investigative efforts of Italian Police in this matter. Dr. MANOPULO has made himself available to Legat on a 24 hour basis and is frequently in telephonic contact with police districts in Italy to make certain all leads are covered. Because of Dr. MANOPULO's excellent cooperation, Legat has been able to reply to Bureau requests in a prompt manner. (G-1)(u)

At the present time Dr. MANOPULO has placed stops for BRUNO at all airports and seaports in Italy. All police districts have been alerted and re-alerted by telegram and have been instructed to immediately telephone Dr. MANOPULO should information regarding BRUNO's whereabouts be obtained. Particular investigative attention is being given by Italian Police in Caltanissetta, Mosciano St. Angelo, and the small communities surrounding Mosciano St. Angelo. In this regard, Legat has also arranged for Italian Police at Rome's Fiumicino Airport to immediately contact him at the office or home if BRUNO should prepare to travel to the United States by air. (G-1)(u)

On November 2, 1963, and again on November 5, 1963, contact was made with Mr. EVERETT DAMRON, Consul, American Embassy, Rome, relative to the restriction of BRUNO's passport for travel to the U.S. only. DAMRON stated that he has not yet received word from the U. S. Department of State concerning this matter. We are following with DAMRON and will keep the Bureau advised of developments.

Upon receipt of Bureau cable dated November 4, 1963, Dr. MANOPULO was requested to determine the location of JAMES M. SALVATORE, reportedly in Rome to give $4,000.00 to BRUNO. As of the date of this letter, no information has been received. (S1)(u)

On November 5, 1963, Dr. MANOPULO called to advise that Italian Police have determined there is no motel or hotel in Mosciano St. Angelo. The closest motel to Mosciano St. Angelo is located at Pineto, Italy (Pineto Motel), a small resort town on the Adriatic coast. (G-1)(u)
