Re: GENE LESLIE STOKES, et al
ITWP, ITWI
(DL 168-19)

On 10/8/62, subject STOKES was placed under surveillance by BuAgents from the time he left his place of employment, Ling Temco Vought, Grand Prairie, Texas, until he arrived at his residence. STOKES left the parking lot of the corporation and drove directly to a pay phone in Arlington, Texas at the corner of Bowen and Division Streets.

STOKES was observed making at least four telephone calls from approximately 4:52 pm until 5:15 pm. He then went to a Texaco Service Station located at the same address operated by a C. L. CAUSEY. STOKES was observed making several calls from the station's telephone and it also appeared that he was well acquainted with the employees at the station. He then left and went directly to his residence.

On 10/9/62, PCI JAMES C. JACKSON (DL 137-1241), advised he had received a telephone call from his brother, subject EBERHARDT. EBERHARDT told him on 10/8/62 that STOKES had lost $1100 the previous weekend booking football bets through the use of parlay cards. EBERHARDT stated that several employees in the General Motors plant, Arlington, Texas, had "hit" STOKES quite hard. EBERHARDT commented that STOKES distributed a large number of the parlay cards at this plant as well as Ling Temco Vought. Later on 10/9/62, STOKES contacted the PCI on 10/8/62 and stated he wanted 1,000 cards delivered as per usual on 10/9/62. STOKES commented that he had lost $1100 the past weekend, saying some "fellows" at General Motors, Arlington, had all picked the same four teams, not further identified, and had won on this parlay. PCI delivered 1,000 cards, numbered 1 through 1,000, to STOKES' truck at Ling Temco Vought on 10/9/62, however, no money had been left for him. PCI later on 10/9/62 advised STOKES had called PCI about 2 PM and apologized for not leaving the money in the truck. STOKES said he would send the money by registered mail. STOKES also commented that the "woman" who had been backing him had "pulled out" because of the heavy losses. STOKES stated, however, that a welder in the Ling Temco Vought Corp. who is of Jewish extraction has agreed to back STOKES and STOKES claimed this welder gave him $5,000 on 10/9/62 to back the bookmaking operation. STOKES told PCI that this is the same man who gets the line for STOKES. Because of the new backing, STOKES told PCI he would need more cards for the week beginning 10/15/62.

Above information was furnished to Lt. JACK REVILL, Intelligence Section, Dallas PD, and Deputy BOB MORGAN, Dallas SO, on 10/9/62.

Re: JAMES WALTER CHERRY;
JAMES BENNETT WAAGE
POSTAL VIOLATION (DL 48-0)

GIIF - Dallas
(DL 94-47)

DL 94-55A-SUB

An article appearing in a Dallas newspaper on 10/9/62 stated that CHERRY and WAAGE had been arrested and charged with the possession of money orders stolen in the burglary of a Dallas postal sub-station 7/20/62. It should be noted that the information which led to the identification of CHERRY as being in possession of the stolen money orders and of WAAGE as being an associate, as well as information concerning the travels of CHERRY subsequent to the burglary, had been obtained by Dallas from DL-95-C, and furnished to the Postal authorities, Dallas. Based on this information, Postal authorities were subsequently able to obtain evidence with which to charge WAAGE and CHERRY with the violation.

Re: GAMBLING IN NATIONAL SPORTS,
CRIMINAL INTELLIGENCE MATTERS
(DL 94-190)

On 10/12/62, HOWARD GRUBBS, Executive Secretary, Southwest Athletic Conference, Dallas, furnished information he had just received from the coach of the Texas A&M football team, HANK FULBERG, concerning the possible obtaining of information to be used in gambling activities by a SAM WINER of Miami. Details obtained from GRUBBS were furnished to the Bureau, Miami, and Houston Offices by Dallas airtel 10/12/62.

On 10/12/62, PCI GEORGE FUQUA (DL 137-1216) advised that it would possibly be worthwhile to ascertain if football official JAMES FORD (See Dallas airtel 10/8/62) officiated the Hardin Simmons - North Texas State football game of 10/6/62. FUQUA stated there was something wrong as there was no "line for this game" throughout the week and bookmakers are becoming suspicious of any game in which FORD is involved. -

AR, PCI (DL 92-61, 137-1216)

WILLIAM RAY DAVIS, ET AL
ITWI, ITAR - GAMBLING, BRIBER,
ETC. (DL 165-29)

By airtel 10/10/62, the New Orleans Office advised that FUQUA's conviction in Mississippi had been affirmed on 10/8/62 by the State Supreme Court and that on 10/9/62 FUQUA had perfected an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States. He had been granted ninety days in connection with the preparation of the necessary papers for this appeal. On 10/10/62

DL 94-55A-SUB

it was determined that FUQUA was in custody at Gulfport, Miss., and that a $6,000 bond had been approved.

On 10/12/62, FUQUA contacted a Dallas Agent and advised he had been released on bond in Mississippi after having made a new appeal. He stated he returned to Dallas on 10/11/62.

FUQUA advised he had received information from an unidentified party while in Gulfport, who had in turn obtained the information from a man named "MARTINEZ" of New Orleans, to the effect that GILBERT LEE BECKLEY (suspect in Dallas 165-29) had been recently kidnapped and then released after making payment of over $100,000 to his captors. Part of this money BECKLEY had obtained from a Baton Rouge, La. bookie who, according to FUQUA, owed BECKLEY $60,000.

In view of the above information re BECKLEY, a notorious Miami bookmaker and handicapper who is awaiting Federal prosecution in New Orleans, and in view of the information of interest to the New Orleans Office, copy of this airtel being furnished to both New Orleans and Miami.

The information obtained from FUQUA was orally furnished by Dallas to Lt. REVILL and Dep. MORGAN, on 10/12/62.
