente between Cuba and the United States would have restrained Castro from assassinating an ~~left~~ American official.

4. Related Organized Crime Activities

The Committee found no evidence from the review of this material
 that the organized crime figures involved and other persons involved in the plots to kill Castro participated in the assassination of President Kennedy and/or without any Cuban assistance.

The Committee reviewed evidence

The Committee investigated

Norman Rothman

To ascertain more information about organized crime's knowledge about Castro's assassination plot the Committee investigated Norman Rothman, ~~Rothman~~
~~a Cuban gambling a person who~~ was active in operating various casinos in Cuba before the Castro takeover and who consequently maintained associations with organized crime and the Batista regime. At various times Rothman ~~espoused~~ served as manager of the Sons Society and Capa cabana Clubs in Cuba representing the interests of the Mannarino brothers of Pittsburgh. ^{John Mannarino} (106)

FBI files on Rothman indicate that a proposal to kill Castro was made to Rothman as a "quid pro quo" in which Rothman expected to avoid imprisonment for ~~a~~ 1960 gun running conviction. During an FBI interview Rothman stated that he had been in "personal contact with White House attorney Harry Hall Wilson, as well as Assistant Attorney General John Liegenthaler, both of Washington, D.C. "and members of the Kennedy Administration.

In a deposition to the Committee taken in Miami on April 16, 1978, Rothman expanded on the theme to include

The evidence suggesting such an approach by Robert Kennedy is entirely uncorroborated and makes no sense when viewed in light of the Justice Department crackdown on organized crime. Further, it seems extremely doubtful that any meeting^{with Rothman} on this topic would ever have occurred ~~at the White House.~~

Consequently, the Committee ~~is~~ believes it highly unlikely that ~~such~~ such events occurred.

The Committee also reviewed evidence which indicates that organized crime ~~syndicate~~ ~~—~~ may have been aware of the AMALAH operation during its existence.

The 1967 IGR identified four name links between the AMLASH operators and ~~organized~~ the organized crime operation. The IGR did not ~~detailed sources~~ sufficiently analyze,
however, that the common denominator
in two of the links was Santo Trafficante.

a. Link ONE

In March, 1961, the CIA received information that a high-ranking military figure in the Castro regime and a former personal secretary of Castro both wished to defect. The military officer was Rolando Cubla 100 decades (AMLASH) and the former secretary was Juan Orta, the operator used is Phase I of the CIA-organized crime plots. As already indicated, the 1967IOR ~~charter~~ ~~and~~ documents that Trujanoite recruited Orta.

The Committee has determined that other than the coincidence of both Orta and AMIASH seeking infiltration at the same time there is nothing to suggest a relationship between the two men in attempting to assassinate Castro, nor a common denominator with Trujanoite, Roalli, ~~or~~ Graciana or any other members of the American gambling syndicate.

Link Two

In mid-March, 1965, Rafael Garcia Bongo, a noted Cuban lawyer whose brother occupied the prestigious position of Minister of Sports in Cuba, contacted CIA station personnel in [redacted] to inform the agency that "he was in contact with a group of military officers who were planning to kill Castro" (1967 I.G. Report, p. [redacted]). It quickly became clear to CIA employees that Bongo's reference was to Cubela and the group of military men who were allied with him in attempting to depose Castro. Although the 1967 and 1977 I.G. Reports are silent as to their attitude toward Bongo's information, it must be assumed that they did not respond affirmatively since the AMLASH operation was in progress at the time and Artme was in the process of delivering arms caches to Cubela's people within Cuba.

Interestingly, Bongo identified himself to Agency personnel as a lawyer for the Capri Hotel and Casino in Havana who had been jailed in July 1975 for a period of 75 days, allegedly as a reprisal for representing Santo Trafficante. Bongo's utilization of the short prison term to establish his "bona fides" is questionable as Trafficante was in jail during August 1959. For the Cuban government to wait for 3 years to exact retribution for that representation makes no sense. Possibly, Bongo was involved in approaching the Castro government in 1962 on Trafficante's behalf for permission to reopen the Capri casino.

