SYNOPSIS

Further efforts were made without success to locate the subject.

(A) INTRODUCTION:

Reference is made to previous reports in this case, particularly to my memorandum report dated June 22, 1964.

(B) GENERAL INQUIRIES:

On June 22, 1964 interviewed Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Herman at 21 Bond Lane, Hicksville, L. I., N. Y. They stated they had rented a room to Thomas Arthur Vallee between 1961 and 1962 and that he left sometime during 1962 without leaving a forwarding address. They knew very little about the subject stating they did not become friendly with their roomers. Mr. Herman advised, however, that he had engaged in a few conversations with him and recalled he mentioned he had been in the Army where he acquired a case of battle fatigue, that he came from Chicago, that he had two sisters one of whom was residing somewhere in Canada and that his parents were deceased. Mr. and Mrs. Herman stated that the subject paid his rent promptly, that he was a very quiet young man who kept to his room, that he had never been the cause of any trouble and that they believed him to have a fine character. Mr. Herman stated the subject had worked as a printer for the Sorg Printing Company in Westbury, L. I., N. Y.

Investigation in Westbury, L. I., N. Y. on June 24, 1964 disclosed that Camera Graphics, mentioned in my memorandum report dated June 22, 1964, was a subsidiary of the Sorg Printing Company and that the company's offices were now located at 80 South Street, New York, N. Y. On June 24, 1964 interviewed Mr. Terrence Tulloch, office manager. He produced his records to show that Thomas A. Vallee, social security number 377-30-4055, was employed there from February 1, 1961, as a printer, and resigned

April 20, 1962. The records further showed that Thomas A. Vallee was a member of Local 51 of the New York Printing Pressman's Union, New York City, that he formerly worked for Geandine, 2443 Fullerton, Chicago and that his next of kin was a Mary Vallee, R.N. employed at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Chicago, Ill. He is single and was born in Chicago, Ill. on November 15, 1933. Sister

Inquiry at the New York Printing Pressman's Union, Local 51, 200 Park Avenue, South, New York, N. Y., disclosed subject was a member in good standing. Their files disclosed that he had appeared there on February 13, 1964 with a "travel" card from their Chicago Branch. This card is issued to members who decide to leave one city to obtain work elsewhere. The files of this local failed to disclose where subject worked in this city, if at all. He asked for and received a "travel" card on April 14, 1964, however, indicating he was leaving this city. His destination was unknown.

(I) DISPOSITION:

Since it appears that subject is no longer in this city and inasmuch as further investigation is warranted in Chicago, the entire file is being returned to that office.
