MARK LANE

CO 2-34630
CONFIDENTIAL

According to information received on May 10, 1971, from a confidential source abroad, captioned individual, who was born February 24, 1924, at New York, was in Paris, France, during the period March 7-24, 1971. (C)

During his visit, according to the source, subject made a number of contacts with Vietnamese, revolutionary organizations and individuals of the far left, with whom he discussed problems of the war in Vietnam. (C)

The source stated that with the assistance of MARY-JO VAN INGEN subject met with ALAN KRIVINE, leader of the Communist League. VAN INGEN is known to French authorities as a French national and member of the Fourth International European Trotskyist organization, who was in Brussels, Belgium on November 21-22, 1970, on the occasion of the International Meeting of European Revolutionaries. (C)

According to the source, the meeting between LANE and KRIVINE particularly dealt with the future collaboration between the Communist League and JANE FONDA, who reportedly, is very much under LANE's influence. LANE is said to have contributed 500 francs to the Communist League. (C)

The source also stated that LANE also met with FRANCOIS MASPERO, who specializes in publishing revolutionary books, with regard to having one of his books published. (C)