Bongo's trip to Madrid apparently involved [redacted]

and held until his old client, Santo Trafficante, arrived with a suitcase full of cash to obtain his release. (See interview of FBI SA Wendall Sail. See also deposition of Victor Espinosa Hernandez.) Presumably, Bongo was paroled back to Cuba, at an unspecified later date, where he died.

One aspect of the Bongo-Trafficante relationship in Madrid deserves fuller treatment although it is doubtful that anything more than supposition can result from further exploration. (It has been reported by Jack Anderson that his private and secret source until his death, John Roselli, had reason to speculate that Cubans originally recruited by Santo Trafficante to kill Castro were "turned around" and sent back to the United States where they were directly involved in the assassination of President Kennedy. (See Anderson column dated 9-7-76; interview by Fenton and

, another columnist, George Crile, carried the story a step further by suggesting that Trafficante became a witting participant in the Cuban Prime Minister's plan of retaliation. (If this line of hypothecation is adapted then the trip to Madrid by Bongo could assume some sinister implications such as the possibility that Bongo's real purpose in contacting [redacted] CIA [redacted] was to act as a double agent for Castro in ascertaining the nature and scope of the AMLASH operation. Castro certainly became aware of the Artme meetings with Cubela in the fall of 1964 since the list of charges upon which Cubela went to trial in 1966 began with these Madrid meetings. If Castro had begun his suspicions of Cubela's role with the CIA during late 1964 or early 1965, it is likely that he would have begun counter-intelligence measures to confirm his fears which could have led to Castro sending Bongo to Spain to contact the Agency. Given Trafficante's close ties to Bongo (see also Aleman footnote in AMLASH section), it can be postulated that Trafficante was aware of Bongo's true mission prior to his departure or became knowledgeable when he bailed him out of jail in Madrid. (Unfortunately, we have no way of knowing whether Bongo stopped in Miami to see Trafficante prior to going to Spain unless we could obtain the case file from Secret Service of the Italian killed in Miami who was supposed to be Bongo's partner according to S/A Wendall Sall.)

Trafficante could have received news of Cubela's ties with the Agency through his close associate Jorge Nobregas who was described by Gorge C. in his Washington Post article (circa 8/17/76) as "having worked with the CIA, was in Cubela's student revolutionary group in Cuba, and always close to Trafficante."

Actually, given the extent of Trafficante's high-level contacts within the exile community and the low-level security in the CIA exile operations, it is extremely logical that Trafficante and other members of the underworld knew, in some fashion, part or all of the AMLASH plot. The question becomes: So what? Short of being able to blackmail the government about the modus operendi of the 1960-62 events, the significance of mob knowledge of AMLASH is not readily apparent. [However, if Trafficante was in fact a double agent, a whole other scenario emerges. Now?]

One further reference to Bongo surfaced during an interview by Committee Staff with Jose Aleman on March 14, 1977 when Aleman related that Jorge Nobregas introduced Aleman to Trafficante. Santo Trafficante offered to assist Aleman in obtaining a Teamster loan ostensibly out of gratitude for Aleman's relative (Bongo) representing Trafficante in Cuba. Trafficante fully admits the Teamster loan proposal which was to be arranged by Frank Ragano, Trafficante's personal lawyer, who also represented Jimmy Hoffa and Frank Chanez in criminal cases.

Of course, the most relevant aspect of the Trafficante-Aleman meetings in September 1962 to this Committee is the statement attributed to Trafficante by Aleman that ". . .you don't understand me. Kennedy's not going to make it to the election. He is going to get hit." Aleman reported that the inflammatory prediction occurred during a lengthy diatribe against the Kennedy administration's campaign against Jimmy

~~FF~~

If Trappuante was a double agent, working for the CIA but actually supplying information to Castro, then another scenario emerges. It is logical to assume that Castro knew of the AMALASH ~~plot~~ and CIA-organized crime operations from their inception. As mentioned earlier in this material Trappuante could have received a sanctuary ^{and} assistance in smuggling ~~the~~ ~~s~~ narcotics contraband ~~con~~ for such information. As also discussed earlier, however, the Committee believes that even if Castro had knowledge of ~~the~~ CIA sponsorship of plot against his life

INTRODUCTION

In its concluding section of the Final Report, Developments After the Warren Commission, the Select Senate Committee to Study Governmental Operation (SSC) speculated that organized crime may have had a continuing knowledge of all CIA operations against Castro during the 1960's.

