On 6/29/63, the above captioned subjects were arrested on misdemeanor charges of wagering without a stamp after search warrants were issued on affidavits furnished by Bureau Agents to Internal Revenue Service (IRS). During the intensified investigation, IRS ascertained that JOHN STONE was making daily telephone calls from three different pay telephone stations located in the Preston Shopping Center, Dallas, Texas. IRS placed a recording device in one of the booths and ascertained that STONE was obtaining the line from the Dunes Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada.

During the U. S. Commissioner's hearing on 7/2/63, the above captioned subjects' attorney vigorously objected to the use of the recording device, stating that it was an invasion of the subjects' privacy.

On 7/6/63, a source advised that he was in contact with MILLER on 7/5/63, at which time MILLER indicated to him that he would probably receive a jail sentence out of the arrest by IRS.

DL-185-PC advised that BOBBY JOE CHAPMAN, a known Dallas bookmaker, is presently handling JOHN STONE's business, but that it was his opinion STONE would reopen for business within a week.
