Attached from Legat, Caracas advises of crash, possibly caused by a bomb, of Cubana Airlines Flight 455 (DC-8 Aircraft leased by Cubana from Air Canada), in the Caribbean Sea off the coast of Barbados at about 1:45 p.m., 10/6/76, shortly after takeoff from Seawell Airport, Barbados, en route to Havana, Cuba, via Kingston, Jamiaca. No survivors among 78 passengers. Airport official at Barbados reportedly informed that pilot told tower there had been an explosion in one of the rear lavatories of the plane. Flight log recovered after crash noted power failure in #4 engine but no mention of explosion. Trinidad and Tobago Police (TTP) are holding two Venezuelan citizens, Jose Vazquez Garcia and Freddy Lugo, whom they believe may be connected with this crash. TTP request any information of these individuals. Legat, Caracas files negative re individuals. *On 10/7/76, a confidential source abroad advised Lugo, supra, is employed by Louis Posada, former head Venezuelan Counterintelligence (S) who resigned in 1973. Posada is Cuban exile known for his anti-Castro activities. This same confidential source advised that in view of arrest of Vazquez and Lugo [the Venezuelan Government] is arranging for Posada and Orlando Bosch Avila (leader of Coordinacion de Organizaciones Revolucionarias Unidas (CORU) to leave Venezuela as soon as possible. The source all but admitted that Posada and Bosch had engineered the bombing of the airline. From statement of source it appears almost certain that [Venezuelan Government] was privy to activities of Posada and Bosch. Appropriate dissemination being made. FBI Identification Division records negative re Lugo and Garcia. Lugo at time of arrest had in possession address book with Legat Caracas' address. Legat, Caracas has no recollection of ever having met Vazquez Lugo. Legat, Caracas has had limited contact with Posada while employed with [Venezuelan Counterintelligence] and after his resignation from [Venezuelan Counterintelligence] in connection with visa request. FBIHQ files negative re Garcia, however, files indicate Lugo was approached by Cuban Agents (connected with [Embassy] in Caracas) in 1975, and volunteered information. Lugo then offered services to [Venezuelan] intelligence officials. Legat Caracas has been advised.
