Ms. Goodpasture was given a Career Intelligence Award. The Award cited her "significant contribution over a twelve year period to the success of some of the most sensitive and successful operations of the Mexico City Station".

The Inspector General requested permission from the DDCT to hire Ms. Goodpasture on a contract basis on 28 Dec. 1976. The reasons given were:

- 1.) her reputation as Scott's right-hand;
- 2) familiarity @ the ~~archive~~ operations and the "extant files" which would lead to her playing a vital role in the I.G.'s review of files and in answering Richard C. Sprague's questions.

She was specifically to review MCS files on the Kennedy assassination (Memo to DDCT from I.G., 12/28/76.) This memo implies that Ms. Goodpasture was Scott's secretary as well as an operations officer.

A routine slip is attached to this memo.
It says:

Actually Ann Goodpasture
was a professional case officer (GS-13) and evidently a kind of special assistant to COS Mexico City from [redacted] to 1968 (somewhat more than a secretary).
I would suggest (and Office of Personnel agrees) a 90-day "bee" type contract with an estimated cost of about $5,000, plus travel and per diem. Total cost would be somewhere around $10,000 over a 90-day period. Recommend approval for a period not to exceed 90 days.

(Official Routing Slip,
to DCI from Paul H.
Hilderbrand AO/DCI, 12/8/76.) Ms Goodpasture was granted a ^{security} clearance good for 90 days on 1/19/77. The clearance is contingent

and Operations Branch

Ms. Goodpasture's contract was terminated on 5/20/77. (Memo to Office of Security, Clearance
Division from OPI Contract Personnel Division, 7/7/77)
