Enclosed are the original and four copies of a LHM and an equal number of evaluation memos setting forth the results of a meeting between the subject and WF 1154-S on the evening of 3/6/64. This meeting was scheduled for 2/28/64, but subject failed to appear. Informant advised that on the afternoon of 3/2/64, he was contacted at his office by subject and a meeting was scheduled for the evening of 3/6/64. Informant was contacted on 3/4/64 at which time he was instructed to attempt to engage subject in conversation concerning his background and family history. It was anticipated that this subject could be discussed as to the results of discussing a paper prepared by the informant concerning the Slovak uprising in Czechoslovakia in 1944. (S)

Subject and informant met in front of the Penn Theater, 650 Pennsylvania Ave., S.E., at 7:00 p.m. on the evening of 3/6/64. Subject took informant across the street to the Roaring Twenties Restaurant, 639 Pennsylvania Ave., S.E., where they remained until approximately 8:50 p.m. (S)

As noted in the LHM, (subject suggested to informant that he might desire to prepare an article for publication in a Czech periodical. The informant stated that prior to this discussion with subject, that he had thought of this matter and was considering preparing an article concerning the twentieth anniversary of the Slovak uprising. (S) He said that he also considered writing a fictional type article setting forth the activities of the first day of the uprising. (S) He commented that as a leader of this uprising, (S) he felt well qualified to write on it and felt that his article would receive publication in Czechoslovakia, providing he did not appear to be too critical of the Communist Party (CP). Informant expressed some hesitation as to whether or not he should prepare this article because of the fact that he is an employee of the Federal Government. (S) He said that he felt that some people in the U.S. would attempt to get him in trouble with his employment if he prepared such an article. Informant was instructed that the FBI could not tell him what to do in this matter, but it was suggested that he contact the Security Officer at the Bureau of the Census and tell him of his plans. Informant was also instructed not to mention to this officer his association with the subject or his cooperation with the FBI. Informant stated that he would not take any steps on this subject without checking with his Security Officer and he would advise of the results of this meeting. (S) (S)

It is further noted in the LHM that subject retained informant's thesis on the Slovak uprising. (S) He failed to give a reason for keeping the paper. It is noted that on 3/3/64, CS CG 6455-S learned that subject was to deliver a speech on the 25th Anniversary of the Nazi Occupation of Czechoslovakia and its subsequent effect upon Eastern European history. It is possible that subject retained informant's paper in order to plagiarize informant's work for use in his speech. (S)

The names furnished subject by informant as people working in his section were CESTMIR JESINA, a Czechoslovak exile and STEPHAN RAPAWY, a Ukrainian exile. (S) Subject failed to write these names down and did not appear too concerned over them. Accordingly, WFO will take no further action concerning these individuals unless subject makes further inquiry concerning them. (S) UKRAINE

MILOSLAV CHROBOK
INTERNAL SECURITY - CZ ~~(S)~~(U)

A confidential informant furnished the following information March 9, 1964, which he obtained as the result of a recent meeting with Miloslav Chrobok, Third Secretary, Embassy of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic. ~~(S)~~(U)

At the beginning of the meeting, Chrobok and the source discussed the Jack Ruby trial in Dallas, Texas. Chrobok stated that he is convinced that Jack Ruby and Lee Harvey Oswald were working together. He also said that he believes that Ruby killed Oswald for undisclosed individuals and that both Ruby and Oswald were part of a conspiracy to assassinate John F. Kennedy. Chrobok next discussed the forthcoming political campaign in the United States and stated that he believed that Henry Cabot Lodge stood an excellent chance of winning the New Hampshire primary election. He said that he believed Lodge to be extremely strong and that he felt that he would make an excellent Presidential candidate. He asked the source who he believed the Republican candidate would be. The source replied that he believed the former Vice President, Richard M. Nixon would eventually get the Republican nomination. Chrobok replied that he did not believe this would happen because of his loss in his attempt to be elected Governor of California. (U)

The subject next discussed with the source a paper prepared by the source concerning the Slovak Uprising of 1944. Chrobok said that it was a well prepared paper and well documented. He said that he had read it, but desired to look it over some more and asked if he might keep it another week or so. The source replied that he could and Chrobok said that he would return it at their next meeting. The source then asked Chrobok what he was doing at that time and he replied that he was living with his parents near [Ostrava, Czechoslovakia.] (S) He stated that his father was working in the coal mines there, but did not state whether or not his father was actually a miner or handling administrative type work. Chrobok continued stating that he was thirteen years old at this time and that he worked as a shepherd attending cattle herds during this period. He said that he was not exposed to any of the fighting which went on in Czechoslovakia during World War II. (S)

Chrobok gave the source a copy of the Czech newspaper "Kulturni Tvorba," which according to the source means cultural creation. This paper was dated January 1, 1964. The subject stated that it contained an article which he felt the source should be interested in. This article was entitled "Problems with Figures" and was written by an individual named Milan Plachky. This article was extremely critical of the statistics presented by the Czechoslovak Government concerning the amount of money expended for educational purposes in Czechoslovakia as compared to that spent in the United States. It stated that these figures were false and misleading and that in proportion to the United States, the Czechoslovak expenditures were much lower than had been presented to the Czechoslovak people. The source stated that this was another instance whereby the Czechoslovak people, particularly those of Slovak origin, are expressing their criticism of the current regime. (S) (u)

Chrobok suggested to the source that he might prepare an article for publication in Czechoslovakia. They briefly discussed this matter and the source stated that he would consider preparing an article [on the Twentieth Anniversary of the Slovak Uprising of 1944 and how this uprising] affected Czechoslovakia's history. (S)

At the conclusion of the meeting, Chrobok requested the source to obtain for him, if possible, a current telephone directory of [the United States Information Agency.] The source replied that he did not know (S)
