RE: MOVIMIENTO INSURRECCIONAL DE (RECUPERACION REVOLUCIONARIA
(MIRR)

On June 20, 1964, MM T-2, an individual who has some knowledge of the activities of the MIRR and its personalities including its leader, Orlando Bosch Avila, furnished the following information:

On the evening of June 19, 1964, MM T-2 learned from ~~Laredo Rodriguez~~, Treasurer of the MIRR, that the plane allegedly shot down over Cuba on June 19, 1964, had been engaged in activities of the MIRR at the time. Rodriguez said the pilot of the plane was Cuban. Rodriguez would not give any additional details concerning the flight. FIA

Subject ORGANIZATION

MM T-2 also advised that on June 20, 1964, he had learned that ~~Felix Sanchez~~, an aircraft pilot instructor at FIA Miami, had been contacted on June 20, 1964, by Gervelio Gutierrez X Concepcion, also known as "Mimo." MM T-2 described Gutierrez as a demolition expert and member of the MIRR. Gutierrez had attempted to utilize the services of Sanchez as a pilot and also was desirous of renting an aircraft on June 20, 1964, for the purposes of "reconnaissance." MM T-2 said Sanchez had previous plans and therefore declined. MM T-2 also learned that Gutierrez had attempted to obtain the private telephone number of the female owner of American Aviation, which number was unknown to Sanchez.

MM T-2 also learned that Gutierrez had attempted unsuccessfully to contact ~~Jose Hernandez~~, a Cuban pilot who had previously served in the Cuban Air Force and who is now residing in Miami. FIA

MM T-2 surmised that Gutierrez was attempting to set up a flight to search for the missing Cessna 205 aircraft.

RE: MOVIMIENTO INSURRECIONAL DE RECUPERACION REVOLUCIONARIA
(MIRR)

On June 20, 1964, MM T-2 advised that on that date the wife of Laredo Rodriguez had made a statement denying that the missing aircraft was involved in activities of the MIRR.

On June 22, 1964, MM T-2 advised that Laredo Rodriguez, Treasurer of the MIRR, had stated that the air raid in which Luis Diaz Lopez participated over Cuba on June 19, 1964, was sponsored by the MIRR.

Rodriguez said that contrary to reports circulated by Cuban Government sources, there were no survivors from the crash of this aircraft. Rodriguez claimed he had confirmed this through his sources inside Cuba.

MM T-2 continued that on June 22, 1964, a Cuban pilot whose name is unknown to MM T-2 had stated he and another Cuban pilot whose name was not disclosed to MM T-2 had during the recent past been making practice runs in a Cessna aircraft in the Bahama Islands preparatory to participation in an air raid in Cuba with Luis Diaz Lopez. MM T-2 advised that the individual whom he was in contact with is a white male, about 24 years of age, with approximately 70 hours of flying experience. This individual said the raid was originally scheduled for Sunday, June 21, 1964, but that for some unknown reason, pressure was brought to bear to carry out the raid on June 19, 1964. This individual told MM T-2 that he and a pilot companion were unable to go, therefore, were replaced by other crew members.
