TO : Mr. Parsons APL

DATE: 4/12/61

FROM : C. A. Evans CE

SUBJECT: CARLOS MARCELLO
ANTI-RACKETEERING

PURPOSE

To furnish background on Raymond Rolling, an informant of the New Orleans Division, who on 2/7/58 was the first source to advise that Carlos Marcello, notorious New Orleans racketeer who was deported by Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) to Guatemala on April 4, 1961, had obtained a false Guatemalan birth certificate. La.

DETAILS

As a result of information developed by Rolling, the FBI was the first Federal investigative agency to learn that Marcello had obtained a fraudulent Guatemalan birth certificate in 1957. In addition to identifying the individual who actually obtained these false papers, Rolling also named the Guatemalan attorney and Guatemalan Government officials who assisted in this matter. This information was immediately disseminated to INS by us for assistance to that agency since it had been attempting to deport Marcello since 1953. Approx 1957

For the past three years, Rolling, who has been employed as a handbook and barroom operator in Jefferson Parish, Louisiana, and is closely associated with several New Orleans top hoodlums, including Marcello, has furnished considerable information concerning underworld activity in this area, including detailed information with respect to the operation of the Nola Printing Co., Jefferson Parish. The Nola Printing Co., which is owned and operated by Marcello and some of his associates, furnishes horse race information throughout the southeastern United States. P

REC-7 92-2713-154

Rolling, aged 34, is the younger brother of Captain Earl A. Rolling, Chief, Criminal Investigations Department, Jefferson Parish Sheriff's Office. Although he has been associated with the underworld element in the past, he is presently employed as an investigator for Jefferson Parish District Attorney Frank Langdrige. According to FBI Identification Record Number 897352C, he has been fingerprinted for applicant matters only and does not have an arrest for criminal violations.
