FROM: SAC, PITTSBURGH (92-236)(92-228)
SUBJECT: GABRIEL MANNARINO, aka.

SAMUEL MANNARINO, aka.

On 4/26/61 PETER BOMBIK, 1520 Lincoln Ave., New Kensington, Pa., (protect per request) advised SA THOMAS G. FORSYTH, III as follows:

He and 20 other business and professional men, all residents of New Kensington, Pa., have formed a group known as the "Volunteers for Good Government," with the purpose of defeating New Kensington Mayor RAYMOND GARDLOCK and his associates in the forthcoming primary elections.

He said on April 7, 1961, they issued a twelve point program for press publication in New Kensington, showing changes and innovations in local government for the benefit of the public. The third point in the twelve point program states that "The police departments,-----, and other government agencies will be returned to their rightful position of efficiency, dignity, and self-respect so that they might honestly do the job for which they were created." The last of the twelve points sets out that "With the help of the people, we shall remove the brand of a racket run city. Curbing of vice will be placed in the hands of elected officials whose every desire is honesty, morality and proper government, not government by submission to others."

Naturally, in view of the above-stated proposals, the Volunteers for Good Government, are receiving opposition from the racketeering element in New Kensington, dominated by the MANNARINOS and according to rumor, the incumbents are receiving considerable sums from the racketeers as campaign funds.

BOMBIK will be alert for any info of pertinence to the FBI and will cooperate in any manner possible, especially if his group is successful in its efforts to unseat the current New Kensington political machine.

BOTH SUBJECTS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS.
