and further recalled that DRISCOLL once left a note signed by BECK for collection with GILBERT. From the description of the alleged third gambler who pays frequent visits to GILBERT in the bank, GILBERT identified this man as S. C. "CHICK" FLOURNOY (Dallas file 162-164). He stated FLOURNOY has a loan on the books at the bank. He identified FRED MERRILL (Dallas file 166-81) as a person he has known for years and with whom he used to gamble when MERRILL operated a house in Rockwall County. He stated that many years ago he used to keep MERRILL's books. He further admitted he was acquainted with gambler JOHN BENTON TURNS.

GILBERT was quite vague about details throughout the interview but after the possible violations under the federal anti-gambling and conspiracy statutes were explained to him he became quite upset. He advised it appeared to him he was being used by these gamblers in their financial transactions. He stated he would cooperate with the FBI in any way possible. He stated he would give the matter considerable thought and attempt to remember specific details concerning financial transactions of these gamblers and would keep the FBI advised of any future transactions and activities. It is the opinion of the Dallas Office that GILBERT can be of great value in this investigation if he is placed in a position where he will cooperate with the Bureau.

investigation that HILL is a close associate of PHILIP STEPHENS BOSCO (Dallas file 92-331) and through previous interview of Dallas bookmaker GEORGE RECHENBERG, RECHENBERG had advised he obtained his line from BOSCO.

On 1/2/63 NORVELLE YOUNG STANFIELD (a bookmaker who works for BOSCO) was handling bets over phone TA 7-6022. It was subsequently determined that this number is a non-published number listed to W. W. The building is owned by SAM LAMONACO, a known close associate of BOSCO.

The above information concerning BOSCO and HILL was furnished orally to Lt. JACK REVILL, Dallas Police Department Intelligence Section and Deputy Sheriff BOB MORGAN, Dallas Sheriff's Office Intelligence Section on 1/3/63.