"The 1967 I.G. Report noted that information given by "A" suggested a link between the AMLASH operation and the 1960-1962 CIA plots to assassinate Castro using underworld contacts. In other words, the information "A" provided raised the possibility that underworld figures who were aware of the assassination plots in which William Harvey participated, may have also been aware of the AMLASH operation."

Sketch → A review of the 1967 I.G. report does not sustain the Senate's conjecture in that there is no available evidence cited in the Report to suggest that "A" (Victor Spinosa Hernandez) had knowledge of, or involvement with, any of the syndicate or Cuban exiles who participated in Phase I or II of the CIA-Mafia assassination plots during 1960-62. What Book ~~IV~~ did was to seize upon the 1967's tentative identification of ~~three~~ "name links" between the 1960-62 ~~gangster~~ ^{organized} operation and AMLASH intrigue, and expand the amorphous nature of those "name links," which included "A," into a theory that "A" was the conduit through which the Syndicate became knowledgeable of both the AMLASH operation and the initial CIA efforts to eliminate Castro.

The only solid factual basis for Book ~~IV~~'s tie-in between AMLASH and the 1960-62 CIA syndicate plots is based upon Victor Espenosa's exile activities in June-July 1963, which Book ~~IV~~ examined. ^b

More, CIA files contained at least some FBI reports on "A," the Cuban exile who was involved in transporting explosives to New Orleans in 1963. These reports detail his involvement with anti-Castro exiles and underworld figures who were operating the guerilla training camp in New Orleans in July 1963.

The "underworld figures" reference relates to ~~Melie~~ and William McLaney who have been considered organized crime affiliates by some law enforcement and media personnel. (See profile.) Again, however, no evidence from any source places McLaney into the early CIA plots to kill Castro or into the AMLASH operation. A review of the June-July 1963 activities of McLaney and Victor Espinosa leads only to the inference that their operation was a private limited venture with no agency or syndicate support and very little chance of success. (See Review of Lake Ponchatrain in McLaney Profile. Footnote re Victor Espinosa.)

Moreover, the link between McLaney, Espinosa and the organized crime principals connected to the initial CIA Castro plots must be dissected in order to make a judgement as to the likelihood of ~~Book V~~'s speculation that the syndicate held "inside" information on Agency operations in 1960-65.

Since the Senate did not attempt to interview either of the McLaney brothers or Victor Espinosa in 1975 nor ~~interview~~ ^{ASIC principals of} ~~quire of the witnesses~~ ~~to~~ the 1960-62 plots ~~into~~ or their knowledge or relationship to McLaney or Espinosa, the Senate's hypothetical question of underworld knowledge of the full range of CIA Castro plots is based upon a minimum of hard data and a maximum of free-wheeling conjecture.

The evidence linking Espinosa to any known organized crime figures consists of his admission to being friends with "Cappy" Rothman, Norman Rothman's son, and a casual knowledge of American gamblers gleaned from his student days of visiting the Havana casinos.

Mike McLaney ^{is} ~~is~~ ^{figure whose} ties to organized crime have been ~~seriously~~ questioned within federal law enforcement agencies since the 1950's but no solid evidence has linked him to Trafficante, Rosseli or Giancana.

Since McLaney has been most frequently mentioned as a "Lansky man." To place a witting McLaney into the 1960-62 plots, it requires a series of major speculative hurdles which include: (a) Myer Lansky was a plotter with Trafficante; (b) McLaney was Lansky's "action" man; ^{and} (c) the various underworld figures acted in concert in promoting anti-Castro operations. ^{The Cuban Hee that} None of these premises are easily supportable with facts and consequently do not place any

The Justice Department is still investigating both murders. The Committee has not uncovered evidence ~~or~~ ~~relevant~~ ~~to~~ relevant to solving these murders. The Committee does believe, however, that a variety of motivations inspired the deaths. These motivations included internal ~~to~~ mob conflict, especially in the case of Giannina, and participation and knowledge of the CIA - organized crime plots. The Committee considers it highly probable that Trappante ~~assisted~~ ~~undoubtedly~~ approved of and assisted in at least the murders, ~~particularly~~ ~~of~~ John Roselli.
