PCI JORGE ALDANA advised 3-18-69 that throughout March of 1969 he has been making two and three trips a week to Cuernavaca conducting surveillances of the house at Nubes No. 2. He has seen no vehicles or any sign of activity or occupancy. (R) u

On 3-15-69, he engaged a servant from the house in a conversation on a pretext, and she informed him that there was no one currently in residence at the house. She claimed that two "viejitos" (old men) had been residing at the house, but departed some time ago. (R) u

Source advised that he has been developing contacts among the Federal Judicial Police stationed in Cuernavaca. He noted that the local Cuernavaca Police have a reputation for unreliability and, therefore, he was hoping to develop a contact among the Federal Police to aid in this investigation.

He will be continuing to make regular trips to Cuernavaca in this matter, and the Bureau and Origin will be advised of developments. (R) u Mexico City would like to be advised of results of inquiry in Spain. (R) u
