She recalled that LEAL mentioned that he, LEAL, and GUERRA are in business together in Puerto Rico, operating a cracker factory.

It is noted that the Miami Office of the FBI has previously reported that the "Orange Sun", a cruise ship running from Miami to Bimini for gambling purposes, was leased by EVARISTO GARCIA VIDAL and EUGENIO LEAL.

EUGENIO LEAL POZO was interviewed in the Spanish language, inasmuch as he does not speak English, on June 7, 1963, by SA PAUL A. SCRANTON, at Miami, Florida, and at such time, denied that he and GARCIA were acting in behalf of SANTO TRAFFICANTE or that TRAFFICANTE had any connection with the proposed idea of running the gambling casinos aboard the "Orange Sun." He did state that if the deal had gone through, TRAFFICANTE was one of the number of persons they would have approached to provide the bank roll or financial backing for the gambling operation.

EUGENIO LEAL POZO was again contacted in Miami, Florida, on September 16, 1963, at which time he advised he was trying to get permission to go to Santo Domingo, but he was vague about his plans and denied SANTO TRAFFICANTE had any connection with his proposed trip, but admitted seeing the subject frequently.

Immediately following the above contact, SANTO TRAFFICANTE's car was located in front of the residence of EVARISTO GARCIA VIDAL in Miami.

TP T-8 advised on January 6, 1964, at Miami, Florida, that source received information that EUGENIO LEAL is acting as administrator of a new gambling casino in Santo Domingo, which is owned by SANTO TRAFFICANTE. This casino is known as the Pan Americana and is located in hotel formerly known as Hotel Lapaz.

Miami Office noted that LES KRUSE, a Chicago racket figure, may also have some negotiations in the above casino.

TP T-14 advised at Miami, Florida on January 10, 1964, that source had talked with MACHO GENER of recent date and GENER told source EVARISTO GARCIA VIDAL and EUGENIO LEAL were running a gambling casino in Santo Domingo. Source was of the opinion that the subject is back of the above pair.
