position and title was " planning and specifications man " which consisted of maintaining records and ordering materials and recording thier usage. His work was satisfactory and he recieved pay raises as they came due. He made numerous oral and written complaints that he was not being promoted to a higher position because of personality conflicts with his immediate supervisors. He states in one letter that he has been " victimized " by his supervisors. He did not recieve any promotions that he requested in the later years that he worked for Chrysler. However, he was written an offer of anothe~~r~~ position in 1972 but his letter was returned to the company for lack of a forwarding address. Marochini's supervisor was Mr. John O'Niel who is now retired and living in Slidell, La.

Marochini lists his previous employment from 1949 thru 1964 when he is hired by Michoud. In his employment he lists Standard Coffee Co. N.o.La. from 3-19-63 to 6-10-63 as a salesman. This company is a part of William Rielly Coffee Co. where Lee Harvey Oswald worked from 5-10-63 to 7-19-63.

Thornley states this in his " Affidavit " to Jim Garrison.
