session that shortly after the assassination of President Kennedy he was advised by fellow employees at the CIA's Station that Lee Harvey Oswald was a CIA agent who had received financial disbursements under an assigned cryptonym. Wilcott explained that he had been employed by the CIA as a finance officer from 1957 until his resignation from the Agency in 1966. In this capacity, he served as a fiscal account assistant on the support staff at the Station from June of 1960 to June 1964. Wilcott advised Wilcott told the Committee that on the day after Presiden Kennedy's assassination he was informed by a CIA case officer that Lee Harvey Oswald was avera agent. Wilcott further testified that he was told that Oswald had been assigned a cryptonym and that Wilcott himself had And internative representative properties and the second s unknowingly disbursed payments for Oswald project using that cryptonym. Although Wilcott was unable to identify the specific case officers who had initially informed him of Oswald's Agency relationship, he named several employees of the Station with whom he believed he had subsequently discussed the allegations.

Wilcott advised the Committee that after learning of the alleged Oswald connection to the CIA, he had never rechecked the Station disbursement records for evidence of the Oswald project. He explained that this was because at that time he viewed the information as mere shop talk and gave it little credence. Neither did he report the allegations to any formal investigative bodies, following the assassination as he considered the information to be hearsay. Note: In an attempt to investigate Wilcott's allegations, concerning Lee Harvey Oswald's relationship with the GIA. the Committee interviewed several present and former CIA employees who were selected on the basis of the position each had held with the GIA during the years 1954-1964. Among those persons interviewed were individuals whose responsibilities covered a broad spectrum of areas within the Station during this period, including the chief and deputy chief of

Lee Harvey Oswald's CIA File

The CIA has long acknowledged that, prior to the President's assassination, it had a personality file on Lee Harvey Oswald. This file, which in Agency terminology is referred to as a 201 file, was opened on December 9, 1960. The Agency has explained to the Committee that 201 files are opened when a person is considered to be of potential intelligence or counterintelligence significance. The opening of such a file is designed to serve the purpose of bringing all of the CIA's information pertaining to that or indirectly, in any capacity for the CIA after hisresignation on 26 September 1950."

The Committee descent not regard this explanation as satisfactory, especially since Snyder's 201 file indicates that for approximately one year during 1956-1957 he was used by an Agency case officer as a spotter at Harvard University, because of his access to other students who might be going to the Soviet Union nor was the Agency actually able to explain specifically why someone considered it necessary to red flag the Snyder file.

The remainder of the Snyder file, however, is entirely consistent with his testimony before the Committee concerning the absence of Agency contacts. In addition, the CIA personnel officer who handled Snyder's case in 1950 confirmed that Snyder had, in fact, terminated his employment with the
