COVER PAGE

Tex have been filed in a number of years; however, ^{TEXAS} most of these cases have not been prosecuted by DOUG CROUCH, Tarrant County District Attorney. One of the most notorious panderers, ANGELO THOMAS CASTEN, who operated the Desert Village Motel, Jacksboro Highway, north of Fort Worth, was allowed to plead guilty to five counts of adultery and pay a $5,000.00 fine by CROUCH instead of trying CASTEN on two well-developed cases of pandering.

^{TEXAS} CLIFFORD BRADSHAW FITZWILLIAMS, a Dallas procurer, has operated two or three call houses several blocks away from Lieutenant OLIVER BALL's residence during the past two years.

^{TEXAS} LILLY PITTS, 1629 West 10th Street, ^{FORT WORTH, TEXAS} has operated a house of prostitution for a number of years at this address and other addresses in Fort Worth. She usually has two or three girls staying at her place at any one time. She allows girls to fill dates at this house and also to take calls to hotels and motels.

^{TEXAS} The Jackson Hotel, 1014 1/2 Main Street, usually keeps two or three prostitutes to fill dates at the hotel which is located about one and one-half blocks from Police Headquarters. This hotel is operated by ^{MRS} STEVE PARKER and his wife, SHIRLEY PARKER, acts as ^{TEXAS} madam. DL T-18 furnished information on February 9, 1962, that she and other prostitutes would take out $10.00 of their earnings each night and give them to JAMES NORMAN WELLS, her pimp, who in turn was to furnish this money to SHIRLEY PARKER to pass on to ^{TEXAS} the Fort Worth Police Department Vice Squad. DL T-18 stated that she had paid a Fort Worth Patrolman, H. R. FRENCH, $20.00 on one occasion in 1962 and agreed to pay him the same amount ^{TEXAS} every month to allow her and other girls to operate from the call house at 4333 Westridge.

DL T-19 advised that he had several girls working for him in 1958 and 1959 as prostitutes and that he had paid former ^{TEXAS} Fort Worth Police Department Vice Squad Sergeant ROBERT L. WOOTEN between $500.00 and $600.00 over a period of a few months not to arrest his girls. In addition, DL T-19 stated that he had given WOOTEN a diamond ring for this same protection. WOOTEN is presently under investigation by the FBI concerning a possible White Slave Traffic Act violation. DL T-17 stated she paid WOOTEN $20.00 to $50.00 over a period of six or seven months and estimated paying him over $1,000.00 to keep from being arrested for prostitution.

The following are the most active pimps and prostitutes in the Fort Worth-Tarrant County area:
