Dave Varas - Association

Informant advised Pat. has been in constant telephone contact with Dave Varas from Sept. 1957 to May 1959. On March 12, 1955, Chicago informant advised that Patrick "was very close" to Varas, "a Chicago hoodlum who had great power in the underworld on the West side of Chicago." On 1-18-58, a different Chicago informant advised that Dave Varas and Leonard Patrick "were very closely associated even though Varas was residing in Miami Beach."

Records of Chicago P.D., checked on 5-7-58, reflected Varas had been arrested about 28 times from 1938 to 1947 "mostly for general principles, disorderly conduct, and investigation."

④ Chicago OC Activities

Dave Yaras and Lenny Patrick controlled the Roosevelt Avenue area and their headquarters was at Roosevelt and Independence Boulevard.
(advised by Chicago informant on 2-25-58)

Bookmaking Activities

p.32

On 2-26-58 a Chicago informant advised he worked for Pat. as an operator in "a 50-50 book in 1948 and 1949." The book was operated in a barber shop at 330 West Roosevelt & payments were made to Pat. at the New Lawndale Restaurant in that neighborhood. At that time, according to the informant, Patrick was in control of the New Lawndale Rest. and "there was a full-scale hard card book being operated there." Pat. had the area from Kedzie to Cicero and from Madison south to approximately 18th Street. No one could open a book or take on any bets unless he had the Ok of Patrick. At that time Patrick's lieutenants were Karas and Block.

p.33- Patrick made an attempt to move into the area ~~of~~ at Broadway, Divers^Sy and Belmont, but according to CG T-12 was run by ~~to~~ Rocco Fischetti. Three of Pat's "muscles," Warti Polski, "Little Sneeze" Friedman, and one other were killed in the New Lawndale Rest. ostensibly for robbing ~~books~~ but actually, according to informant, because of their association @ Pat. Informant believed dispute between Pat. and Fischetti was arbitrated by Tony Accardo.
